BUTTER MAKING.

A PART of the work of our farmers' wives in summer is making butter. This branch of trade has now become a very important one.

We copy the following article on the above subject from the Boston Zion's Herald, and we recommend its careful perusal to our farmers' wives and daughters:—

"This is the very best month of the whole year to make good butter. It is not too hot, nor too cold. There is a greater amount of milk to look after, though it may not be as rich as later in the season."

GEMS OF THOUGHT.

BEGIN AT HOME.—Why do you begin to do good so far off? This is a ruling error. Begin at the centre and work outward.

To YOUNG MEN.—The way by which capital can be increased is by saving. If you spend as much as you can get, you will never be richer than you are.

A politician who recently returned from Washington, in reply to a question as to where he had been, replied, "I have been after an office, and got the refusal of it."

"You had better ask for manners than money," said a finely-dressed gentleman to a beggar boy who asked for alms.
