

PICK A PURSE—or a pair—is what the new trend in accessorizing suggests to Santa. Now that the fashionable woman frequently carries two handbags, he'll do well to double her delight with one small handbag, one "shopping bag" type.

Here, left to right, brushed leather pouch teams with brushed pigskin envelope, two grained leather totes pair up, and waxy leather satchel goes tandem with smaller grained leather bag.

Handbags can provide her with merrier yule

To make her holiday happy, hang a handbag on her Christmas tree. And, for a new idea in giving, why not present her with a brace of bags?

prefer to carry two purses: an elegant smaller leather bag, and a larger leather handbag — perhaps a "feed-bag" and a shopping tote type — for papers, books, shopping parcels and other bulkier essentials. The gift duo can be matched, coordinated or completely different in style, leather and color.

For dressy afternoon wear, there are pretty pouches, envelopes or swaggy bags trimmed with brushed gold, distinctively styled handles or a second leather texture or color. More informal satchels

Slippers for home comfort

At Christmas, thoughts turn homeward. It's a time for merriment and festivity — and a time, too for the joys of home and family, the pleasures of relaxing at the familiar "hearthside."

To help everyone in the family enjoy the comforts of home even more are gifts of smart and cozy slippers.

Mom's hours at home are busy ones, but slipper gifts put her in the leisure class, for at least part of her active days. New mules, sandals, booties and slippers combine foot ease with elegance.

Sandals for Her
There are a myriad different styles in the sandal and slip-on shoulder- strappers and pouches in medium to large sizes can serve her smartly through busy hours of working, shopping, visiting.

She'll cherish "most any style in the current handbag collection, crafted from handsome, durable leather textures — patent, grained and smooth leathers, suede, brushed and waxy leathers, embossed and satfin leathers.

Gala occasions will be doubly delightful with the gift of a glamorous late-day or evening bag. Choices include lustre, smooth, suede or embossed leathers. For fun, some have long shoulder straps.

department, many foldable for traveling and storage convenience. Lounge-about booties in smooth or suede leather will appeal to her comfort and her fashion sense. Or give her a Yule mule — perhaps of silver reptile-embossed leather, bound in gold, or a high-fronted mule in pastel sued with fur trim.

Dad, the man-on-the-go, will be happy to relax in slippers that set a leisurely pace — be they boots, moccasins or opera style. If he's got cold feet (literally) he'll favor a shearing-lined leather slipper. For a more formal look are slippers with smooth leather linings. A new style which may please him is the open-backed loafer-mule with moose front. Or, if he's a frequent traveler, packable slippers in glove or suede leather make ideal gifts. Boots for Lounging

The teen-age miss in the family will slide into her dashing boot-slippers at every opportunity — on the phone, during her homework, at bedtime, overnight at a friend's. This season teen slipper styles make much use of chains, braid and the out-sized industrial zipper as ornamentation. Teen males, too, get a boot out of the bedroom-boot. Slippers may not be in the same class with vehicle-track toys, walking dolls and bikes, but kids usually consider them tops in the apparel gift category. They like the breezy styles and colors, while parents appreciate the way lively boots encourage "barefoot boys" — and girls — to keep feet warm and covered. Leather slippers for the family are available in an especially wide range of textures 'this season. Smooth, brushed, suede, patent and embossed leathers are among the many choices ready for gifting.
