Miss Isabel MacDonald Entertains BPW Executive

The executive of the Business and Professional Women's Club were the guests of Miss Isabel Macdonald, Wednesday evening at her cottage at Rose Bank. The weather was warm and fine and the guests enjoyed the lawn with the beautiful view of Charlottetown across the river. A delicious dinner was served by Miss Macdonald. Later in the evening Miss Lena McLure, the retiring president of the Charlottetown Business and Professional Women's Club was presented with an island handmade aluminum tray and a card expressing the fond wishes of the B. and P. executive. Miss McLure warmly thanked her friends and expressed her appreciation of the most delightful hospitality as given by Miss Isabel Macdonald and the executive.

The beauty of this little Isle Can only be surpassed. By the kindness of its people Who leave memories that last.

In Hotels, Motels, Homes or where. You go there for to stay. Folks take the time to welcome you In their kind, hospitable way.

A deserted farm you seldom see. The Machinery left to rust. The pride they have's a heritage. It is a family trust.

The Parks and many beaches are Unspoiled commercially. The hand that farmed them is Divine. Their charm — "Tranquility."

We know the secret now that brings The folks there from afar. And happily lock forward too Our next trip there, by ear.

MR. AND MRS. ALVIN ELLIS Pretty Summer Wedding Solemnized At O'Leary

The United Baptist Church, O'Leary, was the setting for a pretty wedding on Saturday afternoon, August 1st, at 2 o'clock when Dorothy Adele, daughter of Mrs. Oliver Smallman and the late Mr. Smallman, became the bride of Alvin (Bud) George Ellis, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Ellis, O'Leary.

Rev. Ross Howard performed the double ring ceremony. The church was beautifully decorated for the occasion with baskets of colored gladioli, delphinium, peonies and ferns. Mrs. Melvia Ellis was organist and accompanied Mrs. Ross Howard as she sang "O Promise Me" previous to the ceremony and "I'll Walk Beside You" during the signing of the register.

The bride, given in marriage by her uncle, Mr. Willard Smallman, was lovely in the traditional white wedding gown of two-tier net and chantilly lace over satin, which featured a slim fitted bodice, scalloped neckline, long fitted pointed sleeves, and bouffant floor length skirt worn over hoop accented by two scalloped lace inserts with sequin and pearl trim. The chapel veil of French illusion was held in place by a tiara of pearls and sequins and she carried a cascade of pink sweetheart roses and white feathered carnations.

Miss Joyce MacDonald, cousin of the bride, as maid of honor, was gowned in pink nylon chiffon over taffeta—the sleeveless gown had a V-neckline back and front and detachable panels falling to the hemline in the back. Her headpiece was a white picture hat, shoes and gloves, and she carried a cascade of white mums.

Miss Irene Lockhart, cousin of the bride, as bridesmaid, and Miss Donna Smallman, niece of the bride, as junior bridesmaid, were identically gowned in aqua nylon chiffon over taffeta with white picture hat and they carried cascades of white mums.

Miss Caroline Auckland, niece of the bride, as flower girl, was enchanting in pink nylon over taffeta. She wore a miniature pink flowered tiara with pearls and carried a basket of pink sweetheart roses and rose petals.

Mr. Donald Auckland was the best man and Messrs. Keith Gorri, brother-in-law of the groom, and Lorne Palmer, cousin of the bride, ushered the guests to their pews which were marked with nosegays of sweet peas and white satin bows.

Mrs. Smallman chose for her daughter's wedding a navy dress with pink accessories and a corsage of pink roses. The groom's mother was attired in navy with white accessories and a corsage of white carnations.

A reception for one hundred and ten guests was held in the church parlor, where the bride's table, with its attractive arrangement of vases of sweet peas and pink and white tapers, was centered with a three tier wedding cake, encircled and topped with American Beauty roses. Mrs. A. A. MacLeod and Mrs. Elsie Flood, aunt of the groom, presided over the tea cups, while Mrs. Herbert MacAusland, Mrs. Glen Marshall, Mrs. Windburn Harris, Mrs. Paul Fleming and Miss Glennis Harris assisted in serving. Mrs. Keith Gorri, sister of the groom was in charge of the guest book.

For the honeymoon trip to points of interest on the Island, prior to returning to Toronto, the bride travelled in a two piece dress of blue shantung with white accessories and a corsage of white carnations. She carried a navy duster.

Mr. and Mrs. Ellis will reside in Toronto where both are employed.

Among the out-of-province guests were Mr. and Mrs. Paul Fleming Dartmouth, N.S.; and Mrs. Reg Lockhart, Amherst, N.S.; Mr. and Mrs. Glen Marchand, Oxford, N.S.; Miss Irene Lochart,
