WHIM-WHAMS.

Some Eccentric Sayings Written Up by a Funny Fellow.

She—I'm one of her oldest friends.
He—You look it.

A Tuckahoe man has called his cat Boomerang, because it comes back.

Patience—Chollie says it makes him feel more like himself to have that single eyeglass in his eye.

Patrice—Well, I am sure it makes him look more like a fool.

Bill—I've worked for every dollar I've ever owned.

Jill—Whom did you "work"?

"I see Paderewski is knocking money out of the piano again in this country," said the observer of events and things.

Yeast—What game is your wife most fond of?

Crimsonbeak—A game of talk, I guess.

She—Seems to me you're very forward, sir.

He—Yes; I'm the advance man for a circus.

"When you hear a book agent try his voice," remarked the observer of events and things, "you know at once it is of some volume."

The In Town Man—Are the trains running pretty light on your road now?
The Out of Town Man—Well, not at night they're not.

Bill—Hear that fellow? He sings to keep the wolf from the door.

Jill—I should think he would be eminently successful.—Yonkers Statesman.

NERVOUS... DEPRESSION

Means Impoverished and Exhausted Nerves—Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Food Restores and Revitalizes the Nerve Cells.

People who suffer from Nervous Depression and Exhaustion frequently look healthy and strong. They alone know the thousand distressing symptoms which make their lives miserable.

The lack of nerve force results in a slow and sluggish action of the heart, impaired digestion, headache, despondency, and a fear to venture, loss of energy, sleeplessness, incapacity for mental labor or business.

With these symptoms there is usually melancholy and fear of death, which tends to increase nervousness, but there is every reason to be hopeful if the right treatment is used. Dr. Chase's Nerve Food contains all the nutrition required to create new brain and nerve tissue. It imparts to the nervous system that life-giving principle which sends a thrill of new strength and vigor through the system.

Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Food will cure by the building-up process, which enables the body to laugh at disease and weakness. Face cut and fac-simile signature of Dr. A. W. Chase on every box of the genuine. 50c. a box, at all dealers, or Edmanson, Bates & Co., Toronto.

The Ghost Was Shy.
"Ha!" exclaimed Hamlet, starting. The wicked queen wrung her hands in a transport of agony.
"Mister, but I'd like to see a ghost walk!" she cried.
But it was only to the melancholy Dane that the apparition was visible.
"We should not think harshly of the queen for taking liberties with her lines, for she had received no salary for six weeks, and the thought of her husband at home crying for bread goaded her to desperation.—Detroit Journal.

"Goodby, Alfred, darling! You have cheered me up. If I get lonely and depressed again, I'll just look at your dear photo. That's sure to make me laugh and laugh and laugh!"—Punch.

"In what way?"

"When she takes the second prize at a card party, she can appear so tickled with what she gets that she always makes the winner of the first prize jealous and dissatisfied."—Chicago Times-Herald.

Finesse.

"Mamma, what did you tell the conductor to let us off at Schiller street for? That's a block farther than we wanted to go, and we'll have to walk back."

"You didn't think, child, that I would try to pronounce 'Goethe' before a car full of people, did you?"—Chicago Tribune.

Mr. De F.—What on earth do you want with the morning paper?

Mrs. De Fashion—I want to see if the play we witnessed last night was good or bad.—New York Weekly.

Nell—And so she did—a man of agriculture.—Chicago News.
