A MEMBER of the Clan MacLeod in P.E.I., H. B. MacLeod, officially installs the date stone in a large replica of Dunvegan Castle, home of Dame Flora, Chief of the Clan MacLeod, situated on the Isle of Skye, and the oldest occupied castle in Scotland. This replica of Dunvegan Castle is the latest in the growing number of replicas of famous British Buildings being constructed at Woodleigh replicas in Burlington, P.E.I., by Lt.-Col. E. W. Johnstone and Son Archie. Mr. MacLeod is seen above with Col. Johnstone at the date stone laying ceremony on Monday afternoon. Mr. MacLeod, retired Burlington businessman, is the father-in-law of Blair Fraser, internationally known Canadian journalist.

Famous Dunvegan Castle Being Added To Replicas

SUMMERSIDE BUREAU OF THE GUARDIAN

"Dunvegan Castle," newest of the famous Woodleigh replicas now under construction by Lt.-Col. E. W. Johnstone and son Archie, at their Burlington home, midway between Summerside and the National Park, had the corner date-stone "1962" incorporated in the stone structure on Monday afternoon in a ceremony officially performed by H. B. MacLeod retired Burlington business man and friend and neighbor of the Johnstone family.

A realistic tough of old Scotland was given the ceremony as 19 lovely young lassies in full kilt and regalia, on tour of the replicas from their Highland College headquarters at North Rustico, happened to be on hand as interested spectators of the ceremony and joined the Johnstone family in watching Mr. MacLeod add the final mortar to secure the date stone in position.

ONE THIRD SCALE

The replica of Dunvegan Castle, oldest inhabitated castle in Scotland, is being constructed in scale to a third of the actual size of the castle, and will be considerably larger than any of the other replicas at Woodleigh. Of varying widths, the replica will be 54 feet in length, and the main tower containing the famous dungeon, will be 25 feet in height. The upper floor will be plastered and the lower interior will be finished in oak panelling.

The target date for completion of the entire castle has been set for 1964. The smaller but more complex replica of York Minster cathedral, one of the many models of famous British buildings at Woodleigh, required five years of construction work. A replica of a crofter's cottage has already been completed immediately behind the Dunvegan Castle replica and the plans for this part of the grounds include landscaping of the area and the addition of a miniature lake and waterfall.

While no record is kept of the number of children visitors, upwards of 30,000 adults have already visited Woodleigh this summer, and it is estimated that by the end of this year, the combined total of adult visitors for the past three-year period will exceed the total population of Prince Edward Island.

FAMOUS VISITORS

Visitors from all parts of the world have been attracted to the replicas, and the Johnstone's have met many internationally known persons who have sought them out to express admiration of the project that has become what is undoubtedly one of the most outstanding man - made tourist attraction in Prince Edward Island.

Commenced as a personal hobby by Col. Johnstone, 14 years ago when the replica of Glamis Castle was constructed in 1948, new replicas of various famous buildings have always been under construction on the spacious rural grounds of the Johnstone home.

As the flow of visitors continued to increase, the grounds were opened to the public Monday through Saturday, but are entirely closed to the public on Sundays.

Dunvegan Castle, being constructed in replica form at the present time, the home of Dame Flora, chief of the Clan MacLeod, is on the Isle of Skye, just off the cost of Scotland. Dame Flora MacLeod on her last visit to P.E.I. visited Woodleigh replicas and expressed her pleasure with the various projects there, and also gave her official written permission for construction of the replica of Dunvegan Castle.

Subsequently Archie Johnstone, visited the castle last winter, took photographs, and measurements which provide the construction information enabling the building of the replica.

His father, Col. Johnstone, accompanied by his wife and daughter Elizabeth, leave on Thursday of this week for a European visit on which they too will visit the Dunvegan Castle.

Other replicas at Woodleigh include the gate lodge, Gray's Church of elegy Fame, the Penn Manor house, the wishing well, the sun dial, Ye Olde Blue Dragon Inn, stocks and pillory, Shakespeare's birthplace, Anne Hathaway cottage, the Mill on the Floss, the lily pool and the coach and horses.

Rape Case Adjourned After 14 Take Stand

SUMMERSIDE — Fourteen witnesses were heard yesterday in the preliminary hearing into the case of Donald Joseph Noonan, Borden; Leonard Joseph Noonan, Borden and Edison D. McKenna, Albany charged with rape of a 63-year-old Borden woman, Mrs. Norman Allen. The hearing was held last night before Magistrate W. Chester S. MacDonald in Summerside.

First witness, Mrs. David Mullins, Borden, daughter of the complainant, testified that on July 22, she went to the shore at Borden and shortly after a small blue and white car came down with three men in it. She said she knew two of them were Noonans.

They asked her if she wanted a drive back, and she answered no. Then her mother, Mrs. Norman Allen came down and the two Noonan boys grabbed Mrs. Mullins and dragged her away.

Mrs. Mullins said she began to cry and scream so they let her go and she ran up the road. She heard her mother yelling as she ran and soon the small car passed her with the three men and her mother in it.

Mrs. Mullins testified she spoke to Miss Rita Bernard of Borden along the way and then went to the home of Borden policeman, Cnst. Crane. Cnst. Crane was not at home, so she went to RCMP barracks, where also no one was present. She said she saw a light in the town hall and went there, where she saw Cnst. Crane and told him her story.

Miss Rita Mary Bernard testified that on the afternoon of July 22, Mrs. Norman Allen had visited her. About 5.15 that afternoon Mrs. Mullins went by on her way to the shore. Soon a little blue and white car came by proceeding towards the shore. she related, then Mrs. Allen left the house, also going in the direction of the shore.

Miss Bernard stated she could see the shore from her house and saw Donald Noonan and Edison McKenna walking along with Mrs. Mullins between them. They were holding her by the arms. Later she saw Mrs. Allen walking back up the road. She said that shortly after the little car went by and she saw Mrs. Allen in the car.

GIVE NAMES

Mrs. Albert Martin, Mt. Tryon, testified that about 6 p.m. on July 22 she heard the dogs barking at her home. As she looked out the window, a woman came into the yard. She did not recognize the woman, she stated. She was plainly dressed and carried her shoes in her hand. Shortly after arrival of the woman, a small blue and white car drove into the yard with three men in it. Mrs. Martin asked the men their names. One said he was Donald Noonan, the other Leonard Noonan. The third man didn't say who he was she stated.

The witness testified she heard the men call the woman in the yard "Mrs. Allen". The men asked Mrs. Allen to get into the car but she said she would rather walk. Eventually Mrs. Allen got in the car and they drove away, Mrs. Martin testified.

Elmer Larsen, Albany, told the court that about 7 p.m. July 22 he saw a small blue and white car drive by his home and turn down a lane towards some woods near one of his fields. He did not take further notice of the car, he said. Next morning he saw the car and another around it near his farm. On closer observation, he noticed one man was an RCMP officer.

Witness William Brian Darrach, Borden, testified that on the late night of July 22 he was driving along a clay road leading from Albany on to the Trans-Canada Highway. He saw a woman standing on the side of the road with a man. He recognized the man as Leonard Noonan but did not know the woman. He stated that she was "fairly old".

Norman Melvin Allen, husband of the complainant, testified he was at home about 6 p.m. July 22 when a knock sounded on the door. Looking through the window he recognized Leonard Noonan. He told Noonan "there is nothing here of concern to you," whereupon Noonan left the premises.

The complainant, Mrs. Ethyl Mary Allen, who was brought into court on a hospital stretcher, testified that on July 22 she left her home about 4 p.m. and went to visit Miss Rita Bernard. While there, she saw her daughter, Mrs. Mullins go toward the shore. She said she also saw a small blue and white car go down. It stopped in front of Raymond Bernard's home and she took the license number of the vehicle.

FORCED INTO CAR

Soon three men got into the car again and continued towards the shore. She stated while at the shore, she recognized the men as Donald and Leonard Noonan and Edison McKenna. They forced her into the car, she stated. McKenna drove the vehicle while the Noonan boys put her in between them in the back seat. They kept her close to the floor so she would not be seen, she continued.

Mrs. Allen stated they kept pushing her head down and it caused her nose to start bleeding. She testified she was quite scared and wasn't sure where they were going and on what roads. She said they went to a clump of woods and stopped the car, out of sight of the open.

The trio took Mrs. Allen out of the car, she related and dragged her by the feet into the trees. When she cried out that her hands were hurting, one of the men picked up her feet and they carried her into the trees. Then Mrs. Allen said she was raped and fainted.

She said when she regained consciousness, one man was lightly slapping her face as if to waken her up.

USED CIGARETTE

She stated that one man said "Let's brand our old cow." She said she recognized Donald Noonan's voice say "We should have a branding iron, but a cigarette will do."

Mrs. Allen said she was burned on her back and feet with a cigarette and then she lost consciousness again. When she "came to" again, Leonard was alone with her. She managed to get to the road and as she was walking along an RCMP car came by and picked her up. McKenna was in the car already, she said.

They were taken to the Borden RCMP barracks and Dr. John Bonnell was summoned. Dr. Bonnell later ordered Mrs. Allen to Prince County Hospital.

STATE OF SHOCK

In answer to questions in cross - examination by defence counsel, J. Watson MacNaught, QC, Mrs. Allen stated that during the time the three men took her to the woods, she was in a state of fright and shock and didn't remember too much. She said she was not sure if more than one person raped her. She said her dress was pulled up over her eyes so she couldn't see. She also stated that she did hear one man say "now its my turn."

Dr. John Bonnell stated that on the night of July 22, Cnst. Allan Burchill of the Borden RCMP detachment arrived at his office with Mrs. Allen. He said she was in a state of shock. Her hair was mussed and her clothes soiled and disarranged. She had bruises on her back and chest and complained of pain while breathing. Her hand and arm were bruised and legs soiled with clay from the times down he stated.

WAS BURNED

Dr. Bonnell stated that upon giving Mrs. Allen a thorough physical examination, he noted three small burns, smaller than a dime in the lower abdomen. Also there were between eight and 10 burns on her buttocks about the size of a 50-cent piece he explained. Also the big toe of her right foot had a large burn.

Dr. Bonnell testified that Mrs. Allen was obviously injured internally also. He stated his examination revealed she had had violent intercourse and was also sadistically burned. He stated he could detect the odor of alcohol on the patient's breath but she was not intoxicated. He ordered Mrs. Allen to stay home in bed, and later when the burns became infected and more severe, he sent her to Prince County Hospital. Dr. Bonnell also made three slides of substances taken from her body and gave them to Cnst. Burchill so that he would turn them over to the RCMP crime detection laboratory in Sackville, N.B.

Cpl. Peter Gazey of the RCMP crime detection lab in Sackville testified he had examined an empty rum bottle sent to him by Cnst. Burchill and also the ring that was around the neck of the bottle. He said there was sufficient proof to say that the two were originally connected together.

Cpl. William Robertson, also of the RCMP crime lab testified he had tested the three slides sent him by Cnst. Burchill and he found them to contain spermatozoa, human male cells. Cpl. Robertson also examined several other items of clothing, body fluids and blood types sent him.

TELL OF ARREST

RCMP Constables Ian Oland and Allan Burchill and Cpl. William MacDonald of the Borden detachment testified as to how they effected the arrest of the three accused. Cnst Oland stopped McKenna driving along the highway in a drunken condition. While taking McKenna back to the Borden detachment, he saw a woman walking along the road.

She was picked up and identified herself as Mrs. Allen. She appeared in a state of shock, he stated. Both Mr. and Mrs. McKenna were taken to the Borden office, with the Noonan boys already there. All were questioned. Mrs. Allen was taken to Dr. Bonnell's office and the trio was detained at the detachment. Each was stripped of their clothing and given other garments by the RCMP officers.

Cnst. William Crane, Borden town policeman testified he had assisted the RCMP in combing the area where the rape was alleged to have occurred in Borden. He aided in the field he found a cigarette butt and a woman's undergarment.

Cpl. MacDonald stated he had taken a small blue and white car to the home of Mrs. Allen after the offence and she identified it as the one she was taken in by the three men July 22.

The case was adjourned to Aug. 16 at which time remaining evidence will be presented.

Father, Son Given Suspended Term

SUMMERSIDE — Thaddeus Knockwood and his son Albert were each given suspended sentences by Magistrate Chester MacDonald at the conclusion of the lengthy hearing on the charge of assaulting Indian Agent J. D. MacLeod, and of creating a disturbance.

Thaddeus was given a six-month suspended sentence while Albert received a one-year suspended sentence. Both are residents of the Lennox Island Indian reserve.

Mr. MacLeod in his evidence told of hearing loud voices outside his door and shortly after pounding. He said he found Thaddeus Knockwood outside talking in a loud voice and swearing. He said he urged him to go home and if he had a grievance to come to his office in the morning.

The agent said that Albert Knockwood came across the yard and up to the door hitting him in the face with his fist. He said he grabbed Albert and they both fell to the floor and Thaddeus fell on top of both of them. Mr. MacLeod said Albert continued to pound him. They both left and later Albert returned and apologized. He said he called the RCMP.

On being x-rayed the next day MacLeod was found to have seven fractured ribs and injuries to the face.

Albert Knockwood, testifying on his own behalf, stated as he was coming home from fishing nets, his sister Katherine told him their father was at J. D. MacLeod's and having convulsions. When Albert arrived at the MacLeod home, Mr. MacLeod was holding Thaddeus by the shoulders, he stated.

He said he thought they were having an argument. He went over to Mr. MacLeod and struck him on the face with his fist and fought him on the ground. He later apologized for the incident.

Also giving evidence were Mrs. Thaddeus Knockwood and her daughter Katherine.

Thaddeus Knockwood, in his evidence, stated that when he takes convulsions he loses his memory. He said at the time of the fight he was experiencing another convulsion because he was out of pills that a doctor prescribed for him to take without fail daily.

THEFT OF MOTOR

Eldred Edward Murray, of the Alberton area, was given a two-year suspended sentence, having pleaded guilty to a charge of theft of an outboard motor valued at $650, property of William Buchanan, Mill River.

A juvenile, also connected with the incident will appear in juvenile court before Judge W. E. Darby. Cpl. Ronald Pettit of the Alberton detachment RCMP related how the two had taken a boat off a trailer, floated it down the river and then removed the motor.

In ordering the two year suspension, Magistrate MacDonald said the greatest punishment to Murray would be that if, later, the juvenile becomes a criminal, he (Murray) would have to live with the thought he was, in part, responsible.

SECOND OFFENCE

Arnold Clarence Howatt, Carleton, was fined $50 and costs on a second offence conviction of driving a motor vehicle without first obtaining a driver's license. Howatt was also charged with driving in a manner dangerous to the public. Cnst. William Burchill testified that he followed the accused at speeds of 95 to 100 miles per hour. The police officer said the car had only one headlamp and one rear light and was going from side to side. Accused told the court he never had a driver's license and shortly after stating this, he fainted.

Tignish Operator Is Fined $1,200

SUMMERSIDE — Jerry Buote, Tignish cannery operator was given a fine totalling $1,200 for possession of "short" lobsters by Magistrate W. Chester S. MacDonald yesterday. A member of the fisheries department found the small lobsters in Buote's possession May 31, June 11 and June 30.

During the period from 1948 to 1960, Mr. Buote was convicted of violations of the Fishery Act 15 times, it was revealed. A total of $678 in fines was imposed for the offences, and George R. MacMahon, acting for the department of fisheries, stated that fines didn't seem to offer any punishment to Buote and was therefore asking for a jail term.

The fines were $100 and costs or one month for the offence of May 31 for possession of 495 short lobsters, $300 and costs or three months for the offence of June 11 when 488 lobsters and 441 bodies were seized, and $800 and costs or six months for the offence of June 30 when 273 shorts were found in his possession.

Kensington, Freetown Have Breaks

SUMMERSIDE — Summerside detachment RCMP are investigating breaks at Freetown and Kensington which occurred during Monday night.

Between $40 and $50 in change was taken from Ralph Owen's Texaco service station in Kensington and at Fgeetown, the store of Ralph Burns was entered. About $5 in cash and several items were stolen. These included a wrist watch valued at $59 and a Sunbeam electric razor valued at $18.

In both cases entry was through windows at the rear of the buildings which were smashed-by the intruders.

VOLUNTEERS TO BE DUNKED

Nine members of the Garrison Officers Mess have volunteered to take a dunking (tonight in the novelty booth operated by the Charlottetown Kiwanis Club at the Provincial Exhibition.

The volunteers will be perched on a collapsible chair that hangs over a large tub of water. When a customer strikes a lever with a thrown baseball, the chair collapses and the volunteer gets a wetting.

Proceeds from the booth go towards Kiwanis work among underprivileged children.

Mess members to take part are Charlie Ryan, Forbes Kennedy, Jim Flanagan, Bill Coughlin. Ralph MacNeill, P. J. A. MacDonald, Art Walsh Leonard Arsenault and Don Rhodenizer.

The case was adjourned until Howatt was revived.

Sherman Wallace Pye of the RCAF Station was fined $75 and costs after pleading guilty to a charge of driving a motor vehicle while his ability was impaired by alcohol. Another driver was fined $5 for failing to stop at a stop sign.

Alexander Neil MacFarlane, St. Eleanors, pleaded not guilty to a charge of driving without due care and attention and the case was adjourned for trial until August 30.

Wayne Costain, St. Eleanors, was fined $10 and costs for driving without due care and attention.

ADJOURNED

Lowell Oliver, Summerside, charged with having care and control of a motor vehicle while his ability was impaired by alcohol had his case adjourned for a decision until Sept. 6 after evidence was completed.

Several cases of possession of liquor other than in residence were heard and each was fined $20 and costs by Magistrate W. Chester S. MacDonald. They were Joseph Adrion Blanchard, Summerside East, Gerald McKenna, Summerside East and Martin Felix Murphy, Wilmot Valley.

Roger Burley, Miscouche, paid $10 and costs for driving a motor vehicle with faulty equipment and Nelson Reid, Albany, was fined $10 and costs for driving without due care and attention.

Grade 12 'Sups' Slated Aug. 30-31

The department of education is offering supplementary examinations here for grade 12 students in algebra, chemistry and French on Aug. 30 and Aug. 31, it was learned last evening from Malcolm MacKenzie, deputy minister of education.

Mr. MacKenzie explained that the supplementary examinations are being offered in these three subjects because they are the ones in which the largest number of students failed in grade 12 examinations written earlier this summer.

The second chance has been granted, he explained, in response to the requests from so many students and parents from various parts of the province.

The examinations will be held in Prince of Wales College, Charlottetown on Aug. 30 at 9 o'clock in the morning for Algebra, at 2 o'clock in the afternoon for French and at 9 o'clock Aug. 31 for chemistry.

The education department spokesman expressed the hope that students intending to write these examinations will get down to serious work right away.
