With lobster catches reported only fair at Victoria, on Saturday Jim Knox (left) is seen weighing (right) on one of the floats beside the wharf as the fishing boats arrived back with their catches.

Communion Service And Bell Dedicated At Canoe Cove

On Lord's Day, May eleventh, an impressive service was conducted by Rev. George Killen, when a Communion Set was presented to the congregation, in memory of the late Mrs. John Thomas Inman, by the members of her family, Mrs. Russell Campbell, Mrs. Charles Martin, Mrs. Annie Shaw, Mrs. Lottie MacNevin, Mr. Earl MacNevin and Mr. David Inman. The presentation was made on behalf of the family by Mr. David Inman, and was received by Mr. Daniel MacNevin, Clerk of Session, representing the congregation. The members deeply appreciate the honour and privilege of being made the recipients of such a valuable and sacred token in memory of a Godly mother. The gift was dedicated in prayer by the pastor. Then followed the dedication of another gift, a Bell received from the Canadian National Railway, through the influence of Mr. Retus MacFadyen, Moncton, New Brunswick, son of Mr. and Mrs. Malcolm MacFadyen, members of the congregation. The members of the church are deeply grateful to God for these recent tokens of His goodness and favour, and pray that those who have been instrumental in the bestowal of these gifts may be richly rewarded.

Basilica C.W.L. Held Meeting

St. Dunstan's Basilica Sub-division of the Catholic Women's League held their monthly meeting on May 6th, in the Knights of Columbus Home, Charlottetown. The meeting opened with prayer by the spiritual director Very Rev. P. F. McDonald. Mrs. Fred McMillan presided.

The minutes of the April meeting and an executive meeting were read by the secretary, Mrs. F. A. Coyne.

Correspondence was read by Mrs. James Pendergast which included thank you notes, and letters from the Sisters of the Precious Blood, Monastery and the National Director of the Canadian League Magazine.

The treasurer's report showed a substantial balance in the bank.

Conveners reports were heard from the following: Citizenship, Mrs. J. E. Flemming, Finance, Miss Gertrude Coady, Visiting, Mrs. R. J. McDonald, Girl Guides, Mrs. Alfred Coady, Press, Mrs. R. G. Mitchell.

In the absence of Mrs. L. L. Noonan the Spiritual report was given by Mrs. Fred McMillan. One new member was introduced and welcomed.

Mrs. J. E. Flemming reported that she and Mrs. Fred McMillan had attended the Red Cross dinner at the Charlottetown Hotel.

Plans were completed for Tag Day, May 9th and a goodly number of members volunteered their services to make this a success.

A motion was made to have a Mass offered and card sent to Monsignor Patrick McMahon who is at present a patient in the Deaconess Hospital, Boston, Mass.

It was also motioned that subscriptions to Canadian League Magazine be sent to ten institutions in Charlottetown and to the director and president.

Father McDonald spoke briefly to the ladies and suggested in order to gain interest and new members the sub-division should be zoned into a number of smaller units, having study group meetings in the homes. Each sending representation with their findings to the regular monthly meeting.

Mrs. J. E. Flemming and Miss Gertrude Coady were appointed to convene this new arrangement. After the meeting adjourned films were enjoyed by all present.

Alberton W.M.S. Has Study On Understanding

Mrs. Fred Leard presided when Alberton Auxiliary of the W.M.S. met in the United Church Hall last Wednesday evening. Mrs. J. W. Waugh led the opening worship which had for its theme, "Understanding each other."

The study, a very interesting story connected with translation of the Bible in Korea, was read by Mrs. James Hodgson.

Community friendship work reported by members for the past month included 42 home calls, 15 hospital calls, 9 treats, 5 cards and 2 letters. 3 missionary books were read. Three new members were welcomed.

The next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. C. H. Weeks with Mrs. A. C. Green as devotional leader.
