

2 Grey Cup Games Needed Says Dutton

MONTEAL (CP) — Mervyn (Red) Dutton of Calgary, one of Canada's most colorful sports executives, said Monday Canadian football must allow unlimited imports and stage a two-game Grey Cup playoff if it is to survive.

"Unlimited importation has to come," he said in an interview. "It's no secret that the most successful teams in Canada are the ones with the best depth, the most homebred players. But we're not developing them fast enough. The supply source is limited."

Dutton, here on a business trip, has been connected with a football executive since he retired as president of the National Hockey League to operate a contracting business.

He said the Grey Cup "one-shot show is ridiculous." "Hockey has made us playoff conscious. Without them it couldn't survive. And football should go for at least two games — one in Vancouver, one in Toronto on successive Saturdays — for the Grey Cup before it's too late."
