

How to Break up Baby's Cold.

When I find Baby has taken a cold, not so feverish as to require packing, which one reads to be because of the increased danger resulting from any exposure afterward, but a smart cold in its first stages, with red eyes and running nose and stuffed head, I take the little one in my lap several times through the day and again at bedtime, and, removing boots and stockings, rub the little feet—soles and tops and ankles—with sweet oil, or goose oil, and then heat them long and well before an open fire till the skin will absorb no oil.

Then I bathe and rub the little bared back from neck to hips, especially along the spine, with oil also, shielding baby's back from cold drafts and letting the warm rays of fire light and heat it just right, chafing and thoroughly heating till the skin will absorb no more oil.

Wrapped in flannel and tucked in her warm nest for the night, baby often wakes in the morning with but little traces of her cold.

If there is hoarseness in connection with other symptoms of an oncoming cold, for a simple remedy I like to give Baby boiled molasses with a bit of butter or sweet oil or hens oil in it, or a few teaspoonfuls of onion syrup made of sliced onions and brown sugar, which helps soothe the throat and clear the bowels, carrying, perhaps, the aggravating source of the cold.

ADVICE TO MOTHERS.—Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup should always be used when children are cutting teeth. It relieves the little sufferer at once; it produces natural quiet sleep by relieving the child from pain; and the little cherub awakes as "bright as a button." It is very pleasant to taste. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, regulates the bowels, and is the best known remedy for diarrhea, whether arising from teething or other causes. Twenty-five cents a bottle. Be sure and ask for Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup, and take no other kind.

It is something to be thankful for small mercies. A woman at one of the London Police Courts, whose husband was charged with beating her with the fire-iron, begged that he might be let off, as he had never beaten her except with his fists before.

John Russell Young says he would like to have all professional incomes cut down to $20,000 a year. It is quite evident that John is envious of some of us newspaper magnates.

A man who will stop a $1 paper, thinking it will ruin the editor, must have a moral range of vision equal to the area of the end of a pork barrel.

TAMARAC COAL

Alderman R. E. Elbeck, Kingston, Ont., says: "Tamarac Elixir" is the best medicine on earth for Coughs and Colds. In my own case it produced rapid and gratifying results. I caught a severe cold which it seemed impossible to break up, but continually became more thoroughly seated. Finally a hacking cough set in which troubled me day and night, causing soreness of the lungs. Hearing your "Tamarac" highly recommended, I procured a bottle. The first dose eased the cough, and one bottle completely cured me. It is a splendid preparation, pleasant to the taste, and should be kept in every house.
