Toronto: Industrials irregular; mining stocks well down.

New York: Stocks higher; selective strength.

Montreal: industrials mixed; moderately active trading.

Toronto Stocks

TORONTO CP - Mines encountered considerable pressure and a long list of losses ranging to $1.50 was recorded on the stock market Monday? Western oils put up a mixed showing, ending slightly lower after an early advance.

International Nickel resisted the retreat in mines, adding $1.25. Algom and Falconbridge tacked on ½. Noranda lost $1.50, Campbell Chibougamau $1.12, Consolidated Smelters 87 cents and Hudson Bay 75 cents. Eastern Mining lost 30.

Thirty-cent gains went to Sullivan and Iron Bay. Coast Copper was up 25 cents and Lake Nordic 20.

National Pete advanced 35 cents at $6.10 in western oils. Pacific Pete firmed ⅜. Heaviest loss was 60 cents by Canadian Williston, at $3.20.

Total sales on Toronto Stock Exchange April 30: 8,910,000 shares.

N. Y. Stocks

NEW YORK (AP) — The stock market advanced Monday with a curious mixture of strong gains and rather numerous losses in the list.

Plus signs ran to around 6 points in significant cases while losses amounted to 1 to 2 points at the most.

Railroads as a class were lower, most motors were lower, airlines lost a little and there were a great many losses in small fractions.

The Associated Press average of 60 stocks advanced 90 cents at $191.10. That is only 40 cents under the record high established three weeks ago by the market in its strong climb that started in mid - February. During the last three weeks the market has gone through a moderate reaction.

General Motors was the day's most active issue off ⅜ at 43⅞ on 40,900 shares.

Canadian issues were mostly lower on the New York Exchange. International Nickel was up ⅞. Canadian Pacific and Distillers Seagram both fell ⅛, Granby Mining slipped ¼. Hiram Walker lost ⅛ and Hudson Bay Mining dropped ⅞.

Canadian stocks on the American exchange were mostly unchanged. Shawinigan added ¾ and Scurry-Rainbow oil moved up 1-16.

IN MEMORIAM

WALTER PERLE CAIRNS

"In the midst of life we are in death." How forcibly this truth was exemplified when the news spread of the finding of Perle Cairns body after several days of tireless efforts by a large number of searchers. The deceased had gone to visit a neighbor on Sunday evening and apparently, becoming lost in the storm which followed, wandered into Graham's Creek.

The deceased was born in Greenfield, the son of the late William Cairns and Ida Keoughan. He received his early education in Greenfield school and after attending Prince of Wales College taught school in various schools in Southern Kings, mostly near his recent home in Gaspereaux. A few years ago, he bought a farm in Gaspereaux on which he erected a new dwelling house into which he had moved a short time before his death and planned to spend his remaining years there at light farming. But God had other plans, and on March 4th called him to his eternal reward.

Of a kind and generous disposition, always willing to help and console others in difficulty and sorrow frequently visiting his neighbours, he enjoyed a large circle of friends as was shown by the large number of men far and near who turned out to search for his body, by the many who visited his former home in Greenfield to pay their respects, and also by the very large number who attended his funeral. The very large number of Mass Cards, letters and cards of sympathy, enrollments, etc., attest to the esteem in which he was held.

The greatest consolation and the loveliest remembrance of him by his bereaved relatives, will always be his exemplary life so devotedly spent in conformity with God's holy will. He had received Holy Communion on the morning previous to his death. So truly of him may we say:

O Death where is thy sting?
O Grave where is thy victory?

The late Mr. Cairns leaves to mourn his departure from this life and to always cherish his memory, his mother, seven brothers and two sisters namely: Johnny, Louis, Alfred and William in Green field; Peter in Chicago; Frank in Bridgeport, Conn.; Dr. Joseph in Halifax; (Myrtle) Mrs. Sidney Kappel, Hamden, N. J.; (Mary) Mrs. Edward Goggin, Long Island, N.Y.; and his mother in Greenfield.

His funeral, which was very largely attended, was held from his home in Greenfield on Wednesday, March 14th to St. Mary's Church, Montague where Requiem High Mass was celebrated by Father McCardle. Present in the sanctuary were Father Kiggins of Georgetown, Father Mullally of Sturgeon, and Father O'Hanley of Cardigan. The services at the grave were conducted by Father McCardle. After which all that remained mortal of a loving brother and son were placed in the grave to await a glorious resurrection.

The pallbearers were Messrs. Stewart McKenna, Joseph Kearney, Joseph Power, James Ennis, Don MacDonald and Leo O'Halloran.

May his soul rest in Peace.
