

THE DAILY EXAMINER.

SEPTEMBER 19, 1889.

Notes and Clippings.

The Hamilton Spectator rises to remark: When Colter was said to have been elected in Haldimand the Toronto Globe gravely assured its readers that it was in consequence of Colter's unrestricted reciprocity policy. The Globe was correct. It was an unrestricted reciprocity of votes for ten dollar bills and lager beer.

The Irish Catholic publishes a forecast of Mr. Balfour's bill for the establishment of a Catholic university in Ireland. It says: "The Royal University will not be abolished because it is required for non-Conformists and others unable to avail themselves of the advantages afforded by Trinity College, but its establishment will be largely reduced. With a view to the conciliation of Ulster, Queen's College at Belfast will be maintained and be empowered to confer degrees. The annual saving from the extinction of Queen's College at Cork, and Queen's College at Galway, combined with the saving from the retrenchment at the Royal University, is expected partially to meet the cost of the endowment of the new university.

The Hon. Senator Haythorne has given another evidence of his continued interest in the students attending the Prince of Wales College by presenting that institution with a very handsome engraving of Mr. Robert Harris' celebrated painting of the "Fathers of Confederation." Intended to recall one of the most important incidents of recent Canadian history, it will be fittingly hung in the principal class-room, and may be instrumental in suggesting thoughts and arousing aspirations in the minds of many of the students who examine it. While at the close of every session the students have had cause to be grateful to Mr. Haythorne for the valuable prizes which he offered for competition, this appropriate and interesting picture will serve to perpetuate their remembrance of him as one who has always been an enlightened friend and benefactor to "Prince of Wales College.

His Excellency Sir Henry Loch, the Governor of the Australian province of Victoria, who passed through Montreal recently en route to Australia, via Vancouver and San Francisco, writes from Vancouver to the C. P. R. officials in Montreal, as follows:—

"The C. P. R. is without exception, the most wonderful railway in the world in whatever way one may view it. In the first place the conception of constructing such a work is one of the grandest that could have entered into the brain of man and its construction is a marvel of engineering skill, combined with persevering courage. We leave this to-morrow for Victoria. I wish I could have spared a day to see more of this town and the neighborhood. This is a wonderful creation of a few years. When the new line of steamers is established between this and Australia I believe it will be found to be even a more important line of communication than that with China.

The report of the Bureau of Statistics of Ontario, a department whose work might with great advantage be made to cover the whole Dominion, gives an interesting insight into the condition of agriculture in that province. This year the harvest in that province was retarded by the prolonged drouth, the rainfall in the four months, April to July, which is essentially the grain-growing period, having been abnormally small, and the injurious effect of this drouth makes itself apparent in some short crops, reduced number of live stock, etc. The number of acres of farm lands assessed is 22,028,273, of which 51 per cent are cleared, 8,512,700 are woodland, and the balance, 2,500,000 acres, swamp or waste land. The area under staple field crops last year was 7,616,350 acres, an increase of 187,266 acres over the preceding year, and of 500,000 over 1882. Comparing 1882 with 1888 a decrease is shown in area sown with fall wheat of 326,900 acres, of spring wheat of 219,000, with rye of 100,000, while the area sown with barley has increased 47,000 acres, with oats 462,000 000 acres, with peas 136,000 acres, and with hay 457,000 acres. The aggregate yield of the principal field crops for the past two and the average for seven years has been as follows:

Table with 4 columns: Crop, 1888, 1887, 1882-8. Rows include Fall wheat, Spring wheat, Barley, Oats, Peas, and Corn.

The yield, it will be observed, was considerably larger last year than in 1887, in the case of all cereals except fall wheat, and larger than the average of seven years in the case of barley, oats, peas and corn. Taking the yield per acre, fall wheat, oats and peas fell below the average in 1888, while corn and spring wheat show an increase.

Merry Wedding Bells.

A large number were in attendance at the Grafton Street Methodist Church, this afternoon, at three o'clock, to witness the marriage of Miss Lizzie T. Avard, youngest daughter of John Avard, of Summerside, P. E. I., to W. Frederick Donkin, barrister of Amherst. Choice music was rendered by the choir of the church of which Miss Avard was a member. The bride was dressed in a handsome travelling costume of terra cotta gongolia cloth, trimmed with oriental and Spanish lace. The hat was of similar color, and was trimmed with French flowers and ostrich feather. The bridesmaid was Miss Kate Caldwell, who wore a very becoming suit of seal brown silk, and carried a large bouquet of flowers. The groom was assisted by Charles Avard, brother of the bride. After the ceremony, which was performed by the Rev. J. Strothard, Mr. and Mrs. Donkin drove to the depot and took the W. & A. train to Annapolis. They will take in the Annapolis Valley and Yarmouth, and will also visit St. John, Fredericton and Bangor. The bride was the recipient of many handsome presents, including many from P. E. Island, St. John, Boston and New York. Noticeable among the presents was a beautiful lady's dressing case set with gold and ivory, the gift of a young lady in New York. Mr. Donkin was presented with a handsome dressing case from some of his legal friends in this city, where he has been practicing for some months past.—Halifax Herald.

[THE EXAMINER congratulates the happy couple.]

The Artillery Reception.

LIEUTENANT-GOVERNOR CARVELL'S SPEECH.

In the account of the reception tendered the victorious Artillery team, we were unable yesterday to give a full report of Lieut. Governor Carvell's speech. We give the speech below, as we are aware that it was unheard by a great many of those who attended the demonstration on Tuesday evening, and who occupied unfavorable positions:

Officers and Men of Nos. 1 and 2 Batteries of Garrison Artillery.

Victors from the field of friendly strife, we welcome you.

In the name of your fellow citizens, in the name of the people of the Province of Prince Edward Island, I welcome you back to your homes.

I congratulate you on your success, the unprecedented success which has crowned your efforts at Quebec. I thank you—most heartily thank you—and can assure you, as I do, that every citizen within the sound of my voice to-night echoes, as does every Prince Edward Islander echo, my words of welcome, of congratulation, and of thanks.

Look at this splendid demonstration. It speaks with a thousand times more voice and power than I can speak of the glad joy which meets you to-night; and let me say to you that this gladness is not of the evanescent order—it is too real, too heartfelt, to be anything but lasting.

Many of you will remember, as I remember well, Patrick Hickey; his success at Sussex, New Brunswick, twenty-seven years ago, and the hearty reception given him on his return; and you all know that to this day, and among all classes, in connection with his triumph in eighteen hundred and sixty-two, Patrick Hickey's name is on the lips and in the hearts of our people. And so, gentlemen, I feel sure it will be in your case: not a nine days' talk, nor a nine years' but for many years will our people look back with pride and with pleasure to the cause of to-night's demonstration, the reminiscence warming the kindlier feelings and stimulating to further achievements.

And now, gentlemen, I know what it is to make the journey from Quebec. It is long, tedious, tiresome, and I can imagine your wishing to get to your homes, to which you have just been welcomed. I will not detain you longer than to ask you to listen to the three cheers—three rousing British cheers—which will now be given for you.

Three cheers for the victorious Garrison Artillery Team of 1889.

Pictou's Anniversary Sports.

The 116th anniversary of the settlement of Pictou was celebrated on Tuesday last by a regatta on the harbor and the usual games on the grounds of the Athletic Association. The day was fine and the attendance fair.

In the race for large sail boats, Yorston's came in first. The small sail-boat race was won by another local boat, the name of which we have not heard. The Trenton crew won the four-oared race. The double-scut challenge race was postponed until Wednesday morning, owing to rough water. The successful competitors in the sports on the Athletic grounds are as follows:—

Putting Shot—1st, A. Gillis, Antigonish, 39 ft 8 in; 2nd, D. A. Stewart, Montague, 20 ft 8 in.

Throwing Heavy Hammer—1st, D. A. Stewart, Montague, P. E. I., 92 ft 1 in; 2nd, D. Clark, Narrows Creek, P. E. I., 90 ft 8 in.

100 yards race—1st, J. Smith, New Glasgow; 2nd, D. A. Stewart, Montague.

Quarter Mile Race—1st, J. Smith, New Glasgow; 2nd, J. Muirhead.

Hurdle Race—1st, W. O'Brien, Halifax; 2nd, Mackintosh, do.

Pole Vaulting—1st, J. Muirhead, 9 ft 5 in; 2nd, P. Carroll.

High Jump—1st, D. A. Stewart; 2nd, A. Gillis.

Long Jump—1st, D. A. Stewart; 2nd, A. Gillis.

The double-scut match race between Carroll and Macdonald, of Pictou, and McKenna and Collins, of Charlottetown, was a great attraction yesterday. When the start was ordered many people thought that the water was too rough, but others thought different, and so a start was made. Both boats got off well together, but when a short distance had been traversed, it was noticed that the Charlottetown boat was steering badly. This bad steering was caused, it is said, by an accident to the rowlocks, as a result of which the oars were almost continually slipping out and the boat was shipping water. Notwithstanding this great disadvantage, the boats turned the buoys together, but on the home-stretch the Pictou boat forged ahead, coming in the winner by about a length and a half. The Charlottetown boat had a large quantity of water in it when it arrived at the winning line. Were it not for the unfortunate occurrence referred to the Charlottetown team would, it is said, have beaten the Pictou men easily. However, they are endeavoring to arrange for another race to take place on Charlottetown harbor the first week in October.

New Goods.—Opening to-day, first instalment London goods.—STANLEY Hays, Brown Biesse, Sept. 19.

Telegraphic Odds and Ends.

A BUDGET OF GENERAL NEWS FROM ALL PARTS OF THE WORLD.

MONTREAL, Sept. 17.—The Quebec Central railway company is petitioning for a further delay of three years in which to complete their line from St. Francis terminus to a point on the frontier of the State of Maine.

LONDON, Sept. 17.—Advices from Montenegro are that twenty-five thousand families in that country are likely soon to be suffering from famine. Prince Nicholas intends to visit the famine stricken districts.

ROME, Sept. 17.—The candidacy of Monsignor Zigliara to succeed Leo XIII. is now a public matter. He is the youngest of the college of cardinals, being in his 56th year. His candidacy is supported by the Dominicans and also by the Jesuits. His most formidable competitor is Monsignor Santelice, cardinal archbishop of Naples, who is backed by the Italian Government.

MONTREAL, Sept. 17.—The Synod met to-day and the house concurred in the canon adopted by the upper house on conferring of divinity degrees by theological colleges. The central idea of the canon is to have one central board of examiners on divinity degrees for all colleges of the Church of England in Canada, and to obtain an act from the Dominion parliament to constitute the Metropolitan corporation, with sole power to confer degrees of B. D. and D. D. upon such candidates only as have received certificates of aforesaid board of examiners. The rest of the day was taken up in discussion of the Jesuit question.

SOFIA, Sept. 17.—The statement that the independence of Bulgaria would soon be proclaimed is denied by high state officials.

LONDON, Sept. 17.—Several newspapers in this city charge a Scotch peer with having committed an indecent assault upon a child. Testimony, they say, was given to show that the accused was guilty of the crime, but the magistrates were afraid to take action.

DUBLIN, Sept. 17.—At Fermoy, to-day, Father O'Dwyer was sentenced to five months imprisonment, and several companions to various terms for offences under the crimes act. After the sentence had been pronounced, the prisoners sang God Save Ireland.

LANSARE, Ont., Sept. 17.—The inquest on the body of W. Watson, who was shot, while with others assaulting a young girl, by B. Cameron, resulted in a verdict to the effect that death was caused by "casual misadventure."
