THE great auction sale will be continued by F. S. Hanford at Keith's late store, Queen square, to-night at 8 o'clock. Fancy Goods, Accordions, Concertinas, Vases, Desks, Magic Lanterns, Chromos, Frames, etc., will be sold at a great sacrifice.

BEARISH CONDUCT.—Two poor Frenchmen, with a dancing bear, came to Charlottetown last evening. A crowd of roughs on the street immediately recognized their relationship to the bear. The "bear" in them was "raised," and they commenced hooting and pelting stones in a most disgraceful manner. The police were, as usual, not on hand at the right time.

SALE OF ST. AVARDS.—The estate of St. Avards—property of Hon. J. C. Pope—divided into forty-three building lots, was sold by auction to-day, and realized a total of $10,415, or an average of nearly $1,000 per acre. Messrs. Owen Connolly, John Bah, L. Wright, J. E. Haszard, John Douce, Thos. Essery, Thos. Dodd, Archd. Holmes, Michael Green, John McLeod, Fredk. Stagan and John Morrissey were among the principal purchasers.

THE BEST ON EARTH.—The new Wheeler and Wilson Sewing Machine was considered by the judges of the American Institute to be the best machine in the world, and was awarded the Special Medal of the Institute, 1877, (and sustained by all the world's exhibitions.) Now is the time to get the best machine at the lowest possible price, as Mr. Johnson, the General Agent, is in the city for a short time. Call at Chappelle's Bookstore—ladies, ask for Clark's Elephant Spool Cotton for all Sewing Machines. [June 18, end if

THE "Patriot," although professing to be a morning paper, and wishing the public to believe that it is issued about 6 o'clock, a. m., is, in reality, nothing more than an evening sheet, issued about midnight. The circumstance of the fire this morning proves this fact. The alarm of fire was given at about 3 o'clock this morning, and had not the paper been then issued, we would, no doubt, have had an account of the conflagration in this morning's "Patriot." We are justified, therefore, in saying that our morning paper is issued not later than 3 o'clock.

The steamer Worcester arrived from Boston this morning at 4 o'clock, with a cargo of merchandise and the following passengers:—Mr. Oliver Smith and nephew, Mr. J. G. Litea, Dr. Miles, Mrs. Hannah McGuire and two children, Miss Catherine McDonald, Miss Maggie Nicholson, Miss Annie Beck, Miss Mary A. Murphy, Miss Janie McCarey, Miss Isabella Manson, Mrs. H. A. Heath, Miss Kate McDonald, Mr. John Campbell, Mr. Angus Murchison, Mr. Thos. LeBlanc, Mr. B. Delory, Mr. W. Richardson.

The New Brunswick Elections.

The St. John Globe says, the elections on Saturday were decidedly against the Local Government. The Opposition completely swept the County of Westmorland, and carried two men in Restigouche and one in King's, and apparently one in Queen's. It is true that a former member of the Opposition in King's County was beaten, owing to a variety of circumstances, but Dr. Vail, an Oppositionist, was elected in his place, leaving that county in precisely the position it was before. Out of eleven members elected on Saturday at least seven if not eight, are against the Local Administration as the matter stands. It is useless to speculate upon what may happen, but the facts so far reveal a very strong feeling against the Government, and unmistakably point out that had there been a determined and organized effort to defeat them they would have been defeated. Their reconstruction in part saved them from overwhelming disaster, the disposition of many persons being not to hold the new Provincial Secretary responsible for the acts of his predecessors.

The Irish make their way everywhere. At Queen Victoria's last levee, Paddy Limjee, of Bombay, was presented by the Secretary of State for India.

The Lancet says Earl Russell did more for the medical profession than any other nobleman, both as minister and member of the Legislature.

Bishop Conroy, the Apostolic Delegate, has arrived at Halifax, N. S., and was the guest of Archbishop Hannan until Tuesday last, when he sailed for Newfoundland.

Senator Stanley Matthews, having interrogated yesterday as to the truth of the report that he had concluded to appear before the Petter Committee, said the statement was erroneous.

"Joaquin" Miller's real name is Cincinnati Heine Miller. Joaquin is a nickname given him at the California gold mines. Formerly affecting his rough miner's costume at all times and in all places, he is now very fastidious, and wears cloth and linen of the finest quality. The "Songs of the Sierras" made his fortune.

A News special says:—Instructions have been finally issued from the Vatican to the Neapolitan Bishops to take the Royal exequatur, and revenues and palaces of the diocese. Hitherto the Bishops have ignored the casgreator and received monthly subscriptions from the Vatican, but the great falling off in Peters-Pence renders the strictest economy necessary.

The news of the attack of Nobeling on the Emperor of Germany reached the Crown Prince and Princess in the midst of a brilliant entertainment at Hatfield House, the seat of Lord Salisbury. Their Royal Highnesses instantly prepared for departure for Berlin—and so little time was lost that, though the attack took place only at 2 p.m., the royal party, leaving Hatfield at 6 p.m., quitted Charing Cross Station at 8.30 en route for Berlin, which they reached eighteen hours afterwards.

Mr. Bradlaugh is not easy to catch hold of. Under evidence which morally appeared clear enough in his condemnation, he has again and again escaped punishment through some legal quibble. After he had obtained a rule nisi, calling upon the justices of Middlesex to show cause why an order made by Mr. Vaughan, directing the destruction of 600 copies of the "Fruits of Philosophy" should not be set aside, the Lord Chief Justice said the Court were of opinion that the magistrate was deficient in essentials. The magistrate had undoubtedly found that the book was obscene, but had failed to show, which was equally necessary, that its publication was a misdemeanor. The rule, therefore, was made absolute.

The death of Charles Mathews, the veteran actor, is announced. His life was a long one. He was born in 1803. In 1833 he married Madame Vestris. In 1858, his first wife being dead, he married Mrs. Davenport. Mathews played to the last; he did not lag superfluous on the stage. When Garrick died, Johnson wrote that his death "eclipsed the gaiety of nations"; and on the death of Charles Mathews a similar sentiment may be indulged in, with even more propriety; for while the triumphs of Garrick were confined to London, Mathews has made audiences delighted in foreign countries and in every colony of the Empire.
