CAPITOL SUMMERSIDE AIR-CONDITIONED

Kensington and Vicinity

A number of our fairer sex, namely the Misses Audrey Bifer, Julian Marks, Olive Glyden, Anna McLean, Erma Hughes and Mamie Bennett, left on Friday for a two week's holiday at Clark's Shore, Bedouque, where they have snugly staid in Havenrest Cottage, and are enjoying themselves to the fullest.

Dr. and Mrs. W. P. McBride are visitors to Charlottetown on Friday.

Mr. Charles Howatt has returned to Kensington after a week's holiday in Charlottetown with his mother, Mr. A. R. Howatt.

His many friends are pleased to see Mr. Herbert Mease out again for his short but serious illness.

Mr. Hymie Jocheiman and Mr. Benjamin Chapman were recent visitors to Summerside.

Mr. and Mrs. Preston Toombs returned to Charlottetown on Saturday.

Mr. Harry Currie and Mr. William Michael, Charlottetown, were in Kensington Saturday.

Mr. Claude Delaney, Albany, was business visitor to Kensington on Saturday.

About fifteen of our hardy young men left on Saturday for Charlottetown, where they will be in training for the next ten days with the P. E. Island Highlanders, who are now under canvass there.

Mr. Goldie Delaney, Summerside, was a business visitor to Kensington on Saturday.

Master Charles Howatt and Master Lorne Howatt returned to their home in Charlottetown Sunday after a delightful week's holiday with their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. T. M. Howatt, Kensington.

The Ice Cream Social sponsored by the ladies of St. Mark's Church, Kensington, and scheduled for Saturday evening, on Mrs. Emery McParlane's lawn, due to rain was successfully held in Mr. McParlane's spacious home instead.

Quite a number from Kensington and vicinity motored to Charlottetown Sunday to attend the services of the official opening of the Confederation Anniversary.

—BRIDAL SHOWER—The home of Mr. and Mrs. George Mayne, Emerald, was filled to capacity on Friday evening, July 7th, when the numerous friends of their daughter, Miss Verma, gathered to tender her a shower of gifts previous to her marriage. The gifts were opened by friends of the bride-to-be, who expressed her sincere thanks in a few words. A delicious lunch was served and music and games were enjoyed for several hours.—R.

—COURT HOUSE GROUND GRADED—The grounds round the Summerside Court House have been graded up and flower beds set out. Two old trees with very deep roots were moved at considerable expense, as a large capson was employed to move the trees with surrounding earth to considerable depth. The trees were placed in their new position bringing them more in line. It is reported that the cost was round $100.00 for each tree. A number of men were employed for the work. The grounds present a very fine appearance.—S.

—FUNERAL SERVICE—The funeral of the late Mrs. Patrick Lambe of Springfield was held on June 30th at St. James Church, Summerside, when Requiem High Mass was sung by Rev. Basil Crozier, of St. Theresa's, nephew of the late Mrs. Lambe. Rev. J. R. Murphy, Rector of St. Dunstan's University, and Rev. Phelan McKenna, of St. E. were present in the sanctuary. The pall-bearers were Messrs. Emmett Dunn, Everett Haslam, Joseph Matheson, Thomas Hughes, Harry Hughes and Barnaby Croken. To the deceased husband and son Herman, their many friends extend sincere sympathy.—R.

—COMMUNITY CLUB MEETING—The North Bedouque Community Club met in the Community Hall, Monday evening with Mrs. Clement Carruthers in charge of the programme. After the opening chorus, the President, Mrs. Jas. E. MacDonald paid a fitting tribute to the founder of the club, Rev. J. W. A. Nicholson and asked for the co-operation of the members in order that the work be started might be carried out. A solo was sweetly rendered by Miss Wilma Reid, Middleton, with guitar accompaniment by Miss Jennie Carruthers. A former resident of North Bedouque, Mr. Wesley Rogers recited a series of his own poetry which were much appreciated. A delightful reading "An Irish Shulalch" by Miss Nellie MacDonald and a solo by Winnie Arsenault, concluded the programme. The address of the evening was given by Prof. W. J. Reid of Middleton, who gave a very informative and interesting talk on the Eastern Agricultural Convention held in Montreal the last four days of March and which he had the privilege of attending and taking part in as President of the Maritime Chamber of Agriculture and president of the P. E. I. Live Stock Marketing Board. Mr. Jas. E. MacDonald moved the vote of thanks to Prof. Reid which was seconded by Mrs. Margaret Carruthers. The clubs next meeting will be on Monday, July 24th, when Mrs. Earle MacMurdo will present the programme and the speaker will be Capt. John L. Reid of Borden.

—SLIGHT FIRE—The Summerside firemen were called out on Sunday evening for a slight fire at 21 Market Street. The cause of the fire was unknown. There was slight damage to the window frames of an upstairs room. The firemen responded quickly and soon extinguished the blaze.—S.

—ATTENDING GUIDE CAMP—Miss Carrie Holman, Guide Commissioner for Prince County; Captain Elaine Harrison, Jean Nicholson, Marjorie Mollison, and Jean Moore are attending the National Guide Camp at Rethesay, N.B. Guides attending are Betty Sharp, Betty Todd, Evelyn Walker and Mary Moore.—S.

—BEDE TO BE SHOWERED—At the regular meeting of Emerald Women's Institute which was held on the 11th inst. at the home of Mrs. Percy Murphy, one of the members, Miss Verma Mayne, was agreeably surprised by her sister members with a presentation in honor of her approaching marriage. A nicely worded address was read by Mrs. Joseph Hughes and the presentation of a beautiful mirror made. Verma thanked her friends, after which they all sang "For She's a Jolly Good Fellow." Ice-cream and cake was served and a pleasant social hour spent.—R.

—C. C. F. PARTY ORGANIZING—The C. C. F. party commenced preliminary organization in Prince Edward Island at a meeting held at Bedouque on Friday evening, July 14. Irving Toombs of Albany was elected president, and Douglas MacFarlane of Bedouque, secretary in the provincial council which was formed. The meeting was addressed by Dr. J. Stanley Allen, Senior Professor of Natural Science, Sir George Williams College, Montreal, who is an organizer of the national C. C. F. party, and has been doing organization work in the Maritimes during the last few weeks.

—FUNERAL SERVICE—The death occurred in Prince County Hospital of George MacKinnon, son of Mrs. MacKinnon and the late Bruce MacKinnon of Graham's Rd. on Monday, July 10th, at the age of 23 years. He leaves to mourn, besides his mother, four sisters, Mrs. Lionel Ford, Summerside; Mrs. Eadie Murray, Graham's Road; Lois and Marie; and two brothers, Hugh and Arnel, all at home. The funeral, which was very largely attended by relatives and friends from all the surrounding communities was held on Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock, the services being conducted by Rev. Mr. Dolan, assisted by Rev. Mr. Somers and Rev. Mr. Green. The hymns "The Lord's My Shepherd" and "The Sands of Time are Flowing" and "Abide With Me" were beautifully rendered. The pall-bearers were Messrs. Elmer McLeod, Chester Brown, George Wigmore, Waldron Ferguson, Neil Durant, Jr., and George Whitehead. Interment was in New London Cemetery.—R.

In style, women wait for war in England. Her cigaret in long holder, a book before her, one of 130 girls in Women's Auxiliary Territorial Service camp at Surrey relaxes during respite from military training.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Rathbone, socialites of Old Westbury, L.I., hung around for a thrill at the New York World's Fair longer than they expected when, after they "hailed out" from atop the 250-foot Parachute Jump, their chute stuck 100 feet above ground. At left, above, arrow indicates the couple, parachute aloft for five hours before rescue squads freed the jammed guide wires. From a 'chute' next to them, a policeman and a friend shout encouragement. At right, the Rathbones smile happily as the end of their literal "suspense" approaches.

Boy Scouts at Weybridge, England, recently found great thrills in the speed their "soap box autos" could make on the inclines during a special "derby" but they were doubly thrilled when George Eyston, the world's fastest driver appeared and asked to drive one of the home-made affairs. This photo shows one of the Scouts giving Eyston a proud push for a trial spin.

"I've left George, daddy, and come back to you and mummy!" "Well, your mother isn't here. She's gone back to your grandmamma."—Humorist.
