Dr. Zella Clark Group, WMS Are Guild Guests

On Tuesday evening in the hall of the First Baptist Church the Ferne Levy and Kaye Lockwood World Wide Guilds had as their guests the members of the Women's Missionary Society and the Dr. Zella Clark Mission Group. The worship service was conducted by Mrs. George Lewis on the theme "When Little Brings Much". Mrs. Walter Baker, president of the Ferne Levy Guild, welcomed the guests and at the same time, on behalf of all present, expressed appreciation to Mrs. H.L. Milton for the inspirational leadership and assistance which she gives so freely to all groups throughout the year. The members of the Kaye Lockwood Guild presented a very interesting summary of the changes which Christianity has made in every phase of life in India. Slides were then presented on India, Bolivia and Angola showing what has already been accomplished in these countries and the great challenge of the vast areas yet untouched by the gospel. The Guilds then repeated their covenant.

Mrs. Leigh Walker, on behalf of the Ferne Levy Guild, with a few words of thanks and appreciation, presented a farewell gift to Mrs. Walter Baker. After all present were given the opportunity to become acquainted, refreshments were served. Mrs. Harold Huggan, president of the Women's Missionary Society, and Mrs. Trevor Hansen, president of the Dr. Zella Clark Mission Group, each expressed their thanks to the Guilds and the evening closed with a fellowship circle and prayer by Mrs. H. L. Milton.

McMaster University Loses Young Professor

Dr. Hugh R. Thompson, 32, assistant professor of geography at McMaster University, died June 6th following heart surgery. A specialist in geomorphology and Arctic geography, he had studied geographical problems on many continents. He was active in field research, and urged co-ordination of research by physical and earth scientists as a means of solving Canada's problems in the north. Born in Auckland, New Zealand, Dr. Thompson received his academic training at Oxford, the University of Illinois and McGill University. He served in India with the British Army during World War II, and joined the faculty of McMaster in 1954. A member of the Canadian and American Geographers' Association, the Arctic Institute of North America and the British Glaciological Society, he is survived by his wife, Lorna, and his mother. Funeral services were held in St. John's Anglican Church, Ancaster, with burial in the church cemetery.
