The armed forces were brought in as preventive measure in Nassau's current labor dispute to preserve law and order. Three plane-loads of troops were flown in to the resort isle where some 4,000 strikers have been out since last Sunday. (AP Wirephoto)

EDUCATIONAL HORIZONS
Education For Living Is Vocational School Motto

The Provincial Vocational School located in Charlottetown, was established in the year 1945 as a joint Federal-Provincial project for the training and rehabilitation of war veterans. By 1948 the training of veterans had been completed and civilian classes of various kinds were formed. The school now provides training for those whose desires and aptitudes are not in the field of academic education. In 1949 facilities were found to be inadequate and a new wing was added to the school to house the Home Economics, Commercial, Bricklaying, and Automotive Mechanics Departments. Recent additions of the latest models of machines in the various shops have made this one of the best equipped schools of its kind in Canada.

ENTRANCE REQUIREMENTS
Any person sixteen years of age or older is eligible to enroll in the School. While the desire to learn is the most important requirement, Grade X is considered the normal standard for entrance to the day trade courses. However, under certain circumstances those having only Grade VIII standing will be considered for admission to certain trade classes.

COURSES OFFERED
1. DAY COURSES:
Automotive Mechanics, Bricklaying and Plastering, Carpentry, Drafting, Home Economics, Plumbing and Sheet Metal, Practical Electricity, Welding. With the exception of Welding these are all nine-month courses.
2. NIGHT COURSES:
All the courses mentioned above together with — Cooking, Crocheting, Knitting, Smocking, Leatherwork, Sewing, Weaving, Shorthand, Typing, Accounting and Bookkeeping. Night classes are held two evenings each week for a period of seven months.
3. SHORT COURSES:
During the winter months the Vocational School offers four Youth Training short courses: Agriculture, Egg Grading, Farm Mechanics, and Homemaking. Any young man or young woman sixteen years of age or older is eligible for admission to these courses. The duration of each course varies, some last for three weeks only while others are six weeks length. Those who must live away from home while receiving instruction and who satisfactorily complete a youth training course will receive as-istance to help pay their board.

4. ACADEMIC COURSES:
All students in day trades classes such as carpentry and plumbing are required to take instruction in Mathematics, Science, General Knowledge, and Blue Print Reading. In order to derive maximum benefit from trade courses, students should have a working knowledge of fractions, decimals and percentages.
ENROLLMENT
The enrollment for the school year 1956-57 was as follows: Day

Twelve Days Of Christmas At St. Vincent's Orphanage

Sunday afternoon, January 12 marked the closing of a round of festive rejoicing for the children of St. Vincent's Orphanage when they visited the Sacred Heart Home and put on a short program of entertainment for the guests of the Home. The singing and dancing of the children was much appreciated by their audience, and a bountiful treat provided by the Sisters added to their enjoyment of the afternoon.

These vents manifesting the joy of the Spirit of Christmas during the festive Season began on Wednesday, December 18 when the children were the guests of Notre Dame Academy for their annual Christmas concert. After a delightful program including the Nativity play and Choral singing, Kinsmen from Summerside became Santa's helpers and arrived with a huge box of toys for the little ones. On Sunday, December 22, Santa Claus himself came with the Canadian Legion from Summerside under the leadership of Dr. Hubert MacNeill. They were accompanied by the Sea Cadets' Band under the direction of Gabriel Chaisson. Each child received a generous treat from Santa, and a very enjoyable program of Christmas Carols was furnished by the Band.

On Christmas Eve towards midnight the children came in Procession to the Chapel singing, "Come All Ye Faithful." Holy Mass was offered by Rev. George A. MacDonald, and the children welcomed the Christ - Child with hymns sung in His honor. The spirit of joy that belongs to Christmas was evident throughout the day as the children made merry with games, toys, books, and other gifts sent by their relatives and the many kind friends who remembered them at Christmas.

CONCERT
On December 29, the children staged a concert in the Assembly Hall at St. Dunstan's. They were happy to have as their guests the members of the St. Elizabeth's Aid, the B.I.S., and many other friends of the Orphanage.

Following is the program: Nativity Play, "Once Upon A Sometime," Dance of the Candy Canes, Grade One, Piano Duet, "Golden Rod" by Mary and Isabel Carter; Action Song, David MacPherson and Judy Clow; Virginia Reel, Grades Two and Three; Solo, "Danny Boy"; Billy Clow; Recitation, David Smith; Christmas Songs by a Group of Boys; Dialogue, "Who Took the Pie?"; Christmas Carols.

On December 30, the film "Going My Way" was presented at the Orphanage.
Monday, January 6 was another gala day in the calendar of festivities when Jimmy Power kindly arranged a concert for the children. The program was a delightful variety of music, dance, and song given by well known Charlottetown performers: Jimmy Power, Alfred MacKearney, Albert Blanchard, Art Cantwell, Eileen Grant, the Doyle Sisters, Cy Burke, Bernadette Shaw, Mary Cullen, Misses Walsh and Dowling.

A skating treat was enjoyed at the Sports Arena with a group of St. Dunstan's students on Saturday, January 11, and on the same day a Sing-Song Assembly at the Orphanage with a group of Notre Dame students.

Generous gifts of money, food, clothing, books, records, games and numerous other presents from many Charlottetown business firms, and from organizations and individuals throughout the province and even beyond. It helped the children to realize that the spirit of Christmas is one of gift giving since God gave to the world the Greatest Gift — His own Son, Jesus Christ, and their gratitude for the kindness of all these good friends became a symbol of their gratitude for God's gift of Love.
