HARRISON OFF SATAN.—A missionary agent stated in his discourse in Brooklyn, some time since, that a gentleman of this city, who commenced life with about $600, was appealed to, to aid the missionary cause. He gave $100 for that object. Reasoning with himself as to his gift soon after, the thought entered his mind that he had given too much; but immediately receiving it to be a suggestion of Satan, he gave another $100; still troubled by the same adversary, he turned upon the arch-demon thus, "Now, Satan, if you don't stop still, I'll give the whole!" and has kept on giving to this day, and has prospered both temporally and spiritually, without any hindrance from the aforementioned tempter.

LOCOMOTIVES ON A HUNT.—The Bloomington (Illinois) pantograph states, that the cars coming from the south on the Central road, a few nights since, ran over a deer and killed them. The driver, seeing the light from the lantern in front of the locomotive, and not knowing exactly what it was, concluded to remain on the track, but it was a death blow of them.

VERMONT BUTTER.—A tub of butter weighing about 300 pounds, was recently discovered several feet beneath the surface of the earth, at Winted, Connecticut. The spot upon which it was found had been occupied some twenty years before by a country store, and the supposition is that the butter has remained buried all that time. The cask was partially decayed, but its contents, it is stated, were sweet, and without any unpalatable taint or flavour.

BUCKWHEAT CAKES. To every three bushels of buckwheat, add one of good heavy spring wheat flour. If there was only buckwheat—this you will have cakes always light and always brown, to say nothing of the greater digestibility, and the lightening of spirits, which are equally certain. He who feeds on buckwheat may be grum and lethargic; while he of the oatmeal will have exhilaration of brain and contentment of spirit.—[Philad. Ledger.]

The object recommended in the above extract can, we suppose, be secured more readily, by simply adding to the buckwheat a quantity of oatmeal, such as is purchased at the grocers—say in the proportion of one-quarter of oat meal to three-quarters of buckwheat. We have heard the preparation thus made highly spoken of by those who have tried it, as being superior to the ordinary buckwheat cakes. [Hartford Times.]

Never trust a secret with a married man who loves his wife, for he will tell her; she will tell aunt Hannah;—and aunt Hannah will impart it as a profound secret to every one of her female acquaintances.

We hear from Paris that the shape of bonnets for winter will be much the same as the style a coming fashio on the forehead, than that worn during the summer.

A TAX ON BRADS.—A bill has been presented to the Legislature of Tennessee, levying a tax of five dollars upon every gentleman who wears a monocle, and a fine of five dollars upon hachelors over thirty years of age for the purpose of raising money to increase the school fund. This will prove to be a rather close shaver!

Manny & Co., of Rockford, Illinois, will manufacture four thousand reaping machines this year, and the new total of their transactions will amount to more than half a million dollars; seven hundred men are in their employ.

DECIMAL COINAGE COMMISSION.—The Queen has appointed Lord Osborne, and John G. Pughard, Esq., Commissioners to consider how far it may be practicable and advisable to introduce the principle of Decimal Division into the Coinage of the United Kingdom.

Major Owen, R. E., who during the siege of Sebastopol, lost his right leg in the fragment of a shell, is on the eve of leaving to his young wife, a beautiful daughter, of Sir Wm. Cubitt.

We learn that the practice of using Black Birch for the main piece of Rudders in ships of the six years' grade, having recently been under the Committee of Lloyd's consideration, it is considered by them to be unsuitable for that purpose; and they have consequently given their surveyor at this port (John Tusker, Esq.), instructions to object to the use of black birch for the main piece of rudders in future.

INGRATITUDE.—It was a law of Athens that they who returned not kindness should be prosecuted for ingratitude.

The Great American Hair Tonic.

Bogle's celebrated Hyperion Fluid, for the growth and preservation of the Hair is well known to be without a rival on this continent. Hundreds of imitations have started into an ephemeral existence, since the introduction of this unrivalled Hair restorative, and their doom been sealed, while Bogle's Hyperion Fluid, with a popularity never attained by any other article, goes on "conquering and to conquer." There is no malady, which can affect the Hair, but can be cured by this incomparable preparation. The Fluid is invaluable; and on children's heads it lays the foundation of a good head of Hair. It is now purchased in the United States by the Queen of Great Britain, and commands an extensive sale throughout Europe.

Bogle's Electric Hair Dye converts red or grey hair into the beautiful black, at the moment it is applied, literally dying the hair without staining the skin and leaving the Hair soft and glossy without injuring the texture in the least; a decided superiority over all other Hair Dyes.

Bogle's Analo Shaving compound renders that unpleasant operation (shaving) a decided luxury.

Bogle's Shearstone removes freckles and tan from the face in the shortest possible time, and is acknowledged to be the very best article for beautifying the complexion.

To be had, wholesale or retail, of W. Bogle, 227, Washington Street, Boston, U. S.
