Fish And Game Association Urges Change In Season

To accommodate the later beginning of the season on black ducks, the regular season for shooting all migratory game birds should be put back to a later date, it was urged at a meeting of the Souris Fish and Game Association held recently at the United Church hall there. There were 28 members present at this first meeting of the fall season.

A great deal of the time during the meeting was taken up with the discussion on the opening of the hunting season. Out of the 28 members present there was not one in favour of the present regulations concerning the black duck season being closed for a period of 15 days beyond the opening of the season for other ducks. This branch has gone on record favoring deferring the opening of the 1967 season to October 10 — December 10 for all migratory birds.

Approximately 500 ducks were banded at Black Pond Sanctuary, of these about one-half were about one-half were teal, approximately 100 blacks and the rest ringnecks.

ACTUAL COUNT One of the members stated that he and four other members

D. G. Simpson To Visit Here

Vice-chairman of the Canadian Cross Roads Committee, Donald G. Simpson will speak in Charlottetown on Thursday, Oct. 20 at 8 o'clock at St. Dunstan's University.

Mr. Simpson first became involved with Africa in 1959 when a group of his high school students got interested in raising money to bring an African student to this country. They raised $2700 to allow the young man from Ghana to do post-graduate studies at Toronto.

While involved in this project, he came in touch with Rev. Dr. James H. Robinson, the founder and now Director of Operation Crossroads Africa and was in one of the first group of 10 Canadians to go to Africa in 1960. Upon his return Mr. Simpson was given the post of Executive of the association had made an actual count of 500 and some odd number of Black Ducks in the Fortune area alone.

It was moved by C. Roy White that the fee for resident angling licence which is stated in the Fish and Game Protection Act Regulations of $2.00 for residents be abolished and that the regular fee of $1.00 resident be charged for the angling season of next year. It was seconded by David Chisholm.

On the discussion of opening Black Pond Bird Sanctuary, all members were opposed to it for the present. Some of the members have requested that a Trap Shooting competition be held in the near future. This matter has been left to the executive to make plans and announce a date for this shoot.

Secretary for the Canadian Crossroads Committee and held this position until his appointment as Vice-Chairman earlier this year.

FORM FOUNDATION He has joined with a group of other interested persons in forming the African Student Foundation, a private organization whose main interest is in bringing Africans out to study in Canada.

Over 2,000 young Canadians and Americans have gone to Africa since 1958. The first Canadian Crossroad was Rev. Peter Paris, a Negro from New Glasgow, Nova Scotia. Although no Islanders have become Crossroaders as yet, two persons now residing on the island have participated in the project; they are, Wilson Ross, Superintendent of Schools, and Rev. Donald Powell, pastor of the Hunter River charge. Thirty Canadians took part in the 1966 program, and were assigned to 20 different African countries.

It costs about $1800 for each Crossroad and each pays $425 and the balance is raised by the Canadian Crossroads Committee. There is an urgent need for financial assistance and the Canadian Committee must raise $10,000 by the end of December to meet this year's expenses.

Crossroads Africa is a project of the National Association of AOTS Men's Clubs of the United Church across Canada, so this meeting is of special significance to these clubs in Charlottetown. It is hoped that this meeting encourages a student from the Island to go to Africa next year as a part of the project. Students from Prince of Wales, Saint Dunstan's, and all other interested persons are invited to attend.

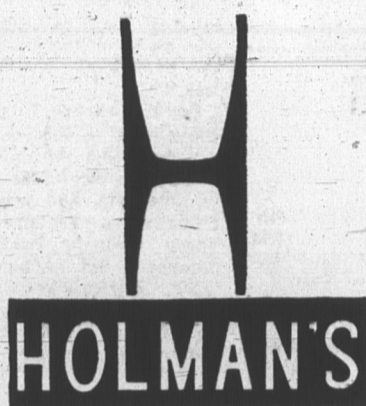

Traffic Detour Is Necessary

Traffic at the Euston - Upper Queen Street intersection has to detour somewhat to avoid a rather large hole in the center of the intersection where workmen are busy digging trenches in preparation for the laying of a telephone cable for the Island Telephone Company Limited.

The telephone poles on Euston Street between Upper Queen and Spring Park Road will be taken out and in their places underground will run over 600 feet of 10-inch conduct pipe containing 1,800 pair cable lines. The contractor for the job is Square K Construction.
