

An Open Letter

FROM HENRY M. STANLEY.

(By the Commercial Cable to the Herald.)

LONDON, May 16, 1890.—The following notice was mailed last night to Messrs. Charles Scribner's Sons, and I have been shown the original signed copy:—

NOTICE TO THE AMERICAN PUBLIC:

I beg distinctly to state that the only publishers in America who have any authority to publish anything whatever of mine are Messrs. Scribner's Sons and Messrs. Harper Brothers. My new and shortly forthcoming work, "In Darkest Africa," is exclusively in the hands of Messrs. Charles Scribner's Sons, and I cannot too emphatically condemn the conduct of a firm calling itself the Historical Publishing Company, who, in the name of truth of justice, put forth an advertisement headed, "Look out! Do not be deceived!" which is made up of the most barefaced falsehoods.

The work which they announce as "Heroes of the Dark Continent," I repudiate entirely. They say it contains all my forthcoming work and a great deal more. I emphatically deny this statement.

I have simply to say once for all that these people can by no possibility publish anything of mine but what they have dishonestly appropriated from my previous works; and being an American citizen, and therefore holding my copyright there, I shall in due time take proper measures to protect myself against such unprincipled robbery.

I am aware that several other publishers are announcing spurious works purporting to be mine. I therefore think it high time that all my good friends in America should be put on their guard, and bear in mind that my authorized work will be called "In Darkest Africa," in two volumes, and will be published only by Messrs. Charles Scribner's Sons.

HENRY M. STANLEY.
