

IN MEMORIAM

MR. TIMOTHY H. AHEARN

—He passed peacefully away at his home in St. Roche, Sunday morning, January 18th, the soul of Mr. Timothy H. Ahearn.

Born at St. Roche on February 16th in the year of 1869, he was the only son of the late James Ahearn and Margaret Gavin, who predeceased him a number of years ago.

He had been in failing health for the past five months. He underwent an operation in the Charlottetown Hospital in October, after which he returned to the Western Hospital for further treatment which was of no avail. The remainder of his illness was spent at his home where he was tenderly nursed by his loving family and frequently visited by his numerous friends and neighbours. During his last illness he was often visited by his pastors, Rev. Father Gallant and Rev. John MacDonald who administered to him the last rites of the Holy Roman Catholic Church.

His kind and cheerful disposition will be greatly missed, not only in his home where he was a loving husband and father, but also in the community where he was always ready and willing to give a helping hand when and wherever needed.

Left to cherish his ever loving memory are his wife, the former Ethel Ahearn of Kildare and five sons and five daughters: James, Tignish; Elmer, Saint John; Frank, Dawson, Y. T.; Wheelock, with the U. S. Army; Emmett at home; Margaret and Inez, Montreal; Marie, Toronto; Anna (Mrs. Nick Aldie Vilna, Alberta; and Gladys, R.N., Saskatoon City Hospital; also two orphan children who were reared in his home, Crawford and Peter, and two grand children, Peter Ahearn, Saint John, and Charles Aldie, Alberta. Three children predeceased him in infancy.

The funeral, which was largely attended, was held on January 21 at 9:30 A.M. from St. Simon and St. Jude's Church, Tignish, with Reverend Father MacDonald officiating. The casket was borne by the following: Father Gallant officiating at the grave. Pallbearers were Gerald Profit, Herman Gillis, Ignatius Gavin, Oville Byote, Bernard Keefe, Oville Chaslon.

IN MEMORIAM

JAMES CONOHAN

—A pall of sadness was cast upon the residents of Fortune and Truro when they learned of the passing of one of their dearly beloved sons in the person of James N. Conohan at the early age of 38 years.

Jim, as he was familiarly known, was born in Fortune, P. E. I., the son of Emanuel Conohan and his wife Anne Tassell.

He was a fine robust young man, a credit to his parents and to his community. It was always said of him, "His word was his bond."

Twelve years ago he and his wife moved to Truro, N. S., where he worked for the Truro Paper Mill. He was a faithful worker and for the past ten years was employed by the Canadian Creosote Co., which shows he was a servant worthy of his hire.

Last April, he entered Truro hospital for treatment. No one realized that his condition was serious, but he had developed a serious blood condition which proved fatal. On advice of his physician he entered the V. G. Hospital, hoping with the best medical skill that he might be spared until the time of his death. He was a faithful worker and for the past ten years was employed by the Canadian Creosote Co., which shows he was a servant worthy of his hire.

Left to cherish his ever loving memory are his wife, the former Ethel Ahearn of Kildare and five sons and five daughters: James, Tignish; Elmer, Saint John; Frank, Dawson, Y. T.; Wheelock, with the U. S. Army; Emmett at home; Margaret and Inez, Montreal; Marie, Toronto; Anna (Mrs. Nick Aldie Vilna, Alberta; and Gladys, R.N., Saskatoon City Hospital; also two orphan children who were reared in his home, Crawford and Peter, and two grand children, Peter Ahearn, Saint John, and Charles Aldie, Alberta. Three children predeceased him in infancy.

The funeral, which was largely attended, was held on January 21 at 9:30 A.M. from St. Simon and St. Jude's Church, Tignish, with Reverend Father MacDonald officiating. The casket was borne by the following: Father Gallant officiating at the grave. Pallbearers were Gerald Profit, Herman Gillis, Ignatius Gavin, Oville Byote, Bernard Keefe, Oville Chaslon.

IN MEMORIAM

MRS. MARGARET ADA HOLMES

The death occurred after a lingering illness on January 22nd at her home, 206 Hillsboro Street, Charlottetown, P.E.I. of Mrs. Margaret Ada Holmes. The deceased was the widow of the late John E. Holmes of Charlottetown and daughter of the late Donald and Amelia (Buntin) MacMillan of West Covehead, Prince Edward Island. During the first years of her married life she lived at West River, P. E. I. and later settled at East Royalty where she spent the greater part of her life. Upon retirement, she and her husband and family moved to Charlottetown where the family now reside. She was a member of Trinity United Church and a Life Member of the Women's Missionary Society.

She had a cheerful disposition, a peaceful mind that accompanies duty well, and unselfishly done, love and care of a devoted family, and the joy of mutual friendships were some of the consolations of her declining years. Many friends and acquaintances attended the funeral service which was held Saturday afternoon, January 24th from Trinity United Church, and joined in the cortege to People's Cemetery. The service was conducted by Rev. Frank MacLean, assisted by Rev. J. T. Irwin both of whom had visited the deceased during her illness, and Rev. G. Webster of Zion Presbyterian Church. Two favorite hymns, "The Lord's My Shepherd" and "Safe in the Arms of Jesus" were sung. There were many beautiful floral tributes.

The pallbearers were, Ira Shaw, Calvin MacKay, Harold Newson, John E. Andrew, Alex. McNeil and Chester Buntin. Rev. Thos Wilson assisted at the grave.

Left to cherish her memory are one son, Allison of East Royalty and six daughters, namely, Millie, Mrs. F. W. Wheatley, (Marion) Mrs. Elmer Mallet, Gertrude and Emma, all of Charlottetown, and one sister, Mrs. O. C. LePage, also of Charlottetown, and seventeen grand
