

GOOD HEALTH FOR WOMEN

Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Food Restores Weak, Sickly Women to Robust Health.

Any irregularities in the monthly uterine action is sufficient cause for women to be alarmed about their health. Whether painful, suppressed or profuse menstruation, the cause can be traced to some derangement of the nerves.

A few boxes of Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Food will completely build up the exhausted nerves and restore the regular monthly action which removes from the body the clogged matter that would otherwise cause pain and serious disease.

It is as a restorative for pale, weak women that Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Food has been singularly successful. It counteracts the debilitating diseases peculiar to women by feeding the nerves and creating new nerve fluid, the vital force of the human body.

Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Food has restored scores of hundreds of weak, sickly women to robust health. See a box at all dealers, or Edmondson, Bates & Co., Toronto.

For The Children

A Grand Financial Bubble.

When Tommy Todd awoke to find the morning coming in, He rose before the sun, he was so anxious to begin!

For Master Tommy's father, since Tommy begged he would, Had promised him a nickel, each day, for being good!

The days within a week!—they went a-reeling through his pate!

The days within a month he marked with speed upon his slate!

The days within a year! The days in twenty years! Just there He stood upon his whirling head, and waved his heels in air.

And oh, from Monday morning till the shades of Monday night He really tired the family by being too polite.

He asked about the price of things, and frowned a moneyed frown: He took a lordly interest in all the trade in town;

He chose a fancy golf set, the dearest in the store: A camera and a box of tools, and twenty treasures more.

He sauntered by the candy-shop like any duke, that boy! And slapped his trousers' pockets hard, and glowed with very joy!

Yet when the first week had an end— however could it be?— Of days there had been seven, but of nickels only three!

Cur Tommy smiled a lofty smile to show he didn't care: There was a swagger in his gait, a bluster in his air:

He even tried a reckless tune; but when bedtime drew nigh, His mother thought she heard him give a sort of smallish sigh!

And when she said, "good-night, my son!" he felt she understood It's hard to earn a nickel, each day by, being good!

—Catherine Young Glen, in St. Nicholas.

Elements of a Successful Life.

No man can have too much education and knowledge. Senator Stanford said a few weeks before his death that, while in Europe, he met a general in the American army who said to him: 'Senator, are you not making a mistake in putting so much money into your new university at Palo Alto, there are so many universities now?' Senator Stanford replied: 'Did you have too much education, General? Do you know of any one who has too much education? We sometimes hear in these days, of over-education. There may be such a thing as misdirected education, or a 'misfit' education, or an attempt to crowd too much learning into a given time, but there cannot be too thorough training of those powers which may be used in a life of useful service.

The Hon. John W. Foster said, on his recent visit to Indiana university, that to obtain success in life is to do always, the thing which lies at hand to be done, and to do it in the very best way possible. Mr. Foster gave it as his own view that what ever success he has attained is due to a habit of industry.

He uses his time to a purpose. As an example, an incident may be cited which occurred while Mr. Foster was counsel for the Chinese Government, at the close of the late war between China and Japan. On account of floods, Mr. Foster was detained for three weeks in Shanghai. Instead of using all his time in recreation and pleasure, he used the opportunity to inform, himself, through the newspapers and otherwise, on every phase of the war. Thus, when he came to treat with the Japanese Government, he was thoroughly familiar with all the details of the situation, and, through his knowledge and skill, succeeded in cutting off a hundred thousand dollars of the indemnity asked of the Chinese by the Japanese Government. Mr. Foster's management of this affair so impressed the great statesmen, Li Hung Chang that he said, among the men he had known, 'Gordon was the bravest man, Grant was the greatest man, and John W. Foster was the wisest.' This reputation for wisdom, Mr. Foster thought, he gained from the simple habit of industry.

Too much emphasis cannot be placed on the culture of the intellect, but the culture of the intellect alone is not sufficient. 'In one important respect,' said Charles Kendall Adams, 'character differs from every other element; it is the only element of success which is strictly within individual control.' I am fond of quoting that fine saying of George Eliot, 'Character is the result of reiterated choice between good and evil.'—Success.

Mr. John N. Babcock's Experience With Dodd's Kidney Pills

SHARLOT LAKE, Ont., May 29—No resident of this place is better known to the thousands of tourists and sportsmen who visit us annually than, is Mr. John N. Babcock.

Mr. Babcock has had many thrilling experiences, but the narrowest escape he ever had, he tells of in these words:—

"After twenty years of pain, caused by Gravel and other Kidney Complaints, I am pleased to be able to state that I have been completely cured by Dodd's Kidney Pills. During these years I have spent hundreds of dollars for doctors and remedies, but only Dodd's Kidney Pills helped me."
