THE Cornwall cheese factory will turn out about 1000 cheeses, equal to 60,000 lbs. this summer. They are made daily from seven to ten thousand pounds of milk. The quality of the cheese is excellent and will sell at from 10 to 11 cents per pound. The whole output thus represents about $8000 yearly. This institution is the only cheese factory now in operation on the Island and is owned by the farmers of Cornwall. Mr. G. H. Tombs of this city is business manager and agent.

ST. PAUL'S SUNDAY SCHOOL PICNIC.—The children of St. Paul's Sunday School and their teachers and friends were favored with the most delightful weather for their annual picnic which took place yesterday. Leaving the ferry wharf at 10.30, the party proceeded to Westville, where all arrangements for their comfortable reception had been made by Mr. Stewart. After partaking of a hearty lunch, various games were indulged in, swings were erected, and a most enjoyable afternoon was spent, boating and bathing forming a part of the day's entertainment. A second party left the city at 2 p. m., arriving on the ground at 3. The return journey took place at 6 o'clock, the prizes won by the children in the various games being distributed on board the steamer on the way home. A large number of the members of St. Paul's congregation accompanied the children. Great praise is due to those who had the management of the picnic for the very successful way in which it was carried out.

At the Lyceum Hall, four nights only commencing Monday Aug. 3rd Zera Semon will hold forth. A Saginaw Mich newspaper says:—Last evening the world famed Zera Semon, known as the original talker, gave another of his popular entertainments. Zera is an especial favorite in Saginaw, and the matinee he gave yesterday afternoon and also the entertainment last night accorded him crowded houses, who continually applauded him and his excellent company. We doubt very much if any magician in the world can accomplish in such a graceful manner the perfection of ventriloquism and slight-of-hand work as this prince of magicians. In addition to the above the crowd were convulsed with roars of laughter with his Marionette minstrel and novelty company, Tim, Joe and Mary Brown and Mrs. Jones, the talking hand in Zera's new ventriloquial act. In this laughable scene, Prof. Zera exhibits his surprising ventriloquial ability, changing at will the entire tone and volume of his voice, producing some of the most astonishing effects, and introducing a most mirthful dialogue between a family of wooden people.

The Business College Recommended.

We the undersigned have much pleasure in adding our testimony to the efficiency of the course of instruction given at the Charlottetown Business College and writing Academy, of Charlotte: wn, P. E. I., presided over by Principal L. B. Miller.

We strongly recommend this institution to the young men and women, convinced that a thorough, practical education is essentially necessary in almost every walk in life.

In this progressive age a knowledge of business, the science of accounts, penmanship, shorthand and typewriting places the possessor in an independent position.

As these subjects are successfully taught at the Charlottetown Business College and Writing Academy, we therefore give to it our cordial support.

To Combat Liberalism.

FURTHER PARTICULARS OF REMOVED PLANS FOR THE HIGH CHURCH ORGANIZATION.

CHICAGO, July 27.—A rumor which cannot be verified indicates that some extreme high church Episcopalians in the west intend soon to organize a "Catholic Defence League," somewhat analogous to the English Church Union. Thus far they have fought liberalism simply through their party organization. But they now begin to fear that a party organization is not coherent enough to be of much service.

The election of Dr. Brooks, they say, proves this; for many strong high churchmen were found among his supporters, while many others did not feel called upon to oppose him openly, and a few who profess to oppose liberalism, secretly worked for his election.

Out of this feeling has grown the idea of forming an Anglo-Catholic society whose members shall solemnly pledge themselves to work together in spreading Catholic principles in the church and driving out broad churchism. Such a society, they argue, would stand for the definite faith of the church, and all who really believe in the church would rally round it. Its officers would map out work for the members in accordance with the policy of the society. And of course all the members would on all occasions cast a "Catholic" vote in the church conventions. The scheme has been broached by a few of the younger ritualists in the west; but it is said that they will at once lay it before the leaders of the party.

This city will be the headquarters of the movement, which it is hoped, will go into history as the "Chicago" movement, with results as important to the church in this country as were the results of the "Oxford movement" to the English church. It is only fair to say, however, that the leading Episcopal clergymen in this city know nothing of the scheme. "It is only the idle talk of one of those Fond du Lac or Springfield fellows," laughingly said a prominent rector, "and I guess it will end in talk. The big ritualists are too level headed to go into any such folly. For they know that a hide bound society of that kind would kill them in a year."

NEWS BY TELEGRAPH.

The Interior Department Examination.

OTTAWA, July 24.—Before the Public Accounts Committee to-day it was proved that John Mason, a carpenter of the Interior Department, had devoted a portion of his time to doing private work for Minister Dewdney, and had been given leave of absence in which to work for the minister. William Pert, a messenger of the Interior Department, said he acted as house servant for Mr. Dewdney, waiting on his table, etc., and he always travelled about with him, being paid as messenger and as private servant also. He refused to say how much Minister Dewdney paid him. Much other testimony as to illegal payments to clerks was elicited.

He names as his successor his son Bramwell Booth. The general in an interview expressed his regret that he could not visit America. He is his eldest daughter, Mrs. Booth O'Brien, to that country in the latter part of August.

Makes the Weak Strong

The marked benefit which people in run down or weakened state of health derive from Hood's Sarsaparilla, conclusively proves the claim that this medicine "makes the weak strong." It does not act like a stimulant, imparting fictitious strength from which there must follow a reaction of greater weakness than before, but in the most natural way Hood's Sarsaparilla overcomes that tired feeling, creates an appetite, purifies the blood, and, in short, gives great bodily, nerve, mental and digestive strength.

Fagged Out

"Last spring I was completely fagged out. My strength left me and I felt sick and miserable all the time, so that I could hardly attend to my business. I took one bottle of Hood's Sarsaparilla, and it cured me. There is nothing like it." E. C. BEOOLE, Editor Enterprise, Belleville, Mich.

"I derived very much benefit from Hood's Sarsaparilla, which I took for general debility. It built me right up, and gave me an excellent appetite." ED. FENKISS, Mt. Savage, Md. N. B. If you decide to take Hood's Sarsaparilla, do not be induced to take anything else instead. Insist upon having
