CORRECTION—The auction sale at Mrs. J. T. Poole's Cardigan will be held on Wednesday, June 7th and not on the date previously advertised.

ARCHBISHOP O'LEARY HONORED—At the closing exercises of the University of Alberta, the degree of L.L.D. was conferred upon His Grace Archbishop O'Leary, who also delivered the Convocation Address. His Grace, who has been on a short visit here, leaves this morning for the Mainland.

ST. PETER'S CATHEDRAL—Rev. Dr. Hunt, of King's College, Windsor, is in the city and assisted at the Whitenside services at St. Peter's Cathedral yesterday. He officiated at the choral celebration of the Holy Communion in the morning and preached a suitable sermon. At the evening service the rector Rev. E. L. Malone preached a forceful and particularly able sermon dealing with the descent of the Holy Spirit at Pentecost.

GOLF CLUB MEETING—The Charlottetown Golf Club will be host to a large number of visitors at the annual maritime Golf Championships on July 21st and necessary preparation will be put under way immediately. A special meeting of the club is being called for Wednesday afternoon next at five fifteen at the Links to consider advisability of enlarging present club house and financing same is approved.

HOTEL DINNER—The dinner at the Victoria Hotel yesterday was a good one and reflects much credit upon Mr. Neil MacDonald, assistant chef, who has been acting in the absence of Mr. Crawford who has been confined to his home through illness. The Casino Orchestra played a special program of music and was much enjoyed, features of the program were a violin solo by Mr. H. E. Porter of Toronto, who has delighted the people of Charlottetown by his splendid playing on several occasions yesterday was at his best, also vocal solos by Mr. Elmer Farnell and Mr. Kearney who were in splendid voice. Much praise is extended to the management for the pleasant week ends they make for their guests, and who make it a point to give them a first class service.

MISS WYNE HONORED—Friday evening at the Pastime Hall Miss Helen Wynne, who is to take part in a happy event this month, was honored by a miscellaneous shower and dance given by Mrs. Fred H. Trainor. About 150 persons enjoyed what was one of the most successful entertainments ever held in the Pastime Hall. About 9 o'clock after all had arrived and were seated in the hall Mrs. Trainor opened a door of an adjoining room and led out her little daughter and son, Ruth and Howard, dressed as "Bride and Groom" hauling a cart beautifully decorated in white tissue loaded with presents, amid loud applause, this wonderful idea was carried out, for which Mrs. Trainor deserves credit. The presents were then opened and the Verses read by Mr. Fred Duffy. The numerous presents received by Miss Wynne last evening shows that she has hosts of friends who are eager for her future happiness. Dancing followed which was indulged in by all present who heartily enjoyed themselves. A feature of the evening was a splendid violin solo by Mr. H. E. Porter, of Toronto, who received great applause. The Hall, which was nicely decorated, presented a fine appearance. Home made fudge was passed around during the dancing hours. At 12 o'clock dainty refreshments were served and were delightful. The Casino Orchestra furnished the music and were up to their standard and Mr. Blanchard and his partners are to be highly complimented. The decorated cart with the picture of the children in their trappy costume may be seen in the window of Beer & Weeks.

LIUET. G. L. FULLERTON TO FLY OVER ARTIC

OTTAWA, June 2.—Flight Lieut. G.L. Fullerton of the Canadian Air Board, who has joined the Amundsen expedition, to the Arctic seas, is well known among flying men in Ottawa. He has been attached as pilot at Vancouver station for the last six months and at his request has been granted indefinite leave of absence. As pointed out by officials of the Air Board last night no official sanction has been given to Lieut. Fullerton and his doing so is only at his own risk. As the Amundsen expedition is a Norwegian enterprise, it has been considered advisable to refrain from giving official sanction, in case of future international complications. The expedition leaves Seattle on Saturday on the famous exploring ship Maud.

Lieut. Fullerton saw considerable service overseas with the Canadian fliers and on returning to Canada was appointed instructor at Camp Borden in 1920 and 1921. On the express recommendation of the Board he was picked out by the Imperial Oil Company to fly their large oil company to and from Fort Norman in the Mackenzie River district, during the first gold rush in the summer of 1921. He rejoined the Canadian Air Board last year and was appointed to the Vancouver station as pilot.

The aviator is considered by his fellow officers, as one of the most reliable and experienced pilot in the Canadian service. His home is in Edmonton, Alta.

Divine Providence has designed this Prince Edward Island to become also the Isle of Saints and Missionaries.

It is not ephemeral—past, present and future are written upon it. This law is illustrated in other ways.
Burke has well said that our civilization is a contract between three parties,—the noble dead, the living and the unborn. Society has been compared to a seamless robe. The ages are woven like cloth upon a loom. The threads in the warp and woof are spun out of the yesterdays and today, and that seamless robe must clothe the tomorrows.

There is the continuity of heredity, for it is not a fact that our ancestors move forward and reproduce themselves in us physically and often mentally and spiritually. Yea even in law, medicine, statesmanship, business, religion, we have illustrations of the law of continuity, representing, as they do, what has been harvested at the Spring, Summer and Autumn of past days. What untold wealth lies loosed all around us. We are rich with the contributions of the past and present. Do we realize this? The days speak and they ask questions. We should be better men and women than our fathers were and yet, I sometimes wonder if we are not like the Dutch child who, upon the diamond boat, to South Africa, played marbles with diamonds as with pebbles, taken from the mines until an expert came along and put some of the pebbles upon a lapidary's wheel and they proved to be uncut diamonds and after that they sparkled in the diamonds of Kings and Queens. Would God that we should use our precious blessings as diamonds of the first water and that in consequence our lives should shine like stars for God's glory in the sight of God and men.

RECALLING OLD DAYS—The Turner Fall (Mass.) Reporter, edited and managed by Mr. Cecil T. Bagnall for the past fifty years has changed hands. In his farewell editorial to his readers Mr. Bagnall recalls the establishment of the Reporter and its evolution from a modest weekly to one of the leading dailies in the State. The first issue was set up by Mr. Bagnall who set every line of type by hand either from copy written by himself or without copy standing by the case. He made up the forms, not on an imposing stone as newspapers are set up today but on an old "man killer" press. The "man killer" was operated by a six foot laborer and the first issue of 1000 copies was launched. The Reporter has grown from this humble beginning to an up to date daily newspaper. Mr. Bagnall referred to is a cousin of Dr. J. S. Bagnall of this city.

LADIES' AUXILIARY P. E. HOSPITAL—At the annual meeting of the Ladies' Auxiliary of the P. E. H. Hospital the following officers were elected: President Mrs. D. McLean; Vice President Mrs. J. D. Stewart; Smallwood; Vice President for the churches, (Methodist) Mrs. Full and Mrs. R. E. Mutch; Baptist Mrs. John Webster; Zion, Mrs. Carruthers; St. Peter's Mrs. Miles St. James Mrs. J. D. Stewart; St. Paul's Mrs. James Palmer; People's, Mrs. McDougall; Christian Miss M. Stewart, Secretary; Miss MacLean, Treasurer; Mrs. McKelvie, Mrs. Timmarsh and Mrs. Baker were appointed on the Buying Committee. Excellent work was done by the Society during the past year as will be seen by the annual report which was issued. Some plans were made for the work of the coming year. On Tuesday, June 13th and Friday, June 16th, and Egg Days will be held at the Market Building. Dr. receive contributions of eggs from country and city. Arrangements were also made to hold the usual Exhibition lunch during Exhibition Week.

PERSONALS
Messrs. Eric Lowther and John Nicholson of Crapaud were visitors to Charlottetown on Sunday.

Among the guests at the Revere Hotel is Mr. Geo. McMillan, Fred orleton.

Col. Jos. Hayes Has Resigned
HALIFAX, June 4. — Colonel Joseph Hayes has resigned his position as Unit Medical Director for the Maritime Provinces, to take a position elsewhere, the nature of which is not known at present. He is to be succeeded in office here by Dr. J. F. Ellis, who has been medical examiner for the last few years. Dr. Ellis takes over his new duties on June 1st.

Colonel Hayes has spent three years as Medical Director. Dr. Ellis who succeeds him, went overseas with the St. Francis Xavier Unit and was attached to various hospital units in France.

His last year overseas was spent with a special heart hospital in London, where he attended cases of that nature among Canadians.

Rev. Dr. Cutten Has Resigned
WOLFVILLE N. S. June 2. — The resignation of Rev. Dr. George B. Cutten from the presidency of Acadia University was placed before the meeting of the board of governors Thursday and accepted, after the doctor had replied to a resolution asking him to withdraw his resignation on the ground that it would be a heavy blow to the university at the present time. Dr. Cutten was recently offered the presidency of Colgate University, New York, which it is understood he has accepted.

Dr. Cutten had been president of Acadia since 1910.

Diamond Jubilee Service
The speaker was glad that the missionary spirit is beginning to re-assert itself in Canada. The Archbishop of Montreal a few years ago received a letter from a bishop in China who had under his charge a colony of lepers in a most horrible condition, badly in need of religious care. The Archbishop of Montreal went to the little seminary of the Immaculate Conception and said to the pupils: "I want to get some of you to go to China. You go for life. Your companions will only be lepers. You will never come back, but it is a work of God." He asked for volunteers. The whole fifty-six members of that seminary stood up ready to go to China and the Archbishop was finally obliged to choose six. That is the missionary spirit of the Catholic Church and the speaker was sure that in Charlottetown also this spirit could be found in abundance.

Individual Lessons
Days speak through individuals to individuals.

There is a tree in California said to be 700 years old. Its growth and age are indicated by rings. A woodcutter saw several of these rings on one "Abraham" as it is called in Palestine; on another Jacob at the Brook Jabbok; on another, "Moses stands before Pharaoh," and so on, great historic incidents from the olden times. Meanwhile the tree lives, each year building a new ring. The old rings and the new ones have life pulsating through them all. You may only think of it as a romance but it is there not something more? Who was Abraham? Was he not the father of the faithful and friend of God? And does not the great Abrahamic covenant prove to be one of the foundation pillars of Christianity,—one of the Magna Charters of the race. And are not the days of Abraham thus speaking to every one of us.

Moreover you will recall that one of General Allenby's first encounters with the Turks, when British forces invaded Palestine, was at Bersheba and that the first Sabbath after the initial success, Rev. Mr. Riley, a Wesleyan Minister, gathered a contingent of soldiers at one of the wells that Abraham had dug and where he and Abimelech had conventioned together and preached on the narrative as disclosed in Gen. 21, 31. By Abraham, Abimelech, Riley, Allenby and the British forces that won the war, the days speak through individuals to individuals.

And who was Jacob? The grandsons of Abraham. Look at him at Jabbok. Mark the intensity of his prayer, "I will not let thee go."
Days Speak as to the value of prayer, and its relation to life.

Who was Moses? The greatest lawgiver the world ever knew. Every time you read the Ten Commandments this man, these days speak. Yes Moses' name is the only human name to be enshrined with the Christ in the song of the glorified Host, for the song of the redeemed will be the song of Moses and the Lamb.

And how Jesus Christ speaks to every one of us, for there is none other name given under Heaven and among men by which we can be saved.

These great men are speaking to us from bygone days. It is true that the great souls are the meeting place of great yesterdays and when you meet these days, they speak in earnest tones, inspiring, helpful and blessed.

Days Speak through individuals to individuals.
In this connection I think of the men and women, of this town, I know in other days. The sign boards of business men have disappeared. Is there one left? If so, I would like to be informed of it. On the 19th of May, 1822, nineteen men, Officials of this Church, unanimously approved of me to the Conference as a candidate for the Ministry. They are all dead and in several instances not a representative of their families is to be found in Charlottetown. I go through these streets and find myself a stranger in the place I was born. O the changes! O the mortality! The fathers where are they? And the prophets, do they live forever? And the answer is the requiem: Earth to earth, ashes to ashes, dust to dust. But I think of the good and the saved ones. If they were here tonight, as they were before they left us, would they not approve of the message which Dr. John Clifford, the great Nonconformist of London, recently gave to a friend, who asked on his 55th birthday this question: "What are the most appropriate lessons for the present time suggested by your long experience?" said: "There is no ground for despondency. The teaching of Jesus Christ is clear as it is authoritative. The fires of God are cleaning the life and thought of the world. The longer I live the stronger is my confidence in the teachings I learnt from my mother's knee." And then this sentence: Find out the right and follow it in scorn of consequences.

I place the message before you. It is a message to every individual here.

To sum up: Time, needs of the nations, fundamental laws and the messages of individuals to individuals combine in speaking to us emphatically tonight. In Edinburgh there is an old sheepskin. On the roughly prepared surface Scotchmen of deep conviction, of strong religious feeling and holy principles, affixed their names to a solemn league and covenant that has immortalized one phase of Church History. Moreover, it is said that some of them did this with their own blood. By their consecration, courage, fidelity and blood these men speak to us through the days past and bid us plant Heaven's Standard away in advance positions and thus control future days with a holy ambition to promote the interests of the Kingdom of God. Let us learn from them. Days Should Speak.

During the service last night the anthems "The Lord is My Shepherd" and "Halleluyah" were splendidly rendered by the choir. The Harmony Male Quartette also sang very acceptably. Music at the morning service a solo by Mr. G. E. Ritchie and an anthem by the choir.

Fireman and Driver Escape Unhurt When Engine Turned Over
Engineer W. Munroe and Fireman E. O. Beagan had a narrow escape Saturday morning when the engine they were driving with freight cars attached left the rails, the engine jumping the track and turning completely on its side.

The accident happened at Royal Junction about 10.40 a. m. Saturday. Only the engine, a freight car and the forward truck of the next car left the rails.

The train was coming in to Charlottetown and was moving slowly at the time. It is not known how the accident happened, as a close inspection by Track Master, Fred Houlte yesterday showed that the switch at the time was perfectly all right. In some way the flanges of the forward wheels fouled and mounted the rails.

A working crew was despatched to the scene of the accident Saturday afternoon and worked yesterday until the track was cleared. Yesterday afternoon the engine was brought in to the yards, very little the worse for the tumble. The engineer and fireman, by extraordinary good fortune, escaped unhurt.

First Baseball Game Saturday
On Saturday afternoon at the Abegweit grounds the first game of baseball of a series of seven games between the Abegweits and Beavers was staged to a very small attendance of fans, owing no doubt to the disagreeable conditions of the weather, nevertheless the boys of both teams lined up on the diamond at ten minutes past four, and gave a very good account of themselves. They being handicapped considerably by lack of practice and wet ground which made it difficult for the batteries of either teams to do effective work, and the fielders were at a disadvantage, as the ball travelled very slowly on the wet ground.

The game ended 12-7 in favor of the Abegweits. Fred Kelly as umpire and Wm. Halpenny as base judge discharged their duties to the satisfaction of all.

The line up was as follows:—
Beavers Pitcher Abegweits
A. Arseneault Kinsaman
M. Diamond 1st Base S. Diamond
Rulledge 2nd Base J. Garriek
E. Arseneault 3rd Base W. Ryan
Ross S. S. McEachern

L. Campbell C. Field T. Corrigan
McQuaid R. Field McQuigan

Blue-jay
Stops Pain Instantly

The simplest way to end a corn is Blue-jay. A touch stops the pain instantly. Then the corn loosens and comes out. Made in two forms—a colorless, clear liquid (one drop does it) and in extra thin plasters. Use whichever form you prefer, plasters or the liquid—the action is the same. Safe, gentle. Made in a world-famed laboratory. Sold by all druggists.
