MR. AND MRS. W. A. GRAHAM

Worthy Couple Honoured On 45th Wedding Day

Mr. and Mrs. W.A. Graham are honoured at a reception in their home in Bayview on Thursday, October 2nd.

The occasion was in honour of their forty-fifth wedding anniversary. The couple, four children and their families along with over one hundred relatives and friends came to offer their congratulations. One son, Claude and family of Windsor, Ontario, were the only members of the family unable to be present.

Mrs. Graham was presented with a mixed bouquet of flowers by her little granddaughter Betty Graham of Charlottetown.

Rev. E.A.C. Haley, acted as master of ceremonies and made a few remarks to the honoured couple and called upon Mrs. Clarence Stewart who read an address and presented Mr. and Mrs. Graham with an electric percolator, toaster and iron from the friends of Bayview and Cavendish.

The Bayview Women's Institute remembered Mrs. Grahman with several pieces of jewellery presented by Mrs. Cecil Simpson and a cheque from Mrs. Keirstead, Fredericton, N.B. was also presented. The couple's five children and families presented them with a kitchen chrome set. Two little granddaughters, Pamela Campbell and Barbara Graham of Charlottetown carried in the many beautiful and useful gifts including $48.00 from relatives and friends. The gifts were opened and presented by Mrs. Merrill Simpson and Mrs. Edward Stewart.

The beautiful three-tier anniversary cake made by Mrs. Robert Andrews and Mrs. Austin Graham and floral gifts graced the reception tagle.

Relatives included Mr. Graham's sister and husband, Lilla and Herbert Lee Tago, Saskatchewan, a niece and husband Lena and Allen Douglas, Windsor, Ontario.

A delicious lunch was served by the ladies of the district with a peice of Anniversary cake for all.

Mr. and Mrs. Grahman expressed their appreciation for the many gifts and well wishes of the relatives and frends honouring them so graciously.

Their host of friends wish the Grahams many more years of happy married life.

Keep Food Bill Down With Low-Cost Meals

By IDA BAILEY ALLEN

"Food costs are sky-high but so what!" exclaimed the Chef. "The ladies of the household should do what chefs do—make good use of lesser priced food alternates that are available."

"Right, Chef," I agreed. "Tenderized Swiss steak from flank of beef can be used instead of porterhouse. Veal scaloppine from thin slices of shank of veal can be served instead of veal cutlets."

"Every chef in business to make money knows that the only way to beat the high cost of food and make a profit is to watch every penny."

JUST AS TASTY

"For instance, Chef, certain vegetables may be scarce or out of season and therefore expensive. Others that are plentiful are inexpensive and can be just as tasty. Get out of the rut of thinking of only a few kinds of foods. Get into the habit of cooking a wide variety according to price.

Torrow's oven-dinner: Spanish tomato salad, ham cheese marcaroni casserole, green beans en casserole, warm new apple pie, coffee, tea, milk.

All measurements are level, receipes proportioned to serve 4 to 6.

Spanish tomato salad: Centre a round platter with an overlapping design of halved thin-sliced tomatoes. Ring this with paper-thin raw onion slices. Border this with green pepper rings, centering a slice of hard-cooked egg in each. pass garlic French dressing.

Ham - cheese - macaroni casserole: This calls for 2 c. fine-diced oddments cooked ham, 8 oz. cooked short-cut high-protein macaroni and 2½ c. home - made cheese cream sauce.

Combine the cooked macaroni and cheese sauce. Arrange in layers with the ham in an oiled 2-qt. casserole.

Top with ½ c. seasoned bread crumbs mixed with 2 tbsp. melted butter or margarine and 2 tbsp. grated cheese.

Bake 35 min. in a moderate oven, 375 degrees F.

CHEESE CREAM SAUCE

Grate ½ lb. sharp American aged or processed cheese. Add 1½ tsp. dry mustard, ½ tsp. salt, ⅛ tsp. pepper, ½ tsp. paprika, ¼ tsp. monosodium glutamate, 2 tbsp. enriched flour. Gradually stir in 2 c. heated milk.

Cook-stir until boiling. Makes 2½ c.
