NEWS BY THE ENGLISH MAIL. HAZARD'S GAZETTE OFFICE. Thursday—1 p. m. We delayed issuing our paper on Tuesday evening to give place to the arrival of the English Mail...

Beyond the increasing conviction that the Cabinets of France and England have come to the resolution to drop the few lines of the Treaty of Commerce, with regard to the Russo-Turkish question, very little has been really done.

The difference between Lord Palmerston and his colleagues in the Ministry has been removed, and his Lordship's resignation has been withdrawn. The public knows nothing whatever of the circumstances which have led to the first proposal of the Viscount's secession; and, in the second, to his return to office.

The Russian Fleet Forbidden to put to Sea by England and France.—A communication has been made by the French Government to the British Government...

It was to the effect, that the Powers, the allies of the Porte, would see with displeasure any attempt to open any further negotiations with the English Government. It was despatched on the 23rd ult. by a special messenger.
