Bismarck's Appetite.
Among other amusing reminiscences of the late Prince Bismarck appearing in Herr John Booth's "Memoirs of the Iron Chancellor" is one relating to the latter's gargantuan capacity for eating and drinking. He told the author that the largest number of oysters he ever ate was 175. He first ordered 25; then as they were very good, 50 more, and, consuming these, determined to eat nothing else and ordered another hundred, to the great amusement of those present. Bismarck was then 26 and had just returned from England.

Experience Versus Arithmetic.

Johnny—Just one week.
Teacher—Oh, think again; that's not right!
Johnny—Yes, it is. I know my father. He'd have you up in the courts by that time.

It Looked Suspicious.
"Isn't your neighbor Blinkinoff a drinking man?"
"I wouldn't like to give an expert opinion on the subject. I'll admit, however, that I saw him the other night trying to drive a spigot into an ash barrel, thinking that it was cider."—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

There is none made so great but he may both need help and service and stand in fear of the power and unkindness even of the meanest of mortals.

14 YEARS
Without Cleaning
A watch was recently left with me to be repaired, which the owner stated had not been cleaned for 14 years.
But, mark you, it needs more than cleaning now, one of the pivots having been entirely worn away for want of oil.
I would like to impress on all owners of watches, (particularly fine watches) the importance of having your watch cared for at intervals not exceeding two years. I solicit your patronage, because I know that I can give you the best service obtainable.
