THE FARADY.—This well-known cable steamer has given the telegraphers a mid-ocean picking up the French cable which she had been picking up and repairing.

MESSES. McKINNON & FRASER, carriage builders, have removed from Spring Park to their old factory on Upper Prince street, where they intend to carry on their business in future.

LORNE HOTEL.—Application for room is much larger than at any time during the summer, and this favorite summer Hotel is likely to be well filled for remainder of the season. Several American gentlemen are having good plover and duck shooting round Tracadie.

MARRIAGE OF MISS TILLEY AND MR. CHIPMAN.—The marriage of the daughter of Sir S. L. Tilley with Mr. John D. Chipman, a social event which has been on the tapis for some time—took place on Thursday morning. The happy couple have the best wishes of a host of friends in every section of the Provinces.

It seems that Germany is to have an International Exhibition in 1885, and that the project has been approved by the Emperor and Crown Prince. The former can scarcely hope to see that event, and six years is so far ahead that even the latter is likely to see many great changes in Germany before the Exhibition is held.

THE 106th anniversary of the settlement of Pictou is to be celebrated on the 15th by a Grand Scottish Gathering, under the auspices of the Pictou Battery Garrison Artillery. A splendid programme for the usual games has been prepared. A grand exhibition game of LaCrosse will be participated in by the New Glasgow and Pictou Clubs. In the evening a grand military ball will be given in Masonic Hall.

CHURCH OF CHRIST, Upper Great George street.—Morning meeting at 10:30 a. m. to "break bread." Evening services will be conducted by R. B. Neal, of Louisville, Ky. Subject—"The Gospel." A portion of our community have been deeply interested in the series of meetings in progress at this church. Two ladies made the good confession and were "buried in baptism." The time of evening service is 6:30 o'clock. The community is most cordially invited by the church to attend these meetings.—Com.

TWO sailors, stripped in P. R. style, attracted a large crowd in the vicinity of the Bank of P. E. L., yesterday morning. Both were beastly intoxicated. They were captured by the police and lodged in the station to await trial. Their names are John Broader and James O'Donnell. They were, this morning, each fined $1 and costs. George Peters also appeared at the Magistrate's Court for being drunk and incapable. He was fined the same as those above mentioned.

THE races at Truro Driving Park came off on Thursday. The afternoon was very fine, and a goodly number attended. The race was in 2.59 class. Five horses started, and after five well-contested heats, the race was given out from the Judge's stand as follows: "Barbara Patchen," first; "Lookout," (Mr. A. Holmes), second; "George Barker," third; "Billy," fourth; "Kitty Thorne," fifth. The time made by "Lookout" was 2m. 40 sec.

MR. R. B. NEAL will preach during the morning services at the Christian Church at Lot 48. Subject—"The perfect law of liberty." Mr. Neal has charge of a christian congregation in Louisville, the metropolis of Ky. His visit to our Island is in the interest of his physical health, suffering from injuries received by a fall from a buggy some time since. The churches are embracing this opportunity of hearing him on matters pertaining to a common faith and a godly life. As his strength will admit he is responding to the appeals. The public is invited to hear him.—Com.

HANLAN-COURTNEY.—THE LATTER CONFESSES HIS INFERIORITY.—A New York Herald Auburn special regarding the proposed match between Courtney and Hanlan, reports the former as saying that "no definite arrangements had been made for a contest, but if one came off, it will take place between the 1st and 10th of October, and will probably be pulled this side of the Canadian line. A manufacturing firm of Rochester promises to present a purse of $5,000, open to Hanlan and myself and all others. I don't row in a race opened to others than Hanlan and myself and Trickett. If he could come I don't care where the race comes off. The only reason I row is because I am forced into the match. I can't beat either Hanlan or Riley if they can row two miles in 12 minutes 25 seconds. This is faster than I ever rowed in my life. If Hanlan can row four miles in 27.02, he can leave me clean out of sight. I can't row as well now as when I was twenty-two. It is not improbable that next week the time of the match will be arranged and articles of agreement prepared, and, perhaps, signed."

A peculiar case of trance has caused great excitement in Hereford, England. It is that of a young girl who had been laid out for dead, and for whose interment all preparations had been made, when it was discovered that she was in a trance. For three weeks before that she had partaken of no food, and since her recovery from the trance she has had her tongue protruding, the eyeballs rigidly fixed, while the frame at times has been hysterically agitated.

MISCELLANEOUS.

A Cincinnati policeman has known officers on the force to swear to a downright lie in order to help a comrade convict a prisoner. Plenty of other people have known the same thing, and outside of Cincinnati, too.

The State debts "repudiated" by the Southern States are reported to be $272,000,000. It is estimated that $80,000,000 of these losses are sustained by foreign capitalists; 15,000,000 by Northern creditors and the remaining $42,000,000 by Southerners.

A Socialist named Sanoff is said to have roasted himself slowly over a petroleum lamp, left in his prison cell at Odessa, until he had burned enough of his flesh to insure his death. His action was only discovered by the smoke issuing from his cell. Neither at the time nor afterward did he utter a cry, and he died as he intended.

There has been a disturbance in Lyons, caused by the playing of the "Marseillaise," which was hissed at a concert. Since the "Marseillaise," a reactionist, this is the reason why it should be played on every possible occasion. "This warlike song will conduct us to victory over the hordes of Loyola." Fortunately, the bulk of the nation is composed of moderate men, determined to resist violence no matter from which side it comes.

The General of the Jesuits has been summoned to Rome to receive the order to conform to the Pope's Encyclical letter concerning the teaching of philosophy. The Pope's medical advisers have been complaining that his constant confinement in the Vatican is injuring his health, and the Cardinals have been consulted as to the policy of a brief change. He is said to be anxious to throw aside the notion on imprisonment so carefully nurtured by Pius IX.

A remarkable freak of lightning is recorded in a French newspaper. A farm laborer, running for shelter, was suddenly thrown to the ground, the fork he carried on his shoulder being wracked from his grasp and carried through the air to a distance of fifty or sixty yards. The prongs were bent and twisted with well-nigh mathematical accuracy, into the shape of corkscrews, the steel being burnt, and formed, on its exterior surface, into small lamina, which emitted a slightly sulphurous odor. The laborer escaped without injury.

Says the Monetary Times: "In the midst of the prevailing gloom and anxiety, there is at least one subject for congratulation: Money is plentiful. No embarrassment is felt by any commercial firm from inability to get good bills discounted. No manufacturing enterprise is crippled, much less standing still, because of the stoppage of the necessary supplies, or even their diminution. No legitimate enterprise is being nipped in the bud, because the necessary accommodation to carry it on cannot be obtained. And this is the case, notwithstanding that four banks have, within the last six months, ceased to supply their customers with facilities. It is a somewhat singular state of things. The aggregate discounts of these banks amounted to millions, and their stoppage might have been supposed to bring embarrassment to numbers of firms wherever their operations were carried on. But nothing of the kind has taken place. It is true, we have seen the suspension of a number of firms following on the closing of the doors of the Consolidated Bank, but these firms were in an irretrievably bad state in any case. They were mere excrescences, in fact, upon the commercial body, and their removal would have come about in some way, even if there had been no bank failure to precede them. We repeat that the absence of commercial disasters from scarcity of money is one of the most remarkable features of the present time."

The Insolvent Act of 1875 and Amending Acts.

In the matter of James Duncan, John Ferguson Robertson, and Robert Robinson Hodgson, Insolvents.

PURSUANT to a resolution passed at a meeting of the creditors of the above insolvents, duly convened and held at my office in Charlottetown, on Saturday, the sixteenth day of August, inst., notice is hereby given that up to noon of MONDAY, the 8th day of September next, I will receive tenders for the purchase, en bloc, of the estate of the above named insolvents and the several respective estates of each of them.

The tender must be made in writing, and must state, 1st, the amount offered for the joint or partnership estate of the above insolvents; 2d, the amount offered for the several estates of each of the above insolvents. The person whose tender is accepted shall be bound, in addition to the amount of his tender, to pay all costs, charges, and expenses which the Assignee has incurred, or may incur, in respect of the above estate.

The Assignee and Inspectors of the estate are not bound to accept the highest or any tender.

The terms of purchase are payment in cash upon the execution by the Assignee of an assignment of the above estates to the purchaser, or as he shall direct. The estate of the above insolvents, and of each of them, consists of shipping, real estate, book and other debts and personal property of various descriptions. The tenderer can ascertain full particulars of the same, by reference to the schedule of assets filed by the insolvents with me in this matter. Certain portions of said estates have been sold since the insolvency, particulars of such parts as have been sold can be obtained from the Assignee. The net proceeds of such sales and the securities representing the same shall form part of the estate and shall be assigned to the purchaser.

The estate of the insolvents, and of each of them, is sold subject to all existing incumbrances. Such incumbrances shall be ascertained by the tenderer by searching at the proper offices.
