MR. HOUS. OF BERLIN

Cured of Lumbago by Dodd's Kidney Pills

BERLIN, Oct. 15.—Everyone in Berlin knows Andrew Ho. He is a respected and prosperous resident, who numbers his friends by hundreds.

For over a year past Mr. House was tormented by severe pains in his back, which increased in severity in spite of doctors and their medicines.

He was advised to try Dodd's Kidney Pills. He did so. That night he felt less pain. Daily the pains abated, and in less than two weeks Dodd's Kidney Pills had cured him thoroughly.

There is only one sure and unfailing cure for Back-ache. That cure is Dodd's Kidney Pills. Experience has proved this thousands of times.

Even a man who is true as steel may have a hard temper to contend with.

The Vaudeville Theater.

Sometimes the vaudeville theater is an individual and independent enterprise; more often it belongs to a circuit. The patronage, expenses and receipts are enormous. One circuit will speak for all. It has a theater in New York, one in Philadelphia, one in Boston, and one in Providence, and they give no Sunday performances, and yet these four theaters entertain over 5,000,000 people every year, give employment to 350 attaches and to 3,500 actors.

Four thousand people pass in and out of each one of these theaters daily. Ten thousand dollars are distributed each week in salaries to the actors and $3,500 to the attaches. Take one theater for example, the house in Boston. It is open the year round, and it costs $7,000 a week to keep it open, while its patrons will average 25,000 every week. On a holiday it will play to from 10,000 to 12,000 people.—From "The Vaudeville Theater," by Edwin Milton Royle, in Scribner's.

Grounds For Action.

Softleigh—I aw—had me mind wead by a pvoessional mind weader wecently, doncher know?
Miss Cutting—Indeed! And what did he charge you?
Softleigh—Foah dollars.
Miss Cutting—What an outrage! Why don't you have him arrested for obtaining money under false pretenses?

The Others to Blame.

"You can't keep a secret, Marie."
"Yes, I can; but I always happen to tell things to other girls who can't."—Chicago Record.

A little sugar taken with water, not too cold, in case food is not obtainable, will relieve any feeling of exhaustion and sharp hunger.

The use of cocaine to produce local insensibility is forbidden in Turkey on religious grounds.

Healthful Ignorance.

"Don't you want the water of your well analyzed?" asked the traveling agent of the chemical company.
"What fur?" inquired the hale old farmer sitting on the front porch.
"To know whether it is pure and wholesome or not."
"I reckon not. If there's anything the matter of it, mister, I'd ruther not know it."
"How long have you been using it?"
"Eighty-seven years."
The traveling agent passed on.—Chicago Tribune.

Profitable Silence.

"I think that husbands ought to pay their wives a weekly salary," declared Mrs. Tomdick.
"About how much?" asked Mrs. Hojack.
"Well, say $10 a week."
"I used to think so, too, until I discovered that my husband pays about $800 a year for my millinery and clothes alone, and then I decided that any salary I would like to ask for wouldn't go very far."—Detroit Free Press.

Backache for 18 Years.

Suffered Much—Was Unable to Work or Sleep—Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills Made Him Well.

Too many endure the misery of backache without knowing that it is the unmistakable symptom of kidney disease. As you value your life do not neglect a backache. It tells of the beginning of the most fatal of diseases—Bright's Disease of the kidneys.

Mr. D. C. Simmons, Mabeo, Ont., writes:—"My kidneys and back were so bad that I was unable to sleep or work. My urine had sediment like brickdust, and I had to get up three or four times every night.

"I saw Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills advertised, and decided to give them a trial. I have only used one box, and am a well man again. I can saw wood or do any kind of work, and am not bothered with backache or kidney troubles. I also enjoy good rest and sleep, which is a great relief after suffering for eighteen years."

A GENERAL MISFIT.

And It Angered the Tailor's Victim Accordingly.

"Now I know what it is to think murder. If I gave way to the animal in my nature, I would have that fellow's life blood before I slept. Here it is Saturday night and not a chance to reach him before Monday. I'll not go out of the house tomorrow, not if the bishop himself were going to conduct the services. Look at me!"

"Why, Robert, I think it's a real nice looking suit. I do, indeed."

"No, you don't. Would you have ever married me if I'd tried to court you in a guy looking rig like this? I guess not. Look at the sleeves. You couldn't get a decent sized pair of cuffs through these wristbands to save you from being flayed alive. Did you ever see such pants in your life—bloomers to the knees, skin tight over the calves and peg bottoms? One leg shorter than the other too! See it? I wouldn't go to an Elks' masquerade in such a rig."

"Nothing the matter with the clothes," snapped the wife's sister, who is very much as other men's wives' sisters are.

"I wish you'd just reserve your valuable opinion till it's asked for. It's a fright, and I want you to understand that I married only one of your family."

"I know it. There's only one of the family who would have had you."

His wife prevented violence by tearful intervention, but he jerked his summer hat on by mistake, forgot his night key and left with a vow that he would whip that tailor within an inch of his life and a loud hint that they would get rid of interlopers if they had to go to boarding.
