POET'S CORNER

I woke up this morning
the Earth lay cold and still
When suddenly a tiny bird
Perched on my window sill.
He sang a song so lovely
So care free and gay
That suddenly all my cares
Began to slip away.
He sang of far off places
Of laughter and of fun
It seemed his lovely trilling
Brought up the morning sun
I stirred beneath the covers
Crept slowly out of bed
Gently lowed the window
And crushed his f-in' head.

It sure has been raining Abt lately.

Yeah, I just saw An old man leading A bunch of animals onto A boat.

You mean like Noah!

well, actually it was just Don Gillis taking the Engineers deep sea fishing.
