FOR cleaning Solid Silver, Nickel, Brass, Copper and Plate Glass Quick! Sure!
Permanent! No dirt, no trouble, no labor.
Being entirely free from grit and acids, it cannot injure the most finely burnished surface. It is the only preparation ever produced that will polish brass or copper without the use of acid. Nothing approaches it for removing grease, etc.; especially for Nickel or Silver, it is especially useful.
Retail price, 25 cents per bottle.
MICA WASH.—This wash is the only thing of the kind ever invented. A stove may be as handsome as a jewel and shine like ebony; but smoked mica lights will spoil it all. Day by day mica becomes scarcer and higher in price, and an article that will clean and preserve it is valuable to all concerned.
Try this wash once, and you will always use it. Retail price, 75 cents per bottle.

Train the Boys for Business.

There is one element in the home instruction of boys to which too little attention has been given; and that is the cultivation of habits of punctuality, system, order and responsibility.
In many household boys' lives between twelve and seventeen years are generally the calmest of their existence. Up in the morning just in season for breakfast; nothing to do but start off early enough not to be late; looking upon an errand as taking so much time and memory away from enjoyment; little thought of personal appearance except when reminded by mother to "spruce up" a little; finding his wardrobe always where mother puts it; in fact, having nothing to do but enjoy himself.
Thus his life goes on until school ends.
At this point he, perhaps, meets with his first great struggle. Many times during our business experience have we witnessed failures caused by the absence of thorough home discipline. How the boy without this great advantage fails is thus fairly described by the Scientific American: He goes into an office where everything is system, order, precision. He is expected to keep things neat and orderly, sometimes kindle fires, or do errands—in short, to become a part of a nicely regulated machine, where everything moves in systematic grooves, and each one is responsible for correctness in his department, and where, in place of ministers to his comfort, he finds taskmasters, more or less lenient to be sure, and everything in marked contrast to his previous life. In many instances the change is too great. Errors become very numerous; blunders, overlooked at first, get to be a matter of serious moment; then patience is overtaken, and the boy is told his services are no longer needed. This is the first blow, and sometimes he never rallies from it. Then comes the surprise to the parents, who too often never know the real cause, nor where they have failed in the training of their children.
What is wanted, is for every boy to have something special to do; to have some duty at a definite hour, and to learn to watch for that time to come; to be unanswerable for a certain portion of the routine of the household; to be trained to anticipate the time when he may enter the ranks of business, and to be fortified with habits of energy, accuracy, and application, often of more importance than superficial booklearning.—Academy News.

The Buffalo Hoax.

The following is the beautiful tribute to Blaine which the Republican editor of the Commercial Advertiser printed without first reading the initial letters of the lines downward:
TO JAMES G. BLAINE.
Virtue hath set her crown on thee Our president that is to be.
Truth from a thousand voices cries Ever our champion, honored, wise, Fervent in spirit, just upright Ordained our leader—the true knight, Rich in devotion to our cause Challenging oft uprighteous laws.
Lifted above the common herd;
Evil of tongue and false in word, Vile in his hearts thee harm to work, Envy and slander around them lurk, Let the blasphemous minions jeer,
And scoff and rant in language queer.
Never can words of vile disgust Destroy a loving people's trust, Theirs is the infamy and shame.
Hate cannot harm thy glorious name.
Ever around the people's choice Shall true men gather and rejoice, Envy shall hide in humbled pain Love shall enjoy her own again, In the millennium that is near.
No patriot shall have cause to fear.
Established wrongs will win their ear, Safe is the nation where you lead, Armed, to the war on reckless greed, Rally oft to the battle cry Every man to do or die, Boldly we'll follow your command Onward to victory. Through the land Shouting from Oregon to Maine, Hail to our chieftain, James G. Blaine.

CURRENT NOTES.

It is expected that the difficulty with the Boers will be settled without recourse to force.
The portrait of the Czar has been removed from all the Russian hotels because the people do not respect it.
Some of the Paris papers condemn the course of the French troops in Tonquin in killing the wounded and taking no prisoners.
Mr. Alex. Spence, of Montreal, had his son, Wm. P. Spence, aged 17, arrested for robbing his house of $300 worth of jewelry, which he tried to dispose of to the pawn-brokers.
General Camponon, French minister of

A mine has been discovered in a cellar at Kronoveraki on Prospect street, St. Peters-

The price of raw sugar in London is now £5 to £8 per ton lower than at the begin-

An English lady who recently visited New Brunswick, has ordered one of the by the French Academy for some certain test of death, to prevent people from being buried alive, was given to a physician who announced that on holding the hand of the supposed dead person to a strong light, if living a scarlet tinge is seen where the fingers touch, showing a continuous circulation of the blood, no scarlet being seen if dead. Dr. Max Buch also announces that on contracting a muscle by electricity, its temperature will rise, and be shown by any small surface thermometer, if the person is living; if it does not rise life is extinct.
