

X-PRESS PUBLISHING SCHEDULE 1993-1994

When can you expect to catch a glimpse of the X-Press this year? We have a new publishing schedule that has us publishing about three times a month in September, October, November, January, February, and March with two extra issues (December 2 and March 31). Exact publication dates will be:

September 9, 16, and 23.

October 7, 14, and 21.

November 4, 11, and 18.

December 2.

January 13, 20, and 27.

February 3, 10, and 17.

March 3, 10, 17, and 31.

So, you're saying, when are we taking submissions? The paper is published on Thursdays and if you want to guarantee your story or whatever seeing print on Thursday, then you must GET YOUR SUBMISSIONS IN NO LATER THAN THE PREVIOUS MONDAY BY OR BEFORE NOON if you want to ensure your submission's inclusion. We can print your submission without your name if you want, but keep in mind that we need a name and phone number with every submission for legal reasons (though as stated, these can be kept confidential). Submit early, submit often.
