 LAST year some people thought the steamer would not carry all who intended taking in the Victoria Day Excursion. This time the S. S. Stanley will be running so there will be plenty room for all who come.
 Rev. G. M. CAMPBELL, of St. John, spent a few days in Moncton in the interests of the Bible Society. Mr. Campbell addressed the Annual Roll call meeting held in Central Methodist Church, Moncton one evening of last week.
 The alarming sounds heard in the City and o'er hill and dale surrounding, on Saturday afternoon, were caused by the testing of the steam siren of the surveying steamship Ellinor. The Ellinor will sail in about ten days time on her summer cruise.
 On Saturday 12th inst, John A. Webster of this City lost a greatly prized ring. In the vicinity where he thought he had lost the jewel, a diligent search was made without avail. On Saturday 19th he advertised for it in the Guardian's classified column, and at ten o'clock same morning a small boy returned the ring to him.
 The Hillsborough Boating Club are about completing negotiations for the purchase of two comfortable and up-to-date pleasure boats for the use of members. The present season seems to promise renewed interest in aquatic sports. Charlottetown Harbor certainly affords plenty of room for yachting and pleasure boating.
 REGARDING the s. s. Campana, which The Guardian's telegraphic despatches reported ashore at Point St. Valler, twenty four miles east of Quebec on Friday night, the following telegram was received on Saturday by Carvell Bros., the agents for the steamship in this City: "Campana sailed from Quebec to Montreal at 8 o'clock last night, making no water. Will dock for examination."
 F. J. HOLMAN, now of Sydney, formerly of this city was a passenger by the Stanley Saturday evening. He expects to return to Sydney in a few days and will be accompanied by Daniel McLean, of North Wiltshire. Mr. Holman and Mr. McLean have lately bought out a large and well known grocery and produce business at Sydney, and intend taking the business on the first of June.

 The sch. Venture which was ashore at Wood Islands, was towed into Pictou, last week by tug Wm. Altkens. The schooner is loaded with produce and will be bound to Glouce Bay. The cargo will likely be sold at Pictou and vessel go on slip there for repairs.
 LATER advices from San Francisco, tell of the marvelous escape of P. E. Islanders in the belated city. Simon Murhison, formerly of Glen William, P. E. I., in a letter of recent date, tells of the miraculous escape of himself and his family. They were thrown violently from their beds, and barely escaped with their lives. Mrs. J. D. Cameron, widow of the late J. D. Cameron, formerly of Glen William, and her son also had a narrow escape. William Matheson of Glen William in writing, describes the appalling calamity.
 The Sons of England held their annual church parade and turn out yesterday morning, making an imposing procession as they marched to Grace Church, where a special service was held, and a sermon appropriate to the occasion was preached by Rev. J. W. McConnell of Moncton. The Rev. gentleman spoke eloquently of the high mission which it is manifest Great Britain is accomplishing, under God's power. He graphically and earnestly pointed out the grandeur and magnificence of the greatest empire that has been. Most appropriately, Kipling's Recessional was sung after the sermon, J. Elmer Ritchie taking the solo. There was a large attendance.
