

LOCAL AND OTHER ITEMS.

MASTERS A SPECIALTY.—Beef Bros. NANTING TROUT.—Fishery Warden Stanley today seized a trout weighing 4 lbs. 2 oz., 19 inches long, which was netted in the Morell River yesterday.

WE DIRECT the attention of our readers to the sale of the Rocklin House on Wednesday next, as advertised in another column. As to location, there is no better site in the city.

TEMPERANCE.—Orient Division meets this evening at 8.30 o'clock in Masonic Temple. The interesting discussion commenced on last night of meeting will be continued this evening.

THE RACES OFF.—Owing to two of the events in the Dominion Day Races not having filled the Directors of the Driving Park have declared the meeting "off". The races will therefore not take place.

A. O. H.—The picnic of the Ancient Order of Hibernians, at St. Dunstan's College yesterday, was a most pleasant affair. There was a good attendance, and the various sports and games were well contested. The baseball match was easily won by the St. Dunstan's team.

BREACH OF PROMISE.—There is excitement in Montreal. Abbie or Mary McGee, a Salvation Army lassie, is suing her George Grey for breach of promise of marriage. Grey is a young widower, employed in the Intercolonial shops. Mary claims one thousand dollars as the claim for her highest affections.

NEW POST OFFICES.—The following new post offices will be opened on the 1st July: Greenvale, Lot 46; Joseph McDonald, postmaster, served from Sorris semi-weekly. Charwood, Lot 45; William A. Leslie, postmaster, served from Sorris tri-weekly. Ebbfleet, Lot 2; M. D. Lacey, postmaster, served from Kildare Station tri-weekly.

MEETING AT WINSLOE.—A meeting of the farmers of Winsloe Road and vicinity was held at Winsloe last evening. Mr. John Holman presiding. Professor Robertson made a most interesting address brimful of good sound advice regarding the dairy-farming industry. Short addresses were made by Hon. D. Laird and others. The professor also inspected the dairy station at Winsloe, which is doing good work.

THE GOTTSBERG system of managing the liquor traffic is likely to be adopted by Massachusetts. The Norwegian bill, as it is called, has passed both branches of the legislature. This system eliminates to some extent the element of profit from the dealer and gives it to the state or town. The system was adopted two years ago in South Carolina, where it has been found somewhat difficult to enforce.

A NARROW ESCAPE.—Yesterday morning at an early hour an old man named McDonald, belonging to P. E. Island, had a narrow escape from scroons, if not fatal, injury about one and a half miles west of Harvey station. The night express from Boston was running along at about twenty miles an hour, when McDonald fell off the end of the rear car. Conductor Cassidy, being near at hand, and being told, immediately stopped the train. With one of the trainmen the conductor walked back and was amazed to meet McDonald walking toward the train, not the least worse of his fall beyond a cut on the nose.—St. John Sun.

PERSONAL.

Mr. E. W. Ebbetts, of the Plant Line, Boston, is at the Hotel Davies. Erasmus Wiman, the one-time millionaire, philanthropist and capitalist, has been sentenced to Sing Sing for five years and six months for forgery in the second degree.

Dudley Foster, better known as Prince Tynnyrie, Nora Scott's smallest man, died at Bridgetown a day or two ago. He was 16 years of age, 30 inches high and weighed 20 pounds.

We understand that Mr. James Jeffrey Roche leaves tomorrow morning on return to Boston. On Tuesday he was presented with a complimentary address by the students of St. Dunstan's College to which he replied in appropriate terms.

We congratulate Mr. George I. Foster, B. A., of King's College, Windsor, on his acquisition of the two letters that are the goal of a student's ambition, and Mr. A. E. Andrew on winning the Hebrew prize. We publish the honors list in another column. We extend congratulations also to Mr. W. J. Cox, of Cornwallis, first in arts in the matriculation examination, and to Mr. Harold Macdonald, of Georgetown, who passed second on his list. Mr. Cox has been studying here during the past winter under the Rev. T. H. Hunt, whose candidates have so far always distinguished themselves and their tutor. Mr. Macdonald is a candidate from the Collegiate School.

COURT OF CHANCERY.

THURSDAY, June 21.—Eliza M. Moore and another vs. John Ball and another.—This case was tried before the Chief Justice, instead of the Master of the Rolls and the Vice-Chancellor, who were, through interest, prevented from acting. The report of Master Longworth was read, and the matter was allowed to stand over till 25th July, to which date the court adjourned.

The Master of the Rolls presiding. Blue vs. McFadyen.—This is an administration suit, and the accounts are being taken before the Master of the Rolls in order to save expenses. The balance of the estate goes to infants after payment of debts. McLean, Q. C., and H. James Palmer for the infants.

Patrick Connolly vs. Walter P. Byrne.—Bill filed to set aside a deed made by the plaintiff, an aged man, to the defendant, an infant, without any consideration. The Master of the Rolls decreed that the defendant be declared a trustee of the lands comprised in the deed for the use of the plaintiff and that some officer of the court be appointed to execute a conveyance to the plaintiff. A. Peters for complainant; A. B. Warburton, guardian ad litem for defendant.

Mayhew vs. Stone.—Mr. Stewart, Q. C., applied to have this case set down for hearing. The Court fixed Wednesday, August 31st, next, as the earliest day at which it could be taken up.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR.

KING'S COUNTY PRIZE LIST.

Sir,—Last week the Managing Committee of the King's County Exhibition Company and the Hon. Mr. Kickham, of Sorris, the government Commissioner for controlling the Legislative grant of one thousand dollars in the prize list, met in Georgetown for the purpose of preparing a prize list for this year's county industrial agricultural exhibition. Hon. Mr. Kickham's antecedents are such as to cause surprise that he should be selected to perform so important and difficult a task, requiring an intimate knowledge of agriculture, horticulture, domestic animals and poultry, besides an acquaintance with farm implements, various sorts of handy work, and manufactures of a more pretentious description. Perhaps in this case the Government erred! But the severely faulted. As Mr. Kickham had the gall to present himself last winter as a candidate to represent so purely an agricultural community as the Cardigan district, they must be forgiven for supposing he has so great a love for farmers and their interests as to be willing to spend and be spent in their behalf, and that the duty of revising and improving former exhibition prize lists would be to him a work of love, his labors resulting in a prize list which would aim at pointing out to the several industries interested the best paths to take to attain success. But what his antecedents are, the reasons for his appointment he was certainly a dismal failure. His ignorance of the business was only equalled by his selfish haste. Such an undertaking as the preparation of the County Prize List in an intelligent manner by one set of men, cannot be got through with in haste; many hours, and even days, should be spent before anything like justice can be done to the public. But the hon. gentleman's object in meeting with the committee appears to have been a desire for the notoriety of having his name on the prize list. He arrived by the eleven o'clock train, and announced to the committee that he must have dinner and get back to Sorris by the return train.

To accomplish this purpose, he, by his familiarity with parliamentary usage, managed to shut out discussion, and demanded the adoption of class after class from the ancient pages of former years' prize lists, unimpaired alike of the rufous absurdities of some of these premiums or the wishes of others members of the committee. Hon. James Clow is a very different man. In his patience, zeal and liberality in everything connected with the county shows cannot be passed without remark.

But to return to Mr. Kickham and his antediluvian prize list, he spent an hour in its perusal, got his dinner and was in time for the train. REPORTER.

THE MARKET.—The attendance at today's market was fair and the supply about the average. Prices were slightly changed. Butter sold at from 16 to 18c; eggs, 6 to 8c; chickens, 50c; per pair, fowl, 55c; per pair, ducks, 55 to 60c; each. Outside hay sold at from 55 to 60c; oats at 41 to 42c; potatoes at 25c; mackerel, fresh, 6 to 8c; salt mackerel, 5 to 6c; lobsters, 2 to 6c. The first strawberries of the season were on sale in the market today. There were only a few gallons on sale, which were purchased by the hostess of the Davies House. The price paid was about 50c a quart.

PHILHARMONIC HALL.—The concert in the Philharmonic Hall, on Thursday evening next, to be given by some of Mr. Earle's Music School, we predict, will be a great success. Fine classical piano music, vocal solos, and operatic choruses, by the pupils. In addition to which Raymond Archibald, Esq., B. A., will play violin solos. Mr. Rice of New Glasgow, Mr. J. Rogers, of Montreal; Mr. Heber Burrell, of St. John, and Mr. F. de C. Davies will sing. Miss Florence Findlay, our highly talented elocutionist, has very kindly consented to recite. Miss Florence Earle will sing. Programme on Monday. Look out for it.

Do you have headache, dizziness, drowsiness, loss of appetite and other symptoms of biliousness? Hood's Sarsaparilla will cure you.

The J. & J. Comb

is made specially to our order by the best manufacturers in England. Being made from best rubber, they are PRACTICALLY UNBREAKABLE. They will be found extremely pleasant to use, each tooth being perfectly rounded and smooth and will pass freely through the hair without pulling it or injuring the scalp. Each comb bears our name, which is a guarantee of quality. We would like to show them to you; you don't need to buy. Price 25c. each. We have other combs from 5c. to 50c.

OFTEN SAID

of the popular man or preacher: "The more they see him the better they like him." The same applies here. The more our goods are seen the better they are liked. One satisfied customer sends along another, and so we keep up the procession. Fall in line and buy FURNITURE.
