IN MEMORIAM

MRS. CYRUS F. INGS

Relatives and friends were shocked to learn of the sudden death on January 10th, 1951, in Brockton, Mass., of Mrs. Laura Copeland (Carrier) Ings, widow of the late Cyrus F. Ings.

She had been in excellent health up until two days before Christmas, when she was stricken with a heart attack.

The Doctor thought it best that she be removed to Hospital at once and from that time on she was in a semi-coma, at times appearing to be much brighter, but then suddenly on January 10th, was peacefully taken to her Heavenly Home.

Her memory will linger long in the hearts of those who knew and loved her, because to know her was to love her.

Mrs. Ings was born and brought up in Prince Edward Island, a daughter of the late Peter and Elizabeth (Huggan) Carrier, she made her home here until a few years ago, upon the death of her husband, then decided to move to U. S. A. with her three daughters.

She made her permanent home with her daughter Mrs. August Wanberg, 45 Wilson St., Brockton, Mass. While living in P. E. I. she attended the Cherry Valley Methodist Church, and when coming to Brockton joined the South St. Methodist Church, of Campells, and was an active member of the Canadian Club of Brockton.

She is survived by four sons: Lloyd, Earle, Herman and Russell Ings, all of P. E. I.; four daughters: Mrs. Edmund Morrissette of P. E. I.; Mrs. Earle Sherren, Mrs. Daniel McGillis and Mrs. August Wanberg, all of Brockton, Mass. 19 grandchildren and 13 great grandchildren, and a sister, Mrs. George Lane of Cambridge, Mass.

Mrs. Ings visited every summer with her family and friends in P. E. I.

Funeral services were conducted at the Sampson Funeral Home in Brockton, Mass., by Rev. J. Arthur Dahlstrand, pastor of the South St. Methodist Church and Rev. Rudolph L. Samuelson, Chaplain of the New England Deaconess Hospital, Brookline, Mass., a former pastor of the Campells Church.

Mrs. Emma Nelson was organist and Miss Emily Turner sang, "Safe In The Arms of Jesus". Interment was in the Union Cemetery. Bearers were her three son-in-laws August Wanberg, Daniel McGillis, Earle Sherren; also James Sproule, Hans Olson, Louis Ricker.

The silent tokens of sympathy were many and beautiful, testifying to the esteem of the deceased.
