The teachers of School Unit 1, held their third Study Group of the year in Parkdale School on November 9.

Mr. Frank Costello, presided and 25 teachers responded to roll call. The meeting opened with the showing of two interesting films. The question of Christmas concerts was discussed and Parkdale, East Royalty and West Royalty set their dates.

Viewing Prospects For Settlers Here

Three officers of the Canadian Citizenship and Immigration Department visited the Province yesterday to familiarize themselves with opportunities for settling prospective newcomers to the Province. Messrs. J. A. Fleming of London, Ontario; Frank Sharp, Lethbridge, Alberta; and F. H. Sedman, Langley Prarie, B. C., called on a number of Charlottetown business establishments and also on farmers in the vicinity of Montague and Murray River.

The officers have been touring Canada obtaining information which will be useful to them when they take up duties in Europe and England, visiting and selecting immigrants. Mr. Sharp and Mr. Fleming will be stationed in Karsrhue, Germany and Mr. Sedman in Liverpool, England.

From this Province the two go to Nova Scotia and thence to Newfoundland, and then to Ontario before leaving for overseas. They have already toured the rest of the provinces.

All of the men served in World War II, and Mr. Sedman was a member of a western artillery unit which amalgamated with the 8th Prince Edward Island battery after arrival in England. He renewed acquaintenceship with many Charlottetown veterans, while here including Weston Smith, secretary of the Canadian Legion, Mr. Frank Andrews, Mr. Louis Ranaghan and a number of other old comrades.

Audience Enjoys Melodrama At Spring Park Hall

The old melodrama of the Gay Nineties era "Dirty Work at the Crossroads" was a deep down laugh for young and old of an audience that filled Spring Park Community Hall last evening. Hilarious scenes brought spontaneous peals of laughter from time to time, forcing the talented cast to hold their lines until they could again be heard.

Sponsored by the Spring Park Community Club and directed by Mr. H. Barry Bugden, "Dirty Work" is scheduled to run until Friday night, and it is understood that the 'standing room only' sign has already been ordered. Although some of the scenes last evening were obviously intended at one time to be very serious, the cast inserted subtle touches of humour making them more laugh-provoking than ever. Tops among these was the climax with the villain tying the heroes to the railroad tracks, only to find that his own foot was caught as the train came closer and closer.

Highlighting the performance were songs of the Nineties, sung by members of the cast, with Mr. O. K. Presby lending his talents as accompanist. Mr. Presby also provided a musical background of mood music throughout the evening, adding greatly to the audience's enjoyment of this outstanding entertainment.

The heroine was played most cleverly by Edith Pryce, who displayed a definite flair for comedy as she portrayed the young country girl who brought shame to her widowed mother. Tom Hunter, a newcomer to the amateur stage, took the part of the villain, and displayed an excellent sense of timing as he brought Munroe and his many nefarious schemes to life.

Assisting the villain in his plots was Ida, taken by Kay Archer, who is also a first-timer on the dramatic stage. She brought her college vamp character to life and no doubt tears to the eyes of many in the audience as she hysterically sobbed out the story of her wrongdoings before she prepared to end it all by jumping into the river.

The handsome hero, Adam Oakhart, was portrayed by Weldon Dignan, who gave his character a shy country air, which the Widow Lovelace, (Margueritae Goff) claimed he got from the livery stable.

In his comedy role of Mookie, H. Barry Bugden brought touches of real old fashioned comedy, especially in his wooing scenes with the French maid, as played by Ann Burhoe. In smaller parts, but carrying their roles with confidence and authority, were Christine Larabee as Mrs. Upson Asterbilt, Vi Norrie as Leonie, and little Carol Ann Graham as Little Nell.

Adding greatly to the success of the production were the many beautiful costumes which were planned and supervised by Eliza Hansen, Laura Morrison, Sadie Shaw, and the bright and colorful stage setting which was the work of Gordon Rodd, Fulton Robertson and Robert Constable. Properties were by Veronica Kelly. Lighting and Sound, Willard Burke. Mr. S. H. Burhoe was play chairman. Assisting in production was Honner Burke.

C.A.C. President Addresses Rotarians

"I can imagine nothing that would so help lower prices throughout Canada than a nation-wide realization by every producer that each time he raises the cost of what he sells to benefit his producing right hand, he is increasing the cost-of-living to his consuming left hand," said Madame Renee Voutelet, National President of the Canadian Association of Consumers in an address before the Rotary Club at their weekly luncheon held at the Charlottetown Hotel yeterday.

The C A. C. is recognized by Governments, trade and industry and agriculture as the only national voice for consumers and as on consultations between these interests when consumer viewpoints and interests are in question, the speaker stated.

Madame Voutelet, who had been introduced by Chairman George P. Thompson, was heartily thanked by the co-chairman, Austin Scales. The sing-song was conducted by Walter Hyndman with O. K. Presby at the piano.

Visiting Rotarians were; Alan Holman, Summerside; Dr. T. B. Acker, Halifax; V. A. Ainsworth, St. John's, Nfld., and Walton Sharpe, Truro, N.S. Guests were; Mrs. J. A. Lawson, President Consumers Asociation, Mrs. Kenneth M. Martin, Secretary and Mrs. R. R. Hurst, Treasurer.

Rainbow Club Plan Activities

The ladies of the Rainbow Club of Sunset Lodge stepped up the tempo of their activities yesterday afternoon as they began finalizing plans for their part in the official opening and a day of open house on the occasion of recognizing the new annex of Sunset Lodge, as an accomplished fact.

Mrs Ruby Houle, C.D.A., President of the Club, occupied the chair at the meeting, which took place at the Lodge and was attended by a substantial representation of ladies from the various city churches extending support to the project. The official opening is scheduled to take place on November 27 to be followed by "Open House" on the 28th, when visitors will be given an opportunity to view the building throughout and become familiar with it's operations.

Following yesterday's meeting, tea was served to the club members by Major Stevens.

Says Canadian Women Control Buying Habits Of The Nation

"Economics wears skirts not trousers," said Madame H. E. Vautelet of Montreal, national president of the Canadian Association of Consumers, at an open meeting of the Charlottetown branch in the City Council Chambers last evening as she appealed to the capacity audience of women to support C.A.C. in its work in producing informed buyers, as well as speaking nationally for them.

Mrs. J. A. Lawson, Provincial president, was in the chair and introduced the speaker who is making a tour of the Maritimes.

The daughter of one of Canada's ablest lawyers, Aime Geoffrion, Q.C., Mme Vautelet reminded the women that buying is Canada's greatest single business and that they pilot this powerful boat. "How we buy, what we buy and the services of every kind, from milk deliveries to cellophane packaging, which we require to make us buy, decides more than any other factor in the land what will happen to production and employment in Canada," she explained.

The speaker asked what it will pay Canada's manpower most to produce — cokes or milk, movie theatres or dwellings? The answer lies within the consumer who makes a choice each time she buys, placing enormous power in the hands of the collective buyer, she said.

Mme. Vautelet said C.A.C., only seven years old, speaks for the consumer, informs the consumer, and watches over laws and merchanding practises that affect the interests of the managers of Canada's housekeeping dollars.

The national president warned that "economics not properly understood, can be Communism's Number one weapon—one that can shake our faith in our own way of life far more than defeats of war. So we must understand our own affairs, if we want to keep them our own affairs."

The job of C.A.C. is to produce more and more informed consumers, through branches of the National organization, she said. She described some of the accomplishments of C.A.C., such as obtaining legislation to make obligatory the printing of net weight on all soaps and detergents ,and responsibility for new regulations now governing sale of flour and bread. C.A.C., Mme. Vautelet described as having saved thousands of dollars to consumers by helping to halt a proposed amendment of the British North America Act that would have enabled provincial governments to impose additional hidden sales tax.

Today, C.A.C. is seeking to standardize clothing sizes, standardize measuring cups and spoons and give other services, which magnified 100 times makes C.A.C. more than just a service for women.

She explained costs have increased greatly each year by increasing the amount of non-vital things. For example, "in 100 years, we have raised our consumption of sugar from 19 pounds per person to 225 pounds per person — surely our modern dispositions should be far sweeter than they are! We also spend more on jewelry than on education today."

Mrs. Ernest Bell expressed appreciation to Mme. Vautelet the appreciation and thanks of her responsive audience.

Spring Park Votes 81-68 For Incorporation

The village of Spring Park voted 81 to 68 in favor of village incorporation at a plebiscite held in that area yesterday which added another progressive community to the growing list of places seeking and accepting Village Incorporation.

Tignish heads the list in size with a population of 808 people, men, women and children. Projects already implemented or in process include a new fire engine, repairs to the present engine, a new extension ladder and several roof ladders, construction of new water tanks and the development of natural water supplies for fire protection, replacement of hose and equipment, street lighting, sidewalks and traffic signs.

The Commissioners dealing with this advanced program at Tignish are Joseph T. Arsenault, C. F. Morrissey and John Myrick, Jr.

O'Leary with a population of 574 now has a fine fire hall, fire truck and hose and answers calls to fires in the neighbouring districts in addition to protecting their own village area. Street lights and permanent sidewalks are rapidly being installed, to the vast improvement of local conditions.

The Commissioners at O'Leary are, A. W. Rayner, Ralph Adams and Edwin Turner.

Crapaud with a population of 171 now has street lights and fire fighting equipment and are presently dealing with other projects designed to improve the area.

Victoria with a population of 157 has made a move to secure a fire truck and equipment and plans have been made for a proper building in which to house the same. Street lighting plans are also being looked over with a view to early installation.

Parkdale tops all incorporated villages in point of numbers, with a population of 1136. The fire truck and hose suitably housed in the fire hall in this village has on numerous occasions contributed to the suppression of dangerous fires on a "good neighbour" basis. The experienced fire-fighters manning this equipment have rendered valiant service to other villages. The commissioners are presently exploring the possibilities of street lighting and surveying the area with a view to securing sewer and water accommodation for the 123 families now depending on pumps. City water is already installed in 137 homes.

The Parkdale Commissioners are, Ernest Lord, Harold Hennessey, Edwin Cook, Henry Douglas, Glen Ramsay and Maurice McAleer.

Other areas just getting under way after being incorporated are:

St. Peters, with Commissioners Stewart MacEwen, K. E. MacCallum and T. A. Ledwell.

Morell: Commissioners J. B. Jay, Aldine MacKenzie and Louis G. MacKenzie.

North Rustico: Approved by plebiscite—Commissioners not yet named.

A petition is in the Sheriff's hands calling for a plebiscite at Mount Stewart before the end of November following an enthusiastic meeting advocating such a move.

A meeting has been called for residents in the Murray Harbour area on November 20 to consider incorporation and the necessary steps leading to such action.

Commissioners from the various villages will be called together early in the new year to exchange views and discuss problems with the idea of being mutually helpful in the work which they have undertaken on behalf of their villages and the people they represent.

LONDON (CP)— Special note was taken of good drivers on Ealing district roads during the road safety week. Several hundred drivers whose names were noted down received pens with the inscription "Ealing's thanks for road safety help."

Outstanding Shorthorn Bulls Brought To P.E.I.

Two outstanding dual-purpose Shorthorn bulls have recently been brought into this Province from Central Canada by the Federal Department of Agriculture, Livestock Branch.

The older of these bulls, Sanford Sally's Lad, born September 11, 1950, was Reserve Grand Champion at the Canadian National Exhibition in Toronto in 1952. His dam, Sanford Sally 4th, 2, 3, 4 and 5-year-old records of 9,790, 9,883, 8,657, and 9,212 lbs. of milk, with 363, 408, 319 and 349 lbs of butter fat respectively.

The younger bull, Watermead Stetson Gledish, born September 1952, is a son of Sanford Sally's Lad. His dam, Bonnie Rosemary 44th produced 6,292 lbs of milk with 4.6 butter fat test in 9 months as a 2-year-old. Her record was not completed when this information was obtained. His grand-dam, Bonnie Rosemary 30th, had a 4-year-old record of 12,488 lbs. of 4.39 milk and mature record of 11,138 lbs of 5.4 milk.

"In the extended pedigree of both of these bulls," states a Department official, "we see consistently high production, and Shorthorn breeders who have seen these bulls will testify that they both show good beef characteristics. These production records of 7,000 to 12,000 lbs. of milk may not seem larfge to people who are used to seeing dairy cow records, but when it is considered that the R.O.P. requirements for a mature Shorthorn cow in the 365-day division is 6,500 lbs of milk and 247 lbs of butter fat, it will be realized that these bulls are real dual-purpose bred animals, which should do a great deal to help the breeders of dual-purpose Shorthorns in this Province."
