return he went to Grand Seminary, Quebec, to study for the priesthood. He was ordained at St. Dunstan's Basilica March 3, 1933.

For the next two years he attended St. Francis Xavier University, Antigonish, and McGill University, Montreal, specializing in chemistry. Then he returned to Prince Edward Island and joined the teaching staff at St. Dunstan's. He was a faculty member at the time of his death.

COACHED DEBATES
While at St. Dunstan's it was Father Cass's proud privilege to have coached two national debating championship teams.

St. John's, Nfld. (Now Walter Reid) and Allan MacLennan, Edmonton and formerly of Charlottetown, capped the Dominion crown. Leo Padden, Newfoundland and Don MacDougall, Nova Scotia, late Wednesday evening. However, the persistence of moisture in the air was again showing up in the form of fog along the Atlantic and Fundy coasts. This fog will likely spread farther inland overnight but yield to the sun Thursday morning. Variable amounts of cloud are expected during the daylight hours of Thursday for most of the district. An ill defined disturbance over the southeastern states will spread increasing amount of cloud and some showers to the southern and western regions Thursday evening. Showery conditions should prevail in all three provinces on Friday as the disturbance is moving slowly.

Regional forecasts for tonight and Thursday with an outlook for Friday:

Northern Nova Scotia, Prince Edward Island, Eastern New Brunswick Counties: Variable cloudiness with fog patches overnight. Cloudy with sunny periods Thursday. Cool. Light winds. Low early Thursday morning and high in the afternoon at New Glasgow 54 and 70, Charlottetown and Moncton 55 and 68. Outlook for Friday: Cloudy with showers and continuing cool.

High tide today at Charlottetown at 10:45 a.m. and 12:30 a.m. At Rustico at 6:05 a.m. and 8:21 p.m. Summerside 12:18 minutes later than Charlottetown. Sun rises today at 5:53 a.m. and sets at 8:44 p.m. All times A.D.T.

The second day of the third annual Sours Fisheries Exhibition and Regatta swung into action shortly after noon yesterday with a mammoth participation and Regatta held Tuesday and yesterday. The girls are Marjorie MacDonald, Laura MacDonald, Florence MacPhee, Karen Lar-ter, Janice Larter and Karen Becher. The float was one of several which made up the big parade which was one of the highlights of the regatta.

ade wending its way through town and terminating at the Marine Wharf where the official opening was held.

The parade was led by the RCMP Patrol car followed by a group of majorettes and Fraser's Lads and Leinster Pipe Band. Following these were two platoons of men from the HMCS New Waterford.

Cars with officials followed these led by regatta officials and followed by John Mullally, MP for Kings, Mayor C.E. LaVie and his wife, and Daniel MacDonald, Mrs. Ian Kings and Mrs. MacDonald.

The converts containing the contestants, Sea Queen and her Princesses followed. In order they were Wanda Burke, Miss Sours Regional High School; Glynne Jarvis, Miss Sours; Leslion; Beverly O'Hanley, a princess; Miss Mores; Mary MacPhee, princess; Miss Sours' Lions; Queen of the Sea, Alma Fraser; Miss MacKenzie Motors, followed by a girl on a horse, Miss Nancy White.

The floats in the parade were Larter's Pharmacy, Sours Lions, Mathew MacLennan Ltd., Mr. and Mrs. 1964 in a horse and buggy piloted by J.M. Cheverie and Mrs. Waldron Dingwall, and a civil defence float.

The parade ended at the Marine Wharf where opening remarks were made by Mayor C.E. LaVie. The Queen of the Sea contestants were introduced and the Queen spoke briefly. The next speakers were Hon. Leo Rooster, provincial minister of fisheries, followed by Premier Walter R. Shaw, Roy Stafford, and George Ramsey, MLA. 1st Kings also spoke.

They will be forwarded to the SDU chapel where they will lie in state until Friday morning at 10 when the Pontifical Requiem High Mass will be celebrated. At seven o'clock Friday evening the remains will be forwarded to Saint Dunstan's Basilica where they will lie in state until Saturday morning at 10 when the Pontifical Requiem High Mass will be celebrated. Interment will be in the Roman Catholic cemetery.
