Florence, Sept. 22.

Gen. Garibaldi has issued a stirring address announcing that the time has now come to overthrow the tyranny of the Pope, restore Rome to Italy, and give the eternal city its ancient supremacy, as the capital of the Italian nation. A proclamation has also been promulgated by King Victor Emanuel, warning all Italians against taking part in or aiding or abetting a revolutionary movement against Rome, which is denounced a crime against the laws of Italy and nations.

The proclamation concludes with a trust that the Government will not fail to visit with vigorous punishment all persons found engaged in illegal hostilities against the papal authority.

Funeral obsequies were held this forenoon over the remains of Sir Frederick Bruce, in Trinity Church, on Summer street. The attendance was large and embraced a large number of our English citizens. The front of the singers gallery was testefully and appropriatly adorned with flags, the Union Jack being shown upon the right and the American flag upon the left. The former being more prominently displayed than the other as a mark of respect.

We have received a despatch which states that H. B. M. steamer Garnet has been ordered from Halifax to Boston to convey the remains of Sir Frederick Bruce to England.

Gold 142½.

To the Editor of the Journal,

Sir:—

There is a peculiar feeling of pleasure experienced by ever one on being unexpectedly thrown into contact with esteemed friends or acquaintances of former days. It carries us back in imagination to those sunny spots and placid nooks, in the otherwise rugged and stormy streams of life, which we have mutually enjoyed in those days that now, alas! are gone, gone forever.

Such were some of the emotions which thrilled our breasts in this community on Thursday last, when we received a flying visit from our formerly well known and esteemed literary friend, Mr. James Porteous, of St. John, N. B., who some 16 years ago resided at Traveller's Rest on this Island, at which time the members of the Bedeque "Literary and Scientific Society" were more than once delighted, improved, and strengthened by means of this able, eloquent, and scientific lecturer

On the day above mentioned Mr. Porteous verbally gave notice to a few of his friends that he would favor us with a lecture in the Temperance Hall the following evening, on the "Atmosphere," and altho' the notice was so short and informal, there was quiet a respectable audience gathered, whose attention was so completely rivetted that there was not the least move in the whole building, while the learned lecturer logically, eloquently and sublimely, portrayed the goodness and beneficence of the great Creator, as exhibited in the different properties and qualities of that sea of ether in which we live, and move, and is so indispensable to our very existence.

It is not my intention to give an analysis of the lecture, suffice it to say that the lecture required to be heard to be appreciated. There was one feature however that deserves a passing notice, and that was the vein of pure piety that ran through and pervaded the whole discourse, it appeared the object of the lecturer to lead us upward and onward through labyrinths of nature up to nature's God—to impress upon us higher and nobler views of the perfection of the Diety, and more humbling views of ourselves. In a word, from the study of science to become wiser and better men.

Yours, etc.,

One of the Audience.

Bedeque, Sept. 23d, 1867.

Mrs. A. Allen's Worlds Hair Restorer and Zylobalsalum or Worlds Hair Dressing are unequalled, and so acknowledged by all who use them for restoring, invigorating andressing the hair, rendering it soft, silky and glossy, and disposing it to remain in any desired position; quickly cleansing the scalp, arresting the fall and imparting a healthy and natural color to the hair. They never fail to restore grey hair to its original youthful color. They act directly upon the roots of the hair giving the natural nourishment required. No lady's toilet is complete without the Zylobalsamum or hair dressing. It cleanses the hair and imparts to it a most delightful fragrance, and is suited to both young and old.

The Restorer Reproduces. The Hair Dressing cultivates and beautifies.

If your hair is thin try it, if scurfy try it, if harsh try it, if lustreless try it, if none of these try it, for all who use it will preserve their hair through life. For sale by all Druggists.

Farm for Sale!

THE Subscriber offers FOR SALE his VALUABLE FREEHOLD FARM on Lot 16, consisting of seventy-five acres of LEASEHOLD LAND, about forty acres are highly cultivated, and the remaining thirty-five thickly covered with hard and soft wood. The buildings nearly new consist of a DWELLING, BARN, and OUT HOUSES, all neat and commodious.

This Farm is situate in one of the handsomest and most thriving settlements on the Island, within one mile of Grand River, a convenient shipping place, and where sea manures can be had in abundance, and only seven miles from Summerside, where good prices can be at all times had for every description of farm produce. A school house is at the door, a Church not far distant, and indeed nothing is wanting to make it a rare chance to any one wishing to purchase.

NOTICE.

DR. D. WELSH, of Richibucto, begs leave to inform the inhabitants of Prince Edward Island, that he will be in Summerside in about ten days from this date, and may be consulted in reference to all CHRONIC DISEASES, as he will guarantee a cure for all such diseases. No cure no pay!

His residence will be at CRABB'S HOTEL.

Richibucto, Sept. —th, 1867. 1m*

CERTIFICATE.

RICHIBUCTO, March 5, 1866.

This is to certify that Dr. D. Welsh, has performed a wonderful cure in the Richibucto, N. B., namely, that of curing a Burn received by Lighting. She was attended by two Physicians—Doctors Wilson & McLaren—and given up by them, and in one month after she was treated by Dr. Welsh she was cured.

D. L. BRYANT.
