A QUESTION.

We have no disposition to disturb the serenity of Sir Louis Davies' holiday. Sir Louis is at home for a rest; let him have it.

"True, the total expenditure was large," proceeded Sir Louis, "but every item is capable of defence and justification."

The total expenditure, every item of which is capable of defence and justification, is in round numbers $8,000,000 more than that which Sir Louis, and Sir Richard, also, when in Opposition denounced as the height of extravagance!

Now, the question is, if the larger expenditure is justifiable in every particular sum that goes to make it up, on what ground did Sir Louis stand when he denounced the smaller amount as unjustifiable and extravagant?

Perhaps someone will satisfy the independent farmers of this Province, who voted the Liberal ticket because Sir Louis told them that the Tories were "extravagant," that an addition by the Liberals of $8,000,000 a year to the "Tories' extravagant expenditure" is not extravagant.

NOTES AND COMMENTS.

-Risky pic-nicing weather.

"Remember the Maine," cry our cousins to the south. "Yes," says the Canadian Grocer, "it is always well for merchants to remember the main-thing."

-There was a perhaps inadvertent omission from the Patriot's interview with Sir Louis Davies. No questions were asked or answered as to the promised Hillsborough Bridge and Southern Railway!

-Sir Louis Davies announces that Mr. John Charlton, M. P., may be one of the Commissioners at the Quebec Conference. Mr. Charlton gave the Washington politicians timely advice as to the best means of squeezing the Canadian lumber trade, and he is a New Yorker, born bred and educated. The question is, will his influence on the commission not inure to the advantage of the United States?

-Mr Sharpe is receiving warm and well deserved praise for improvements in the summer time-table. Strange that when Senator Ferguson was struggling, a few years ago, for the introduction of the principle of close connection with the mainland, upon which the new time-table is based, those who are now praising Mr Sharpe were then equally loud in their abuse of the Senator.

-Sir Louis Davies, whatever his faults may be, has still a warm admiration for his native isle. In the course of an interview with the Patriot he is reported to have said: "There is nothing half so lovely as the suburban shores and emerald green of Prince Edward Island. I have travelled considerable lately and have seen many beautiful places, but none equalled in landscape beauty the Island nestling on the blue waters as viewed from the deck of the Northumberland yesterday."

OBITUARY.

The relatives, neighbors and friends were gathered together at Brooklyn, Lot 61, on the 22nd inst., to lay to rest the remains of Mary, eldest daughter of the late Joseph Compton and beloved wife of Benjamin Bears. Throughout her long and painful illness she showed that same mild and patient disposition that made her an exemplary wife and mother.

An aged and estimable lady has passed away at Summerside—the wife of Hon. James Muirhead. Mrs. Muirhead leaves a husband, four sons and six daughters. The sons are Colin, Chicago, William F., Grand Rapids, Mich., and John Muirhead, druggist, Summerside. The daughters are Mrs J D Enman, Summerside, Mrs S F Hodgson, Charlottetown, Mrs W B Morrison, Grand Rapids, and Misses Janet, Zillah and Adah Muirhead, Summerside. It is about two years ago that Mr. and Mrs Muirhead celebrated their golden wedding, and her death is the first break in a happy family circle. The funeral took place Monday afternoon, to Summerside cemetery, with a very large attendance of relatives and friends. Rev R.S. Whidden, of Bedeque, officiating. The Masonic Grand Lodge, in session here Friday, passed a resolution of condolence, which was forwarded, under the seal of the Grand Lodge, to Bro. Hon. James Muirhead.

If you have been sick you will find Hood's Sarsaparilla is the best medicine you can take to give you appetite and strength.

THE KINDERGARTEN.

Closing Exercises This Forenoon.

There was a large attendance of visitors at the closing exercises of this most interesting school, this forenoon; and great interest was shown in the exercises. The decided ability of Miss Sayre and her assistants was made evident in the perfect discipline of the little ones under their charge. The Kindergarten fits children for entry into the fourth grade of the public schools, and it is also a training school for Kindergarten teachers.
