

Community Gathering Honours Newly-Weds

Mr. and Mrs. James Tierney, New Haven, were very pleasantly surprised on Friday night, September 12th, when their many friends of New Haven and surrounding districts gathered at their home to extend their best wishes and to welcome Mrs. Tierney to their community.

Miss Velma Frizzell and Mr. Leo Osborne escorted the bride and groom to gaily decorated seats, when Mr. Roland Buchanan, acting as chairman, called on Mrs. Stanley Newman, who on behalf of all present, read a nicely worded address and Mr. Lloyd Murphy presented them with a very substantial purse.

James, on behalf of Dorothy and himself thanked one and all, and all joined in singing "They Are Lolly Good Fellows".

A delicious lunch was then served by the ladies, and the evening was pleasantly spent in singing and dancing, after which everyone departed wishing the newlyweds many years of happiness.

Leonard - Ballum Wedding

—Bedecue United Church was the scene of a pretty wedding on Saturday afternoon, September 13th, when Rev. Kenneth Campbell united in marriage Miss Edwina Pearl, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George E. Ballum, Bedecue, and John Gould, son of Dr. and Mrs. J. G. Leonard of Saint John, N. B. The church was beautifully decorated with large bouquets of gladioli and cut flowers. The guests were marked with sweet peas and white satin bows of ribbon.

The wedding music was played by Mrs. Wilfred Craig, the guest soloist being Miss Frances Craig, who sang very sweetly "Because". The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, looked charming in a floor-length gown of light ivory satin, tightly fitted bodice with "V" neck line inserted with Italian lace, with sleeves tapering to points over the wrists. Over the flared skirt fell a tapered train of satin from bustle effect hipline. Her elbow-length veil fell from a coronet of seed pearls, and her bouquet was of Talsman roses and baby breath.

The bride was attended by her sisters, the Misses Eleanor and Wilma Ballum and little Miss Maureen Buddock, niece of the groom. The bridesmaids wore floor-length dresses of mauve and yellow, fashioned alike with full net skirts over nylon, brocade bodice, and short sleeved bolero. Their headresses were bandeau of matching flowers, and they carried bouquets of mauve and yellow gladioli. The flower girl wore a short dress of light mauve taffeta with a full ruffled skirt, short puffed sleeves and Peter-Pan collar. Her headress was a bandeau of flowers and she carried a basket of sweet peas.

Mr. Bruce Maxwell was groomsmen and Mr. Budd Williams and Mr. Clayton Ballum, uncles of the bride, were the ushers.

The bride's mother chose a dress of Burgundy wine, with black accessories and her corsage was of light cream gladioli. The groom's mother wore a navy and white celanese suit with navy accessories and her corsage was pink gladioli.

After the ceremony a reception was held at the bride's home, where friends of the bride served seventy-five guests, aunts of the bride presiding over the tea cups. Mr. Campbell proposed a toast to the bride and the groom fittingly responded. The bride's going away suit was navy and white and her corsage was blush pink roses. The happy couple left on their wedding trip to Boston and New York, with many good wishes from friends and relatives. On their return they will reside in Saint John.

Bell - Copson Wedding

—A pretty wedding took place at Carlton Street United Church, Toronto, at 3 p.m. Saturday, September 13th, when Hazel Bernice Copson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. Clifton Copson of Aurora, Ont., and Claude Smith Bell, son of Mrs. Helen Bell and the late Thomas B. Bell of Carleton, P. E. I., were united in marriage.

Baskets of gladioli made an attractive background for the ceremony, which was performed by the pastor, Rev. James M. Finlay, the double ring service being used. The wedding music, which included the Bridal Chorus from Lohengrin and Mendelssohn's Wedding March, was played by the organist, Frank Styles. He also accompanied the soloist, Mrs. Richard Martin of Kingston, who sang "The Lord's Prayer" and "O. Perfect Love".

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, was charming in a ballerina-length gown of periwinkle blue lace over taffeta with graceful full skirt. The fitted bodice had long pointed sleeves, trimmed with self-covered buttons, and her shoulder-length veil fell from a bandeau of blue lace. She carried a prayer-book with streamers of stephanotis and blush-pink roses.

The bride's sister, Mrs. Robert McEachern of Valleyfield, Que., who was matron of honour, wore a gown of cinnamon lace over taffeta, with small cinnamon leaf, and carried a nosegay of Talsman roses, yellow daisies, and blue cornflowers.

The best man was Kenneth S. Bell, Toronto, brother of the groom. The ushers were Chesley MacIsaac of Toronto, formerly of "Leary, P. E. I., and John McKay, Woodstock, Ont.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Copson chose a dress of soft reseda-green silk faille. Her hat and purse were maroon velvet and her corsage was of American Beauty roses and white carnations.

The reception was held in the church parlor, each table having a dainty bouquet of mixed asters. The bride's table was centred with a handsome three-tier wedding cake. Serving were friends of the bride and groom, fellow-members with them of the Carlton Street Church, the choir and the Young People's Union. The toast to the bride was happily proposed by Mr. Finlay. The groom's response was fitting and sincere, a tribute to the real fellowship in the church.

Later the young couple motored to Haliburton where they are spending their honeymoon. For travelling the bride wore a dark brown gabardine suit with a small hat of topaz velvet and matching scarf, brown calf purse and shoes, and a corsage of Talsman roses. They will reside at Napanee, where the bride, a graduate of Victoria College, University of Toronto, is a social worker in the Children's Aid Society. The groom is a student at Queen's University, Toronto, in preparation for the ministry of the United Church of Canada.

Previous to her marriage the bride was showered by her girl friends in Aurora, and by the community of Aurora, receiving a wide variety of useful and beautiful gifts.

Their many friends in Ontario, in Prince Edward Island and elsewhere, join in wishing Mr. and Mrs. Bell happiness and success in their chosen life of service together.

Beagan-Heron Wedding

A very pretty wedding took place in St. Patrick's Church, Fort Augustus, August 21st when Viola Mary, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Heron of Webster's Corner was united in the holy bonds of matrimony with Joseph Alvin, son of Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Beagan of Johnston's River. Rev. T. P. Butler performed the ceremony and celebrated the nuptial mass. Rev. Joseph Paquette of Vilanova, Pennsylvania was present in the sanctuary.

The altar was tastefully decorated with mixed gladioli. During the nuptial mass appropriate hymns were rendered by Misses Genevieve and Etta MacDonald with Miss Catherine MacDonald as organist.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a ballerina length gown of white Chantilly lace over tulle and taffeta, with lace mitts to match. Her finger-tip veil was of tulle illusion with lace trim fastened to a coronet of flowers. She carried a white prayer book covered with a corsage of dried roses attached with satin streamers.

Attending her sister as bridesmaid was Miss Gladys Heron, attired in a ballerina length gown of pink sheer and lace over taffeta with matching shoulder-length veil. She carried a nosegay of mixed flowers. Mr. Elmer Power, cousin of the groom, acted as best man. After the ceremony a sumptuous breakfast was served at the home of the bride's parents to friends and relatives. The toast to the bride was proposed by Father Butler and responded to by the groom.

Following the breakfast Mr. and Mrs. Beagan left by motor on a trip to points of interest in the Maritimes. For travelling the bride wore a powder blue suit with white accessories. On the evening of August 28th the young couple were pleasantly surprised by their neighbours who gathered at their home to shower them with many useful gifts and best wishes. Prior to her marriage Mrs. Beagan received many lovely gifts at miscellaneous showers held in her honour in Maynard and in Concord, Mass.

Mr. and Mrs. Beagan are residing in Johnston's River where they are at home to their host of friends.

Mair-King Wedding

Mixed autumn flowers formed the setting for a very pretty wedding which took place in Zion Presbyterian Church on Tuesday, September 16th, at six o'clock when Laura Margaret, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur King, Charlottetown, became the bride of James Bartlett Mair, son of Mrs. Ronald Marsh, Five Islands, N. S. and the late Mr. Bartlett Mair of Georgetown, P. E. I. The double ring ceremony was performed by Rev. G. C. Webster with Mr. Frank Johnson as organist.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a full length gown of white satin and lace made in Elizabethan style. The fitted bodice had a yoke of nylon net embroidered with seed pearls, lace inserts and long lace sleeves, the skirt having paned hips and wide lace panels ending in a full train. Her fingertip veil fell from a Juliet cap of white satin and lace and she carried a bouquet of red roses.

The sisters of the bride, Christine (Mrs. Ralph Burdett) as matron of honour and Betty as bridesmaid wore similar dresses of pink and blue taffeta with matching mitts and headresses. They carried nosegays of mixed flowers. The groom was attended by his brother, Rev. N. H. Mair as groomsmen, while the ushers were Mr. Collin King, brother of the bride, and Mr. Everett K. Howett, Jr.

The mother of the bride wore wine faille crepe with matching hat and black accessories while the groom's mother was dressed in rose crepe with matching hat and grey accessories. Both wore corsages of gladioli.

During the signing of the register, Mr. Ivan Robinson sang "O Perfect Love". Following the ceremony a reception was held in the church hall. The bride's table was centred with a three tiered wedding cake and decorated with bouquets of sweet peas. Rev. G. C. Webster proposed the toast to the bride which was responded to by the groom. After the reception the young couple left on a trip through the Maritimes. For travelling the bride wore a royal blue suit with white feather hat, black accessories and corsage of white gladioli. They will reside in Montreal where Mrs. Mair is on the staff of the Y. W. C. A. and Mr. Mair is a student at St. George William's College.

Prior to her marriage, Mrs. Mair was guest of honour at several showers in Montreal and one at the home of Mrs. O. S. Harper, Charlottetown, when she received many beautiful and useful gifts.

Morrison-MacDonald Wedding

A very pretty wedding was solemnized at St. Andrew's Church, St. Andrew's, P. E. I., on Wednesday morning, August 20th, when Rita Cecilia, daughter of D. J. MacDonald and the late Bertha MacDonald, became the bride of Cyril Allan, son of Mr. and Mrs. Allan Morrison, Savage Harbor. The church was beautifully decorated for the occasion with bouquets of gladioli, mixed flowers and potted plants. The ceremony was performed by the pastor, Reverend Dr. Terence Campbell, who also celebrated the nuptial mass.

The bride entered the church on the arm of her father, who gave her in marriage. She was attended by her sisters, Therese, as maid of honour; Anita as bridesmaid, the Misses Donald and Dorothea Coad, twin nieces of the bride, as flower girls, and little Joey MacDonald, nephew of the bride, as train-bearer.

The groom was attended by his brother John. The guests were ushered to their seats by Dee and Jackie, brothers of the bride. The bride was lovely in a floor-length gown of white embroidered satin fashioned in Elizabethan style with long train, a net yoke encircled with pearls, high neckline and lily point sleeves. She wore a chapel veil of tulle illusion, with tiara crown fashioned with seeded pearls and carried a pure rock crystal rosary and white prayer book decorated with streamers and rose buds.

The maid of honour was gown-couple left on a trip through the Maritimes. For travelling the bride wore a royal blue suit with white feather hat, black accessories and corsage of white gladioli. They will reside in Montreal where Mrs. Mair is on the staff of the Y. W. C. A. and Mr. Mair is a student at St. George William's College.

Prior to her marriage, Mrs. Mair was guest of honour at several showers in Montreal and one at the home of Mrs. O. S. Harper, Charlottetown, when she received many beautiful and useful gifts.

ed in lime green taffeta with matching headress and mitts, and carried a bouquet of white and pink gladioli. The bridesmaid was attired in a floor-length gown of orchid taffeta with matching headress and mitts and carried a bouquet of white and yellow gladiolas, while the flower girls wore matching headresses and carried baskets of cut flowers.

The wedding march was played by Urban MacDonald, brother of the bride, and during the ceremony appropriate hymns were rendered by Messrs. Charles, Daniel, Urban and Jackie MacDonald. Following the ceremony, breakfast was served to the immediate families at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Morrison. The table was centered with a three-tier wedding cake topped with a miniature bride and groom. A toast was proposed to the bride by Mr. John Morrison, responded to by the groom. The groom's gift to the bride was a pearl bracelet.

After the breakfast the happy couple left amid showers of confetti to return the following evening to the bride's home where supper was served to a number of relatives and friends. The remainder of the evening was spent in singing and dancing.

During the marriage and reception, pictures were photographed by the bride's brother-in-law Mr. Robert Pineau. Out-of-town guests were Mrs. Everett Foster, Quincy, Mass.; Mr. and Mrs. Robert Pineau and family, No. Arlington, Mass.; Reginald and Jimmie MacDonald, Dorchester, Mass.; David McDonald, Quincy, Mass., and Mrs. Paul Stahl, Alliston, Mass.

Prior to her marriage the bride was tendered a shower at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Dee MacDonald, at which she received many beautiful and useful gifts. The happy couple will reside in Savage Harbour, where the groom is a prosperous farmer.

CIVIL WAR RAGES — There isn't a "safe place" in war-torn Indo-China, except for large cities like Saigon, Hanoi, Haiphong and Hue along the bulging eastern coast and a few areas where Communist-led Vietminh activity is sporadic. The political fate of Southeast Asia may be decided in the rice paddies of Indo-China where a Chinese-trained Red army is trying to eject the French and push the Iron Curtain 900 miles toward Singapore.

VICTIMS OF OIL

CAPETOWN — (CP) — Thousands of penguins on the west coast of South Africa and the coastal islands have starved to death, their wings clogged by oil left in the water by passing ships. Some of the oil is believed to have come from wrecks that were burst open by heavy seas.

SHARES GIFT

KETTERING, England — (CP) — R. W. Talby, Conservative mayor of this town in Northampton, returned from Canada with a box of "Churchill cigars" presented by the mayor of Tilbury, Ont. Talby, who doesn't smoke, will hand them round at the next meeting of the Labor-controlled town council.

BACKACHE

For quick comforting help for Backache, Rheumatic Pains, Getting Up Nights, strong cloudy urine, irritating passages, Leg Pains, and loss of energy due to Kidney and Bladder troubles, try Cystex. Quick, complete satisfaction or money back. Don't suffer another day without asking your druggist for Cystex.

You can't go ALL-OUT If you feel ALL-IN

These days most people work under pressure, worry more, sleep less. This strain on body and brain makes physical fitness easier to lose—harder to regain. Today's tense living, lowered resistance, overwork, worry—any of these may affect normal kidney action. When kidneys get out of order, excess acids and wastes remain in the system. Then backache, disturbed rest, that "tired-out" heavy-headed feeling often follow. That's the time to take DODD'S Kidney Pills. DODD'S stimulate the kidneys to normal action. Then you feel better—sleep better—work better. Ask for DODD'S Kidney Pills at any drug counter.

Fly EARLY BIRD To MONCTON Only $5.00 One Way and to NEW GLASGOW Only $4.50 One Way Phone MCA Today

KING COLE COFFEE So delicious — so refreshing!

LOANS $50 to $1,000 on your signature only HOUSEHOLD FINANCE Canada's largest and most recommended consumer finance organization 150 Great George St., suite 1, phone 2992 CHARLOTTETOWN, P.E.I.

BUY Firestone TIRES SAVE MONEY with NEW LOW-PRESSURE CHAMPIONS $24.95 (6.70/15) FOR LATE-MODEL CARS

"TOP PERFORMERS" ...on any job! Regardless of what your hauling need may be, Chevrolet trucks are engineered to give you top performance in every way. Let's look at power! Chevrolet gives you four great Valve-in-Head engines to choose from — the 92 HP Thriftmaster, 105 HP Loadmaster, 114 HP Torquemaster and the mighty 120 HP Workmaster. Each is "tops" in its class for rugged, economical power. Let's look at features! Chevrolet trucks offer you every feature you need to carry the load and haul the load safely, dependably and economically. Frames, springs, axles, recirculating ball steering and transmissions are engineered and built to unsurpassed standards of excellence. Above all, let's look at value! Check the comparative values of Chevrolet trucks and you'll see for yourself why Chevrolet gives you more for your money. That's why more truck users buy these "top performers" than any other make!

first in demand in value in sales

CHEVROLET GENERAL MOTORS VALUE

CHEVROLET TRUCKS HORNE MOTORS LTD 203 FITZROY ST. CHARLOTTETOWN P.E.I.