Papermill Workers Call Strike Vote

FULL, Que (CP)—The International Brotherhood of Pulp, Sulphite and Papermill Workers (IBP), bargaining agent for about 1,000 workers at the E. B. Eddy Co. Ottawa and Hull mills, has called a strike vote meeting here Sunday.

Three locals of the United Papermakers and Paperworkers (UPP), representing 600 E. B. Eddy employees, last Friday also called a strike vote for Sunday.

The meetings were called following the failure of a second conciliation meeting last Thursday. Under Quebec law the unions can strike at the company's Hull mill on July 30.

Grain Export Figures Given

OTTAWA (CP)—Total exports of oats, barley, rye and flaxseed in the first three quarters of the current crop year was 42,400,000 bushels.

The bureau of statistics said the August-April figure was well below both the year earlier total of 50,200,000 bushels and the average for 10 years ending in 1963 of 47,000,000 bushels.

Individual figures with the previous year and 10-year figures in brackets: oats, 6,300,000 (15,100,000, 13,000,000); barley, 22,300,000 (22,300,000, 40,800,000); rye, 3,400,000 (3,400,000, 3,900,000); and flaxseed, 10,300,000 (9,400,000, 9,200,000).

BRISTOL

Rev. Mauris Coffin, O.M.I., has arrived here from the western mission fields to spend his vacation with his parents, Mr and Mrs. Grover Coffin, and other members of the family around the old home. Father Coffin who was very popular with the young class in years gone by, will serve at the Church of the Little Flower while here.

Sister Mary Gerard, O.S.B. Covington, Louisiana, the former Theresa O'Brien, writes that she will be stationed in Kansas City for the next school term after teaching in the New Orleans convent last term. She says she will welcome the change from the deep south as she has never seen winter weather since she left home to join the Benedictine Sisters.

This order has some 20,000 nuns in the United States alone and some 250, convents. There are also more than 12,000 monks in the order spread over the world, and more and more monasteries and convents are being built each year, with a new one on the Louisiana Lakes where Sister Mary Gerard is spending the season between school closing and re-opening. Several other island sisters have joined this large religious family founded centuries ago. Mrs. O'Brien, has visited her daughter during vacation time at the convent and ranch house in the south and says the trip that took eight days over the road going and coming is one to long to remember.

The lobster fishing season is all over here and reports say it was a bumper season with sky high prices. With the packing plant employing more than 100 at the busy season and the big prices to the fishermen, a mountain of money poured into this vicinity. Next season the packers expect to have a still larger plant. Farmers who at one time fought for the lobster shells for the land, especially for turnips, don't want them now. The management has to pay some one to haul the shells away and make it so convenient that trucks can be loaded from elevated bins in a few minutes, with the shells going up on an escalator to the bins.

A visitor to the packing plant during the season was John Baveaux, a long time foreman many years ago. Mr. Baveaux worked the packing plants when cans were hand sealed with the half moon soldering irons; days when lobsters were around one cent each. Mr. Baveaux is still very active but his eye sight has failed.

Mrs. John J. MacDonald-Bear River, has entered the Charlotte-Horn Hospital for further treatment. The former Margaret Cullen, of this vicinity, she was on the staff of Riverside Hospital for many years before her marriage. Her husband is with the department of transport on the patrol boats and they have a family of 14 children.

Mr. and Mrs. Owen Sinnott, Mitchell, Ontario, are expected here this week along with their three children to vacation with Mrs. Sinnott's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Eldershaw, at the old home in the village and with Mr. Sinnott's mother, Mrs. Margaret Sinnott at the old home in Bristol.

Visitors here recently from Boston were Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Hooper, after a long absence. They were guests at the old Hooper home with Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Hooper. The former Gertrude Hooper and her husband were also here this summer for a short stay. They were son and daughter of the late George Hooper. Another member of this family, Harry Hooper, also resides in Boston, and visits here in the summer with his wife, the former Agnes Flynn. They have not come as yet this summer.

The Church of the Little Flower here has gone on summer schedule. Masses are at 8 a.m. and 8 p.m. on Sundays for the summer.
