

Compliments of Radio CSUR

Bachman Turner Overdrive

The success of Bachman Turner Overdrive's first two albums could have been a fluke of just beginners' luck - but it wasn't! BTO's third album "Not Fragile" has hit the market even more solidly than those before. The rough, sappy style is as good as the album's name and the title cut. It's hard rock in a listenable form with very obvious bass continuance throughout. Turner takes care of most of the vocals with the distinguishable voice that has become the BTO identification.

"Rock is My Life, and This is My Song" has the more conventional sound and is reminiscent but not repetitious of "Blue Collar" of BTOI - excellent musical rifts and lyrics.

"Roll On Down The Highway" and "You Ain't Seen Nothin' Yet" are definite single possibilities. It's real rock and roll with the same commercial value as "Takin' Care of Business". (BTO II).

"I met a dreadful woman, she took my heart away, She said I had it coming to me But I wanted it that way,

She looked at me with those big brown eyes And said, 'You ain't seen nothin' yet.'"

"Free Wheelin" takes a drastic change from the rest of the album. It is a dedication to Duane Allman and it captures a distinct sound which brings to mind the Allman Brothers.

Randy and Blair Bachman do a tremendous rendition on lead and second.

BTO's seems to be taken with the style of other groups and from the easy Allman style, they blast into "Sledgehammer" which could pass as earlier

Grand Funk. It has a slow, thumping beat and wailing lyrics and would probably pass as the poorest cut on the album. However, its soon forgotten for "Blue Moanin'" which must be the very best cut of the album. It's sound makes it the first choice to a chart-shattering 45RPM. It's got what only BTO can give it!!

"Second Hand" continues in the true BTO sound but seems rather downhill after "Blue Moanin". The final cut "Given It All Away" ranks with "Sledgehammer". There are some good instrumentals but the vocals kill the cut with high level screeching.

All in all, the album is definately worth its output and should produce a million seller within weeks. Super album!

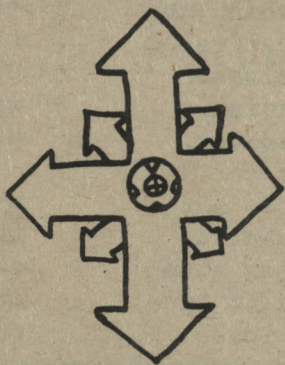

by MARILYN MACPHERSON

College: you gain direction

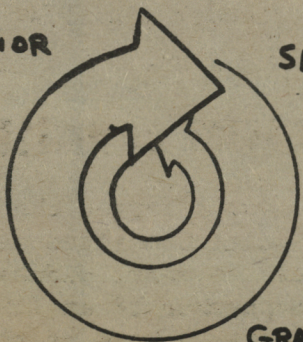

FRESHMEN

SOPHOMORE

JUNIOR

SENIOR

GRADUATE

Exit Mickey

The Executive of the Student Union would like to congratulate J.T. "Mickey" Place on his appointment as Sales Representative for radio station C.H.T.N. Since Jan. 1, 1973 Mickey has been acting as our full-time business manager. His services have been deeply appreciated and most beneficial. He will still be employed on a part-time basis for the purpose of doing our books. We wish Mickey great success in his new position.

Gordon Campbell
President UPEISU

