COLONIAL CHURCH SOCIETY.

THE Parent Committee of the Colonial Church Society having directed their Agent, Mr. Cavie Richardson, to reside in Prince Edward Island; for that purpose he quitted Nova Scotia, in July last. Since his arrival here, a Corresponding Committee has been formed, and under its direction and control the affairs of the Society will henceforth be continued.

The Corresponding Committee forbear entering into any lengthened statement of the plans and objects of the Society, as "papers" or reports will generally accompany the circulation of this Address, and can always be had by applying to the Agent.

The Colonial Church Society employs Clergymen, Catechists, School Masters and School Mistresses. It circulates Religious Books and Tracts, establishes Libraries and encourages the formation of Sunday and Day Schools, and all these objects will be carried out by the Corresponding Committee so far as it may be in their power.

The Colonial Church Society, although strictly and essentially a Church of England Society, is formed upon the most liberal basis; and seeks without distinction the religious welfare of all, especially of those who most need its aid.

The operations of the Society ought greatly to be increased in the Island, in order that its moral and Spiritual destitution may be supplied—to effect this desirable object the greatly enlarged contributions of the friends of vital piety, and scriptural and sound Education are earnestly requested.

CAVIE RICHARDSON,

Sec'y to the Corresponding Committee.
