MR. AND MRS. H. N. VESSEY

'O Perfect Love' Is Sung At York United Church

The marria- - of Sharon Lynn Roper, daughter of Mr. and Mrs George Edward Roper of East Royalty, and Howard Nelson Vessey, son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Nelson Vessey of York, took place in York United Church, York, P.E.I. on Saturday, November 21, 1964 at 2.30 p.m.

The altar of the church was decorated with white and yellow 'mums and the guest pews were marked by white wedding bells and satin bows.

The officiating clergyman was the Rev. F. W. Lacey. Soloist, Beryl Vessey of York, accompanied by Arthur Vessey of York, sang "I'll Walk Beside You" as the bride entered the church and "Oh, Perfect Love" during the signing of the register

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a white floor - length sheath of organza over satin, with a scoop neckline and three - quarter length sleeves embroidered at the cuff. A floor - length crain of nylon and organza was held in place by a large organza bow at the back.

Her headdress, a white organza rose and lily of the valley, held a shoulder length veil of layered nylon tulle. She carried a cascade of red roses intertwined with white satin ribbons.

The matron - of - honour, Mrs. Blair Bryenton of Brackley, P.E.I., chose a stree- - length dress of rust peau - de - soie, with three - quarter sleeves and a scoop neckline, and carried a bouquet of white feathered carnations and yellow mums. Her headdress was a wedding ring hat of peau - de - soie and shoulder - length veil of nylon.

The bridesmaids were Florence Vessey of York, sister of the groom, and Joan MacMillan, of East Royalty

Their outfits of jade green peau - de - soie were identical to that of the matron - of - honour and they also carried bouquets of white feathered carnations and yellow mums.

The flower - girl was Janet Roper of East Royalty, sister of the bride She wore a gold peau-de - soie dress and matching hat, and carried a bouquet of white feathered carnations centered by yellow mums.

The best man was Robert Bryenton of Brackley The ushers were Norman Walker of East Royalty, cousin of the bride, and Reg Mosher of Harrington.

The reception was held at the Charlottetown Canadian Legion. The toast, responded to by the groom, was proposed by Mr. Lacey.

The bride's mother wore a three piece navy b-e, double knit suit with a white velvet hat and white gloves, black shoes and purse. Her corsage was of white carnations.

The bridegroom's mother was wearing a three piece double knit suit of cranberry and beige with a red and navy velvet hat and black accessories. She wore a corsage of white feathered carnations.

The bride's going away outfit was a two-piece suit of teal blue boucle, with black maribou hat, and black shoes and purse. Her corsage was of deep pink roses.

The newlyweds will reside at York, P.E.I.

Out of town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Alger Cutcliffe of New Glasgow.

TIGNISH

Mrs. Earland Witers is recovering at her home in St. Felix after being a patient at Western Hospital, Alberton.

Mrs. Lester McAlduff returned to her home in Tignish after being a patient at Western Hospital, Alberton.

The Women's Auxiliary of the Sports Recreation Association held a card party at the home of Mrs. William MacLeod, Tignish, on Friday evening. The prize for the highest score of the evening was won by Mrs. Wilf Boyce. Freeze-out prizes went to Mrs. John Smythe and Mrs. Boyd Bernard. Other prizes were won by Mrs. Gunnar Pedersen and Mrs. Milton Keough.

Harvey Myers, Tignish, is improving in health while a patient at O'Leary Community Hospital.

Fidele S. Arsenault, Tignish, is improving in health at the O'Leary Community Hospital where he recently underwent surgery.

BRISTOL

Mrs. Joe Deagle, Lucy to us all, returned recently from an extended visit to Boston, where she spent some time with members of her family and friends despite the fact she has passed the four score years and that this was her first trip to the big city she travelled alone and enjoyed every minute of it.

John R. O'Brien, is still under doctors care following his return home from the Charlottetown Hospital where he was a patient for some time with infection in his hands.

William MacDonald, retired section man celebrated his 76th birthday last week with members of his family. Mr. MacDonald retired 11 years ago after 35 years on the road when he estimated he walked in the vicinity of 50,000 miles over the rail line he tended.

A report circulated that Bristol school trustees had purchased the old United Church here for a hall are reported to this news as untrue as there seems no urgency here for a hall with two halls in the village a stone's away. The old church, built in 1888, has been idle since the new modern church was built in the village a few years ago. The 76 year old church has been a land mark at the millroad corner for many years and scores of ministers served here. Mrs. Effie McEwen for many years choir leader still resides in the city at Sunset Lodge and recalls her years

Christmas Bread Can Be Baked Ahead Of Time

OF THE unusual, epicurean foods appearing at the holiday season, none is more enjoyed than a fine Christmas bread.

In foreign countries celebrating Christmas, huge fruitfilled loaves (as large as a round dish pan) are baked 2 or 3 weeks in advance, and enjoyed throughout the holidays. If they become sprinkled with water, covered with a pan or aluminum foil, and reheated about 15 min. in a slow oven; or the bread can be sliced, toasted, and served with cream cheese. These methods can be applied to all fruit bread loaves.

Here in the United States we prefer smaller loaves instead of coffee cake, to serve with coffee or tea as a snack. They can be baked ahead, wrapped in Saran, and frozen (allow 45 min. at room temperature for thawing).

Beautifully wrapped, a loaf is a present any gourmet would appreciate. It might be accompanied with a bread board, or a jar of the new freeze-dried instant coffee just now on national sale.

CHRISTMAS FRUIT BREAD

(Makes 2 Loaves)

¾ cup milk
¾ cup warm water (105-115 degrees)
2 pkg. of cakes yeast, active dry or compressed
3½ cups unsifted flour
1½ cups sugar
¾ tsp. salt
¾ cup (1½ sticks) room-soft margarine
4 eggs, slightly beaten
1½ cups chopped citron
1½ cups raisins
1½ cups chopped, candied orange peel
¾ cup candied candied cherries
1½ cups chopped walnut meats
¾ tsp. lemon extract

Scald milk; cool to lukewarm. Measure warm water into large warm bowl. Sprinkle or crumble in yeast; stir until dissolved. Stir in milk and 1½ cups flour; beat until smooth. Cover; let rise about 30 minutes in a warm place, free from draft, until doubled in size.

Add sugar and salt gradually to margarine, mixing well after each addition. Combine yeast mixture, margarine mixture, eggs, fruits, nuts, lemon extract and remaining flour; beat five minutes.

Turn into 2 well-oiled 9x5x3" loaf pans. Cover; let rise one hour in warm place, free from draft. Bake in a moderate oven (350 degrees) about one hour or until done or golden brown, and loaves shrink slightly from sides of pans.

MONDAY DINNER

Braised Smoked Tongue Creole
Baked Halved Sweet Potatoes
Wilted Lettuce with Cucumber
Or Zucchini
Cheese Cake
(Homemade or Purchased)
Or Honeydew Melon Wedges
Coffee or Tea Milk

THE CHEF'S BAKED HALVED SWEET POTATOES OR YAMS

Prepare one medium-sized sweet potato or yam for each person as follows: Wash the sweet potatoes; remove any blemishes; snip off the ends. With a strong heavy knife split the potatoes in halves lengthwise. Place the halves, cut-side down, on a double-holded square of aluminum foil, or in a slightly oiled shallow pan.

Bake for 20-35 minutes in a moderate oven, 375 degrees to 400 degrees or until soft throughout when tested with a kitchen fork. Serve very hot, cut-side up, with a thin pat of butter on each for very good eating.

Cuban Urges Better U.S. Relations

NEW YORK (AP)—Ernesto (Che) Guevara, Cuban minister of industry has called for better relations with the United States as angry Cuban refugees shouted against his very presence in the U.S.

As about 150 anti-Castro Cubans chanted "assassin, assassin" outside a television studio. Guevara said his country is especially interested in closer economic ties.

The demonstrators tried to break through police barricades when Guevara arrived at the studio and again when he left.

A heavy detail of policemen, standing almost shoulder to shoulder, held them back.

Guevara, as he left the studio smiled broadly and waved at the Cuban demonstrators, intensifying their angry shouts.

A wedding ceremony on Saturday, November 21st, united in marriage Mary Elizabeth Johnstone, RN of 481 Parkside Drive, Toronto, Ont. and David Graham Black, Jr., of North Scituate, Rhode Island, and Long River, P.E.I.

The bride is the younger daughter of Lieut. Col. and Mrs. Ernest W. Johnstone of Woodleigh, P.E.I. and the bridegroom is a son of David G. Black of North Scituate, R.I. and the late Mrs. Black.

The solemn vows were spoken before the Rev. W. A. Paterson at Long River United Church at 2.30 in the afternoon. Baskets of white, mauve and bronze chrysanthemums and snapdragon decorated the chancel. The wedding music was in charge of Mrs. Murdock MacLeod, Kensington.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a floor length gown of ivory peau - de - soie, featuring a decorated bodice of re - embroidered French Alencon lace, a scooped neckline, and elbow length sleeves. Her bouffant skirt, also appliqued with matching lace, swept into a graceful chapel train. A veil of tulle illusion was held in place by a crown of seed pearls. The bride's bouquet was composed of orchids and heather.

Her maid of honor was Phyllis Lawley of Toronto, Ont. who wore a street length gown of peacock blue satin and lace, with matching headpiece. She carried a spray of pink chrysanthemums and fern.

Doreen Black was junior bridesmaid wearing a pink organza, bouffant dress and headdress to match. She also carried a spray of pink chrysanthemums and fern.

Heather Williams, Charlottetown and Mary Elizabeth Johnstone, Woodleigh, as flower girls were dressed identically in pale blue organza. Their headdresses combined pink bows and heather and they carried white baskets of pink and white Chrysanthemums and heather.

David Black of Rhode Island was ring bearer.

The bridegroom was attended by Newton Feldman, New York City, and the ushers were Archie Johnstone, Woodleigh and Arthur Johnstone, Summerside.

Mrs.Johnstone received at a Woodleigh, wearing a loganberry red gown of French cut ribbon, and a large brimmed hat of brocaded, a single strand of pearls and a shoulder corsage of white orchids.

Among those attending the wedding was Mrs. Andrew Johnstone, grandmother of the bride, wearing black silk with matching velvet hat and a corsage of yellow roses.

Mrs. Ernest MacEwen, Kensington, presided over the tea service.

The guest book was circulated by Linda Williams.

For a honeymoon trip to the Eastern United States, the bride chose a cranberry red, velvet suit, topped with a coat of black broadtail trimmed with sable, and matching hat. She carried a Florentine petit point bag. The newly weds will reside at North Scituate, R.I.

Out - of - the - province guests were Mr. and Mrs. Charles M., Swift, Jr., Cambridge, Mass.; Rathburn Willare, and David Black, North Scituate, R.I.; Phyllis Lawley, Toronto, Ont.; Dr J. H. Lawley, Glace Bay, N.S.; Mr. and Mrs. E. Thornbyke, Toronto, Ont., S. Newton Feldman, New York City, N.Y.; Doreen David and Bruce Black, North Scituate, R.I.
