MR. JAMES HENNESSY, laborer, met with a serious and almost fatal accident in the Railway yard, at 9 o'clock this morning. He, in company with others, was unloading flat-cars of heavy lumber. About the time mentioned, a large log was lying on the ground about two feet from the car they were then unloading. Another log lay on the car close to the edge. As Mr. Hennessy was in the act of passing between the car and the log on the ground, the one on the car, by some mishap, fell, struck Mr. Hennessy and knocked him partly over the log on the ground, and rested upon both his legs. When the log was removed, it was found that one of his legs was broken at the thigh, and the other was seriously crushed. Drs. McLeod and Creamer were summoned; and, after setting the leg, had the unfortunate man removed to his residence. The log which fell on Mr. Hennessy's legs was over twenty feet long, and nearly three feet in circumference. Had it fallen on any other part of his body save the legs, the injuries would, doubtless, have been fatal.

THE case of David Small vs. John Larter, for assault, was, to-day, tried before Rowen R. Fitzgerald, Esq., J. P. for this Province. It appears that Larter was one of a large crowd who assembled on Shaw's Wharf, West River, when the steamer Southport arrived there on her second trip, on Saturday last. Mr. Small requested those on the wharf to stand back and give the excursionists room to land safely. Larter refused; sharp words followed, and, latterly, Larter held his fist close to Mr. Small's nose, shook it pugistically and threatened to throw him over the wharf. Mr. Small, in Court, complained of Larter's conduct being generally disorderly on the picnic grounds. The Magistrate ordered that he (Larter) should pay a fine of ten dollars, or be imprisoned in the common jail for twenty days. The number of young men who attended, and destroy the pleasure of picnicing parties, by their disorderly conduct, will make a note of this case and know that, no matter how far from the city the offence is committed, it is punishable on return of the party thereto.

JOHN McAREE, a boy of fourteen years of age, was tried to-day before the Stipendiary Magistrate for stealing fifty dollars from his aunt—Miss Bridget O'Brine. Miss O'Brine stated that she arrived from Boston on Tuesday, the 15th, and lodged with her sister Mrs. McAre, mother of the prisoner, on Tuesday night. She missed the amount stolen on Wednesday morning, and having a slight suspicion of the prisoner, asked him if he had taken it. He acknowledged taking fifteen dollars when first asked, and afterwards thirty dollars. She lost at the same time a small knife which she carried in the same pocket as the money. This knife was found on the boy's person, and Miss O'Brine identified it as her's. While in custody the prisoner told the City Marshal that he had only taken fifty dollars; that he lost a $20 bill, and that he gave a $10 bill and a $4 bill to his little sister. He took the Marshal to a field near the Kirk and recovered $1.75 in silver which he hid in the grass. The prisoner also told a boy named Samuel Collins that he stole the money from his aunt. He was sentenced to one month's imprisonment with hard labor.

To the Electors of Ward Five.

GENTLEMEN,—Having been again solicited by a number of the tax-payers of Ward Five to offer myself as a candidate for Councilman at the approaching Civic Election, I take pleasure in responding to their request. Should I be honored with your liberal support, I shall place my humble abilities at the service of the City, and of Ward Five in particular, of which I am an old resident. I shall also deem it my duty to urge retrenchment in all cases, and endeavor to lessen the burdens which now press so heavily upon us. Trusting to be favored with your confidence, I remain yours, respectfully,

J. W. MITCHELL.
