25TH Anniversary Is Observed In New Haven

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd MacKinnon, New Haven, were pleasantly surprised on June 27th upon returning from supper at the Rendezvous given in their honor by their family, the occasion being their 25th wedding anniversary to find their near relatives had gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Coles, Belmont St., to extend best wishes and present them with gifts.

The table was spread with a lace tablecloth centered with a two tiered cake, decorated with silver trimmings and topped with a silver cup flanked with long white candles in silver candle holders and silver tea service.

Miss Charlene Simmonds, little granddaughter of the bride and groom presented Mrs. MacKinnon with a corsage of yellow carnations.

Mr. James Coles acted as master of ceremonies and called upon Mrs. Roddie Cummings to read an address testifying to the esteem in which Mr. and Mrs. MacKinnon are held.

A gift of a chest of silver was presented on behalf of the family by their daughter Freda. A silver tea service was presented on behalf of the relatives by Misses Janice and Marion MacKinnon.

Individual gifts were also received, also a humorous book was presented commemorating the lives of the bride and groom from childhood.

Lloyd on behalf of Bessie and himself thanked all for their gifts. Miss Marlene Coles was in charge of the guest book. Tea was poured by Mrs. Frank Mitchell.

WATER FOR CHICAGO

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Senate public works committee Monday approved a controversial bill to permit Chicago to take more water from Lake Michigan. The vote sending the measure which has already been passed by the House of Representatives to the Senate was reported as 8 to 6, with one absentee. The bill has been hotly opposed by Canada and six Great Lakes states.

Kensington Pres. Church Scene Of Pretty Wedding

A quiet but pretty wedding was solemnized at the Kensington Presbyterian Church on Saturday, August 8th, 1959, when Mary Janet, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lorne Crozier, Kelvin Grove, and William Fenwick Cotton, only son of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Cotton, Clinton, were united in the Holy Bonds of Matrimony by the Rev. E. H. Bean, B.A., B.Th., B.D.

The bride wore a white length gown of white nylon brocade net over taffeta, with long sleeves ending in hilly points over the hands, and portrait neckline. Her shoulder length veil was held by a coronet with sequin trim and she carried a bouquet of Red Sweetheart roses with satin streamers and rosebuds.

The bridesmaid, Miss Sandra Buntain wore a gown of yellow lace and nylon net over taffeta in ballerina length. Her headpiece was a yellow coronet and she carried a bouquet of white 'mums.

Mr. Lorne Crozier, brother of the bride was best man.

Mrs. Crozier chose for her daughter's wedding a dress of aqua flowered chiffon over taffeta with white accessories, and wore a corsage of pink carnations. The groom's mother wore a two piece dress in Royal blue with beige accessories, and her corsage was also of pink carnations.

The reception for 45 guests was held at the home of the bride's parents, and bouquets of summer flowers adorned the rooms. The bride's table was centered with a three tier wedding cake encircled with a wreath of bridal flowers, and topped with a miniature bride and groom. Bouquets of pink and white snapdragon flanked by pink tapers in silver holders completed the table decorations.

Mrs. John Burrows, aunt of the bride placed the guests and Mrs. Reginald Barwise, and of the groom presided over the afternoon tea service. Those assisting in serving were Misses Laura Bell, Libby Shuman, Lois Staven, Eleanor and Marjorie MacArthur, Alberta Buntain and Carolyn Spelman. Mrs. Hazen McWilliams was in charge of the guest book.

Leaving for a honeymoon trip through the Maritimes, the bride was attired in a pink nylon dress and navy duster, white accessories, and wore a corsage of pink carnations.

On their return they will reside at Clinton where the groom is associated with his father in farming. Prior to her marriage the bride was employed at Kensington Post Office.

CHURCHILL W.M.S.

On Wednesday evening, August 12th, 1959, the Churchill Presbyterian W.M.S. held their monthly meeting in Churchill, Church.

The meeting opened with the call to worship, followed with prayer by Mrs. Killen. Psalm selection 58 was then sung.

A two minutes silence was held in memory of a departed member, Mrs. C.A. Frizzell, and following this a verse of "Nearer My God to Thee" was sung.

The scripture was read by Mrs. Hugh Macdonald and Mrs. Ronald Oudmore read the Exodus on the theme and led in prayer. Hymn No. 419 was then sung. Bible study for the evening taken from the 16th chapter of St. Mark and the 1st chapter of St. Luke.

The minutes of the previous meeting were read and approved. Twelve members answered roll call with a Bible verse containing the word "faith". An offering of $3.35 was received and was dedicated by the president.

Five dollars was donated to missions in memory of a departed member. A card of thanks from Mr. and Mrs. Charles Frizzell was then read. It was decided to change the time of meeting to 8:30 p.m. for the fall months. Mrs. Waldron MacKinnon was appointed to purchase eighteen chairs for the choir. Mrs. Alex MacPhee then read a portion from the study book.

The next meeting is to be held at the home of Mrs. Robert MacKinnon, when roll call will be answered with a Bible verse containing the word "meekness".

The Handrahan-Perry Marriage Is Solemnized

A very pretty wedding was solemnized in St. Simon and St. Jude Church, Tignish, on July 8, 1959, when Reverend Floyd McGaugh united in marriage Mary Lena, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John J. Perry, Tignish, and Chester Handrahan, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph J. Handrahan Ascension.

The nuptial mass was sung by Father McGaugh at nine o'clock. During mass appropriate hymns were sung by the Tignish Girls Choir of which the bride was a member. The organist was Mrs. J.K. Fraser.

Given in marriage by her father, the youthful bride wore a wedding gown of nylon net and nylon lace over satin. The fitted bodice of lace was embroidered with tridescant cup sequins and simulated pearl. The neckline was square, the sleeve close fitted and long coming to points over the hands. The floor length billowy skirt had an all-around net tucking. Her veil of embroidered nylon tulle, with a scalloped edge, was fingerlength and fell from a tiara of ruffled nylon tulle which was trimmed with sequins and pearls. She carried a cascade bouquet of red roses and Baby Breath with long streamers of white satin ribbon.

The bridesmaid was her sister Miss Irma Perry and she wore a ballerina length gown of pale blue nylon net with lace inserts in the bouffant skirt which had an underlay of taffeta. The fitted bodice had a cow collar, dipping to a fashionable V in the back. Her headpiece was a blue feathered bandeau, and she carried a bouquet of pink roses with pink satin streamers.

The groom was supported by his brother, Mr. Leonard Handrahan.

Mrs. Perry chose for her daughter's wedding, a dress of rayon crepe with guipure lace trim in Larkspur blue, with white accessories and wore a corsage of white carnations.

Mrs. Handrahan, mother of the groom, wore a navy Ticitania crepe dress with an all over floral design, navy accessories and a corsage of white carnations.

Following the ceremony, a breakfast luncheon was served the bridal party with about one hundred guests at the home of the bride's parents. The bride's table laid with a linen tablecloth was centered with a three tier wedding cake, beautifully decorated and topped with a miniature bride and groom. The cake was flanked with low crystal vases, which held pink and white flowers to correspond with the pink and white streamers and white wedding bells, used as decorations in the dining room.

The toast to the bride was proffered by Reverend Floyd McGaugh and responded to by the groom.

Later in the day the bride and groom left for a honeymoon trip through New Brunswick. For travelling the bride wore a suit of silver grey ribalin with white accessories and a corsage of red roses.

Upon their return home on Monday evening, July thirteenth, a reception was held and a supper served to about seventy five guests at the home of the grooms parents.

Prior to her marriage, the bride was a guest of honor at the home of Mrs. Bradford LeClair, Ascension, when she was tendered a miscellaneous shower. About one hundred friends of the popular young bride were present, and after the gifts were opened, and refreshments served, a social hour of music and singing was enjoyed. Mr. and Mrs. Handrahan are residing in Tignish.

Finley-McInnis Marriage Solemnized At Summerside

St. Mary's Anglican Church, Summerside, was the scene of a pretty wedding on Wednesday, August 5, at 2 p.m. when Elizabeth Ann MacInnis, R.N., daughter of Mrs. Frank MacInnis, became the bride of Lloyd Eric Finley, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Finley of Morden, N.S.

Rev. W.E. Ingraham performed the double ring ceremony. The church was beautifully decorated for the occasion with baskets of white and yellow Shasta daisies and her altar was adorned with yellow and white snapdragon. Mr. Everett Penwarden, the organist, played appropriate hymns.

The bride, given in marriage by her brother, Mr. Edward MacInnis, was lovely in her wedding gown of white nylon organza over taffeta, featuring a fitted bodice with square neckline in front and back, short sleeves and bouffant skirt. The elbow length veil of nylon net with lace border was held in place by a wreath of flowers and she carried a cascade of white feathered carnations and ivy leaves.

Miss Margaret Jean MacInnis, her sister's bridesmaid, was attired in white nylon with small blue floral design, over taffeta, with cumberbund of pale blue taffeta, crossing in front and forming hemlength detached panels over a full skirt. Her headpiece was a large matching picture hat with open crown and matching blue taffeta bow, and she carried a nosegay of blue tinted 'mums.

Mr. William Ring was the best man.

Mrs. MacInnis chose for her daughter's wedding a navy sheath dress with white accessories and a corsage of red roses.

A reception for thirty guests was held at Mulberry Lodge, where the bride's table with its attractive arrangement of sweet peas, was centered with a three-tier wedding cake, topped with love birds and wedding bells.

Mr. Frank Cameron, uncle of the bride, proposed the toast to the bride, to which the groom responded. Mrs. Gordon MacInnis was in charge of the guest book.

For their honeymoon trip through Nova Scotia, the bride travelled in a coral suit with white accessories and a corsage of white carnations.

Mr. and Mrs. MacInnis will reside in Summerside where the groom is with the R.C.A.F. and the bride is on the Nursing Staff of Prince County Hospital.
