Longliners Leave Again For North

The longliners Qialuq and Nasig left Alberton at 10 o'clock last night for a second attempt to cross the Gulf of St. Lawrence enroute to the Far North.

On their first try last Thursday they struck a severe storm and were forced to return for minor repairs to the Nasig. Phillip Kinch, manager of Alberton Industries, builders of the vessels, will be in charge of the longliners as far as Anticosti Island. From there the regular crews will take over. Terry Collins, formerly of Alberton and now residing in Toronto, will also go as far as Anticosti and return by plane with Mr. Kinch.

Tignish To Stage Lobster Bonanza
