

Commonwealth Sugar Offers To Be Considered By Gov't

OTTAWA (CP)—The government will consider Commonwealth offers of long-term, fixed price supplies of raw sugar in the world, the trade means of meeting high sugar prices in Canada, Trade Minister Sharp told the Commons. "No shortage of any kind in the world," he said, "but refined sugar was 10 per cent of such supply arrangements from the Commonwealth sugar exporters group and from Rhode Island sugar suppliers." Mr. Sharp said most of the groups the government is interested in "any country which proposes they may wish to lay their hands on the sugar market in reply to a sharp attack by New Democratic Leader Douglas Young on the government of negligence and dereliction of duty in dealing with 'fantasy profiteering' by Canadian sugar refineries. He said that the world sugar price on the London market, which has risen from around three cents a pound a year ago to 12 or 13 cents, because of a profound key and plum pudding supper in the Sea View Hall. A large number attended and a good sum of money was realized. Rev. Alexander and Mrs. McKay of Kensington have as their guest Mrs. McKay's sister, Mrs. Saul of Winnipeg, Ms. Mrs. and Mrs. James Gibson

Allan Pedergast, son of Mr. and Mrs. Austin Pedergast, Kensington, has been able to return to his home after being a patient in the Prince Edward Island Hospital in Charlottetown for the past several weeks, as the result of an accident which occurred at Souris, where Allan

Canadian Firm Looks To U.K. As Market For Prefab Homes

BY ED TRIFARI
CALGARY (CP)—A Canadian firm is moving into a subdivision of well-travelled homes in England. The houses, prefabricated in Calgary by Jager Homes Ltd. and shipped overseas to Brighton, England, are the vanguard of what company President William Jager hopes will become a large, steady transatlantic flow. Mr. Jager, just returned from Britain, said the market there for Canadian-built wood houses is unlimited. "It's no problem selling whatever," he said. The only serious drawback is that lumber can be imported into the United Kingdom from Europe and Russia much more cheaply than from Canada, Mr. Jager said.

Titles Query Gets Reply From Martin

CAPITAL BUREAU OF THE GUARDIAN
OTTAWA—Secretary of State Paul Martin has suggested in the Commons that the government consider changing its policy on awarding titles if Queen's MP Heath Macquarrie voluntarily decides to assume one. A brief exchange between the two occurred during the daily question period when Mr. Macquarrie referred to the dispute dispatched from Newfoundland to the effects of the government's involvement with the grant cross of Prince Henry the Navigator banner existing him to be called Sir Joan. He asked if this included a reversal of policy on the part of the government with respect to titles. "The answer to that question is, of course, that there has been no change of policy unless the honorable member wishes voluntarily to assume one," Mr. Martin replied.
