MEETING AT MILTON.

Sentiment Strongly in Favor of Mr. Wise.

The hall at Milton was crowded last night. Frederick Horne, Esq., occupied the chair.

The meeting was addressed by Dr. Douglas, Mr. Wise, Premier Farquharson, Mr. Shaw, Mr. A. Peters, Mr. Campbell, Mr. James McLean, Mr. W. S. Stewart, Mr. John Whear and Mr. T. Doyle.

The sentiment of the meeting was strongly in favor of Mr. Wise. Mr. Wise was among his neighbors; and his neighbors are his friends. He is a farmer, and he has been made the victim of a political sharper's trick. A dastardly attempt was made to place him in the same category as Pincus who didn't resign and who, for a consideration, betrayed and deserted the men who elected him. Mr. Wise completely vindicated his conduct in respect to his loss of confidence in the Government; and he stands to-day higher than ever in the estimation of the people as well as that of his neighbors and his friends. Consequently he is going to gain a large number of votes in Milton and vicinity.

MGR. FALCONIO'S VISIT.

At Rustico and Hope River To-day—
The Reception.

This morning His Excellency Mgr. Falconio, accompanied by his Secretary and His Lordship Bishop McDonald, went to Rustico and Hope River. They return this evening and will be entertained at Government House.

In addition to those whose names appear elsewhere the following ladies and gentlemen had the honor of being presented to the Apostolic Delegate last night:—Miss K. McQuillan, Mr. Joseph McInnis, Mrs. J. F. McAree, Mrs. F. McRory, Mr. J. McRory, Miss M. McPhee, Miss M. McKinnon, Mr. M. McMillan, Mrs. G. A. McDonald, Mr. Bernard McDonald, Mr. Jos. O'Connor, Mr. James Paton, Miss C. Pembroke, Mr. James Reddin, Mrs. T. Riley, Miss Quinn, Miss Carrie Quinn, Miss Skerry, Miss E. Simpson, Miss Aylward, Mrs. Michael McQuaid, Miss M. McMahon, Mrs. Aikens, Mrs. P. G. Aughe, Mr. Maurice Blake, Miss Brophy, Mr. James P. Bradley, Mr. J. P. Burke, Miss Crawford, Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Eden, Mrs. C. P. Fletcher, Miss E. Daly, Mrs. Thos. Campbell, Miss Stella Fletcher, Mr. T. Handrahan, Mr. M. P. Hogan, Mr. F. L. Hazard, Mr. Chas. Herman, Mrs. M. Leahy, Miss K. Leahy, Miss F. Leahy, Mr. G. Leahy, Mr. J. T. Mellich, Miss McSwain, Mr. J. Savidant, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Sheppard, Mrs. J. F. White, Miss D. Walker, Miss L. Walker, Mr. J. Trainor.

During the progress of the reception at the Palace last night some choice instrumental selections were given by Miss Ella Blake, Miss Maisie Coady, Mr. Blanchard and Mr. Theodore Gallant, and vocal solos were excellently rendered by Mrs. James Byrne and Mr. Charles Hermans.

The arc light between the palace and St. Dunstan's Cathedral was placed in position by the Full Electric Company. The light was very steady and much admired.

The painting of the Delegate's arms on the transparency in front of the cathedral and the lettering on the same was performed by Mr. A. J. Quirk. The work was well executed and provoked much favorable comment.

In our report of the music in the Cathedral on Tuesday night, we omitted to state that the trio "Jesu Dei Vivi" was exceptionally well sung by Miss Smith, Mr. Hermans and Professor Caven.

WEDDING BELLS.—A very pretty wedding took place at the residence of Mr. Benj. Myers, Hazel Brook, yesterday evening, when his daughter Miss Gertrude, was united in matrimony to Mr. Ernest Lund, of Bethel. The nuptial knot was tied by the Rev. W. J. Howard, of Pownal, in the presence of a large number of friends. The bride looked charming in a gown of creamy white material and was attended by Miss Edna Lund, of Bethel, (cousin of the groom) while the groom was supported by Mr. Seymour Wood, of Mr. Herbert. After the ceremony the happy couple sat down to the table, which groined under the weight of good things prepared in Mrs. Myers' most tempting style, and ample justice was done the "nuptial man," after which music, games, etc., helped pass away the evening. The wedding gifts were both numerous and costly, and showed the high esteem in which both bride and groom are held. THE EXAMINER wishes Mr. and Mrs. Lund a happy journey through life.

Your best friend can give you no better advice than this: "For impure blood, bad stomach and weak nerves take Hood's Sarsaparilla."

ADAMSON'S BOTANIC BALSAM

CROUP is the most deadly of all diseases of children. It gives very little time in which to seek remedies. A little tiredness—a cough—feverishness—stifled coughing—weakened voice—feeble pulse—delirium—convulsions—and even at this critical period LIFE IS SAVED if this wonderful balsam is administered. It should be always on hand and given at the first symptom but it will nearly perform miracles whenever used.
