GREAT BOOM!

Away Ahead!

IT IS A FIRST-RATE PLACE TO BE, and as we undoubtedly possess the ability to keep ahead, we can afford to lend a helping hand to our numerous struggling competitors. As we have attained to the proud position we now enjoy as leaders in our art, though years of toil and hard work, we would say to our competitors, DON'T BE DISCOURAGED. Step by step, if you persevere, perchance may find you approaching our present standard, BUT REMEMBER! you will not find us there. Perfection is our Standard, and nothing short of that will satisfy our ambition to present a faultless garment upon a faultless gentleman.
To supplement our own natural skill, we employ artists who acknowledge no superiors in the Dominion of Canada. Thus equipped with superior heads and unequalled hands, and Goods of the finest quality, we feel safe in saying that we are prepared to fill the bill every time.

McLEOD & MCKENZIE,
Star Merchant Tailors.

The Teacher

Who advised her pupils to strengthen their minds by the use of Ayer's Sarsaparilla, appreciated the truth that bodily health is essential to mental vigor. For persons of delicate and feeble constitution, whether young or old, this medicine is remarkably beneficial. Be sure you get Ayer's Sarsaparilla.
"Every spring and fall I take a number of bottles of Ayer's Sarsaparilla, and am greatly benefited."—Mrs. James H. Eastman, Stoneham, Mass.
"I have taken Ayer's Sarsaparilla with great benefit to my general health."—Miss Thirza L. Crerar, Palmyra, Md.
"My daughter, twelve years of age, has suffered for the past year from General Debility.

A few weeks since, we began to give her Ayer's Sarsaparilla. Her health has greatly improved."—Mrs. Harriet H. Battles, South Chelmsford, Mass.
"About a year ago I began using Ayer's Sarsaparilla as a remedy for debility and neuralgia resulting from malarial exposure in the army. I was in a very bad condition, but six bottles of the Sarsaparilla, with occasional doses of Ayer's Pills, have greatly improved my health. I am now able to work, and feel that I cannot say too much for your excellent remedies."—P. A. Pinkham, South Molunox, Me.
"My daughter, sixteen years old, is using Ayer's Sarsaparilla with good effect."—Rev. S. J. Graiam, United Brethren Church, Buckingham, W. Va.
"I suffered from

Nervous Prostration,

with lame back and headache, and have been much benefited by the use of Ayer's Sarsaparilla. I am now 80 years of age, and am satisfied that my present health and prolonged life are due to the use of Ayer's Sarsaparilla."—Lucy Moffitt, Killingly, Conn.
Mrs. Ann H. Farnsworth, a lady 79 years old, So. Woodstock, Vt., writes: "After several weeks' suffering from nervous prostration, I procured a bottle of Ayer's Sarsaparilla, and before I had taken half of it my usual health returned."

THE DAILY EXAMINER.

DECEMBER 8, 1888.

To Contributors.

We have to ask contributors to THE EXAMINER to make their favors short and pointed. To preserve our columns is now so great that no space can be spared to mere amplification or vituperation. We shall be thankful for facts and information from all parts of the country on all sorts of topics. But we have not space to spare for the insertion of long articles. Nor are long articles needed; for, given the facts, the intelligent readers of THE EXAMINER are well able to think for themselves and come to right conclusions.

Latest Papers.

Emperor William has recovered from his indisposition.
The surplus to the Russian treasury for 1887 was about $45,000,000.
Lord Randolph Churchill will in a short time start on a visit to South America.
The Fredericton water works did not meet expenses last year. They are run by the corporation.
The next exhibition of the Royal Canadian Academy of Arts will be held in Ottawa during the winter.

It is stated that the Pope will take refuge at Vauluz, in the Tyrol, in the event of Italy becoming involved in war.
Hon. Mr. Dewdney is receiving deserved congratulations for the reduction of Torrens land system fees in the Northwest.

Senator Alexander, writing to a friend, says ill health prevented him from attending to his legislative duties this winter.
The Grand Trunk freight sheds at Guelph, Ont., was destroyed by fire on the 6th inst. Loss $12,000; covered by insurance.

Michael Dwyer's house, near Blyth, Ont., was destroyed by fire on the 6th. Mrs. Dwyer, her daughter and three children were burned to death.
The accession of Canada, Newfoundland and other British colonies and possessions to the international convention for the protection of submarine cables is officially announced.

A Dublin despatch says that a farmer named Cunningham was murdered on the 6th inst. near Banbridge, County Down. The crime resulted from agrarian troubles. Three men have been arrested.

Mrs. John Clinch, of New Mexico, practised with a revolver until she could hit a dime at 10 paces, and then locked herself in a closet while a one-armed thief spent two hours in robbing the house.

According to official statistics there were 2,647 avalanches last winter in Tyrol and Vorarlberg. The number of human lives lost was 53, and about 500 beasts were killed. Many hundred buildings were destroyed.

A newspaper states that "there are more than 93,000,000 gallons of whiskey in this country awaiting consumption." The same authority neglects to state how many consumers are waiting in vain for an invitation to consume it.

The law requiring electrical executions goes into effect in New York January 1st, but until Wednesday the amount and character of the current required to make death certain and instantaneous had not been determined upon.

A special cablegram from London says that a petition is being signed among the shareholders urging the directors of the Grand Trunk and Canadian Pacific to terminate their hostility and come to friendly arrangements.
Major Bell, of the Bell farm, is en route for England, where, it is said, he will reorganize a stock company to run the farm. Two thousand acres were under cultivation this year. The crop was abundant, and rumor has it the profits of the farm were over forty thousand dollars.

The London Times' Berlin despatch says that Bismarck is piqued because of England and the Widforth party being in the forefront of the anti-slavery crusade. The Chancellor is not desirous that the latter shall gain political prestige thereby, and is therefore devoting his whole energies to the African question.

Considerable emigration from the rural districts of France, from which the first settlers in Canada came, is expected in the province of Quebec next year. The causes in these districts are interesting themselves much in the movement and the people, being dissatisfied under the present regime, are disposed to come to Canada.

Mr. Debelle, of Quebec, has taken an active interest in obtaining information regarding the proposed cable from the Straits of Belle Isle to Scotland. An English company of cable manufacturers has offered to lay a cable from shore to shore, distance two thousand miles, for $1,800,000. It is understood that the Government are willing to hand over their line on the North Shore, St. Lawrence, from Murray Bay to Blanc Sablon, when completed, as a subsidy to the cable enterprise.

The North German Gazette denies that German officers are acting as spies in France. The paper mentions thirteen French officers who were mentioned in Germany on pretence of deserting the language, and who were expelled between Sept. 12 and Nov. 17, it having been discovered that their real object was to gain information concerning German military affairs.
The French Government, the Gazette says, clares, had been officially notified that the presence of French officers was not desired.

An aged New Englander thought to get rid of a disliked admirer of his daughter's in a unique manner. He made a bet with the young man on the result of the Presidential election, and the girl's hand was the stake. Should the admirer lose he was to cease paying attention to the girl and leave town, whereas should he win he, the old gentleman, was to consent to the marriage. The prospective father-in-law lost, but insists that the wedding must not take place until after the 4th of March.

Our exchanges bring the details of a remarkable confession alleged to have been made by a dying German in Chicago. In effect Heinrich Schencko says that he and his former partner, now a wealthy merchant in Colverte, Prussia, a number of years ago set fire to a barn which resulted in the destruction of the entire village. The story has about it some of the elements of probability, but if it be true, Schencko's partner is placed in an awkward position, from which all his wealth can scarcely extricate him.

A Montreal despatch says that dame Margaret Dunphy, widow of the late Thomas Donnelly, a victim of the murderer Jack Kehoe, has taken action for $19,000 against the latter's father, Lawrence Kehoe. There was no marriage contract between Jack Kehoe's father and mother, and he, as the only child, became heir to her portion of the property when she died. By the sentence of death passed upon him, Jack Kehoe lost all his civil rights, and his father entered upon his estate with all its liabilities. For this reason the present action is now taken against Lawrence Kehoe to recover damages on account of the death of his son's victim.

Professor Goldwin Smith could not make up his mind to take his leave of the political arena without a parting stroke at Mr. Blake. In a letter to the Toronto Mail, Mr. Smith thus refers to the late Liberal leader: "It is impossible for an admirer of Edward Blake not to regard with a pensive feeling his appearance in court as the advocate of a cause which by his eloquence in Parliament he taught us to regard as the cause of iniquity. If Samson ground in the mill of the Philistines it was involuntarily and without a fee. Professional etiquette may in strictness require an advocate to take any brief which may be pressed upon him. But would any client be so unwise as to press a brief upon an advocate who declared that if he tried to plead for such a cause his tongue would cleave to the roof of his mouth? Could Oliver St. John ever have held a brief for ship-money? Could Somers ever have held a brief for the arbitrary prerogative of James II.? Surely not without a political fall.

Odds and Ends.
Ira—"Do you say 'chrysanthemums' or 'chrysanthema!'" Alexander: "Mum's the word."
"Your laundress appears to be very old"
"Yes, she belongs to the iron age."—Boston Gazette.
Only poor men write books on "How to Get Rich." The rich men themselves will not give the snap away.
Nobody has been able yet to convince the coal dealer of the error of his weigh.—Boston Commercial Bulletin.

The next Washington administration run to scripture names, even as far as the Private Secretary—Benjamin, Levi and Elijah.
Charles Jackson, a Virginian, has spent 32 years in looking for a buried treasure, and is not discouraged yet. He says all things come to him who waits.

"A gentleman should never take a lady's hand unless she offers it," says a book of etiquette. This knocks our old-fashioned ideas about proposing completely askew.
Guest—"Have you a fire escape in this house?" Landlord—"Two of 'em, sir."
Guest—"I thought so. The fire all escaped from my room last night, and I came near freezing."

The united ages of Howe's Show and his brothers and sisters, nine in number, all now living in Port La Tour, amount to 665 years, being respectively 85, 82, 80, 79, 77, 74, 72, 68, 65.

A health writer says: "One of the best hygienic habits is to keep the mouth shut." It is supposed that he penned the remark just after applying a raw oyster to his discolored eye.
It must be pretty hard for a woman to lead "in fashion." Out of 500 toilets and 750 hats surveyed on a recent afternoon on Broadway, New York, not two were alike, while all were fashionable.

It is explained in connection with the marriage of a Dakota couple (the groom is 24 and the bride 75) that the bride gave her husband $600, and promised to leave him her entire fortune when she dies.
"Darling," he said, "your eyes are as white as pearls, your lips as red as rubies, and—and—and—" "Yes, George," she replied sweetly, "and you are as green as an emerald." Then George went out into jet black night.

BIG PORK.—Mr. Sylvanus Nickerson, last week, slaughtered a pig which weighed 304 lbs. It was only six months old.—Cape Salt Advertiser.

"I use Ayer's Cherry Pectoral freely in my practice, and commend it in cases of Whooping Cough among children, having found it more certain to cure that troublesome disease than any other medicine I know of."—So says Dr. Bartlett, of Concord, Mass.

A long felt want is supplied by the Cardigan Overshoes, (overall rubber-footed.) You need not be no longer troubled with your rubbers everlastingly slipping or filling with snow. Call and see them at God's Best.
