

THE DAILY EXAMINER.

JULY 16, 1892.

Legal Questions.

The present Trinity term of the Supreme Court, which, so far as the jury cases were concerned, closed to-day, was one of the heaviest terms that has been held for some years past.

At last Charlottetown possesses what many people have for years been talking about. We refer to the baths recently constructed in the gymnasium in the Y. M. C. A. Building.

The bath-rooms will be regularly opened on Monday next. There exists no better or more enjoyable means of banishing the feeling of fatigue that possesses one in hot weather than by taking a shower bath each day.

The large building formerly used as the Charlottetown Hospital, now located on the road near King's corner, Water Street, is in the public way, is an eyesore and a nuisance, and should either be continued on its journey or torn down.

Another very important case was tried in which was involved the question, what is sufficient possession of wood land to give the occupant a title under the statute of limitations.

THE CARROLL.—The steamer Carroll, from Boston, is expected to arrive here between 8 and 9 o'clock to-night.

THE NEW LIQUOR LAW.—Several persons are summoned to appear before his honor for infraction of the new law.

THE AMERICAN THREE-MASTED YACHT Lurline arrived from Halifax last night. She will steam up the Gulf to Anticosti after leaving here.

WHERE IS THE SANITARY OFFICER?—The stench from a number of yards throughout the city is very offensive. It is a foolish policy to tempt Providence too stubbornly. Cleanliness is next to godliness—let us have it.

FEED THE SEALS.—A few days ago there was placed in the lobby of the Post Office a box for the reception of contributions to be expended for food for the seals in the fountain on Queen Square.

SAD SHOOTING ACCIDENT.

There was sufficient to oust the true owner and transfer the title. The learned judge, however, did not decide the question what would be sufficient evidence of possession, but simply decided that the facts sworn to and admitted were not in themselves strong enough to give a squatter title, but left the deciding of that to another case at the expense of other parties.

A Boy Accidentally Kills His Brother.

This morning a sad and fatal shooting accident occurred on Lower St. Peter's Road, near the exhibition buildings. It appears that, shortly before eleven o'clock, George Carr, a lad about eighteen years of age, son of Mr. Robert Carr, a tradesman, who lives on Fitzroy Street east, said he would go out shooting. His mother told him that he should not go. He went, however, taking his younger brother, Herbert, about fifteen years of age, with him. They went out on Lower St. Peter's Road. When at the extreme north end of the exhibition sheds, George said he would take a shot at the fence. Being interviewed by an EXAMINER reporter, George said: "I was going out to the range, and when out by the end of the exhibition grounds I went to fire at the fence. My little brother said to wait and he would put up a mark for me to fire at. I was about to lower the rifle but it went off. I think the bullet went through his neck and came out of his mouth. I ran to town right away and told about it." The unfortunate lad was frantic with grief at having killed his "dear little brother," and the reporter refrained from further questioning. Leaving the grief-stricken residence, the reporter proceeded to the scene of the accident. There the sight was indeed a sad one. Lying on the road, about ten feet from the exhibition fence, was the body of the boy, covered with a garment. This being lifted, revealed a ghastly sight. The face and hands of the boy were covered with clotted blood, the bullet passed through from the back of his neck to the upper lip, breaking the upper jaw bone and badly cutting the face. Marshall Cameron, who had been sent for, shortly arrived on the scene and the coroner was summoned.

An inquest was called by Dr. Conroy for half-past two o'clock, but adjourned until seven o'clock to-night to take the evidence. In the meantime Dr. Kelly will make a post mortem examination of the body.

Relief for St. John's.

On behalf of the members of the St. John's Relief Committee respectfully solicit from the ladies of Charlottetown and others donations of second-hand clothing, especially women's and children's, and white and grey cotton to be made into garments. All donations to be sent to the Committee Rooms, Queen Street.

A Nuisance.

The large building formerly used as the Charlottetown Hospital, now located on the road near King's corner, Water Street, is in the public way, is an eyesore and a nuisance, and should either be continued on its journey or torn down.

Another very important case was tried in which was involved the question, what is sufficient possession of wood land to give the occupant a title under the statute of limitations.

THE CARROLL.—The steamer Carroll, from Boston, is expected to arrive here between 8 and 9 o'clock to-night.

THE NEW LIQUOR LAW.—Several persons are summoned to appear before his honor for infraction of the new law.

THE AMERICAN THREE-MASTED YACHT Lurline arrived from Halifax last night. She will steam up the Gulf to Anticosti after leaving here.

WHERE IS THE SANITARY OFFICER?—The stench from a number of yards throughout the city is very offensive. It is a foolish policy to tempt Providence too stubbornly. Cleanliness is next to godliness—let us have it.

FEED THE SEALS.—A few days ago there was placed in the lobby of the Post Office a box for the reception of contributions to be expended for food for the seals in the fountain on Queen Square.

ADVICES from the West and intermediate localities inform us that what will likely be the largest gathering of the season will be held at Alberton on August 3-5. Every preparation is being made to insure a great day's pleasure, and we feel safe in recommending our readers to reserve their holiday for the above date, and be one of those who will be present at the "Grand Western Tea."

GO TO THE DIAMOND BOOKSTORE TO-NIGHT.

DANGEROUS.—There are several dangerous holes on the carriage-way of the Ferry Wharf which should be attended to at once. A number of planks on the side passages require also to be lugged after. Where is the C. P. W.?

MACKREEL.—The fishermen are doing fairly well along the north side the last few days, some of the boats averaging from one to two hundred mackerel a day. Very few No. 1's are being caught, but the sizes and quality for the beginning of the season is said to be good. Over thirty boats are at Campbell's Cove taking advantage of the shelter which the breaking surf there. The mackerel have not struck in along the south side yet.

ARRIVAL.—The three-masted schooner Wanderer from New York with 500 tons of coal for Mr. Charles Lyons arrived here at 1 o'clock to-day.

CONFIRMED.—The favorable impression conferred on the first appearance of the agreeable liquid fruit remedy Syrup of Figs a few years ago has been more than confirmed by the pleasant experience of all who have used it, and the success of the proprietors and manufacturers of the California Fig Syrup Company.
