Two Young Men Quarrel With Fatal Results.

Telephone advices from Belle River give particulars of a tragedy which occurred there on Thursday evening.

It seems that on that day two young men, Donald M. Stewart and Allan J. Stewart, relatives, attended a plowing frolic and in the evening began drinking. A quarrel followed and Allan Stewart struck the other with a stick, breaking the skull and injuring the brain. Donald lived but a few minutes after being struck, and never spoke.

An inquest was held yesterday before coroner James McMillan, at which Dr. Barnes, who made the post mortem examination, and others gave evidence.

The verdict of the jury was to the effect that death was caused by a blow delivered by Allan J. Stewart during a quarrel.

Both young men are unmarried. When Allan J. Stewart became aware of the outcome of his action he became frantic with grief.

It is probable that he will be placed under arrest to-day.

Fatal Theft.

LONDON, Nov. 9.—The following despatch from Major-General Lorne Campbell has been received by the Secretary of State for India: "At Ting Ling, the Chinese attempted to steal powder and caused an explosion. Two soldiers and three camp followers were killed and four camp followers were injured. A large number of Chinese were killed or wounded owing to their wadded coats catching fire."

London's Lord Mayor.

LONDON, Nov. 9.—Mr. Frank Green, who was elected Lord Mayor of London, September 29th, was formally installed in that office at Guild Hall this afternoon. Lord Mayor Green is a native of Maidstone, Kent, and is a paper merchant. His wife, a daughter of Joseph Hayden, the author of the "Dictionary of Dates," died last winter, so the duties of lady mayoress will be undertaken by Mr. Green's daughter.

Madam Ramsdell is still at Mrs. McGregor's, Prince Street, where she will remain until on or about Nov. 13th. Anyone wishing anything in the hair dressing line should avail themselves of this opportunity. Will be in rooms from 12.30 until 2 o'clock, and will attend to ladies' and children's shampooing every evening after 6. Her famous DANBRUFF CURE is meeting with great success. FOUND DROWNED.

Sad Ending of Patrick Gormley—Inquest To-night.

About half-past eleven this forenoon a lad named Shepherd found the lifeless body of Patrick Gormley, a well known resident of Charlottetown in the dock at the west side of Poole's wharf, near Batt's forge.

A soon as possible after the finding of the body the police officers and Dr. Conroy, coroner, were notified and the following jury empanelled: Jas. Carter, Chas. Poole, Henry Edmunds, W. S. Batt, Dougald McIsaac, Theo. Moore and S. P. Paoli.

After the body was viewed by coroner and jury permission was given for its removal to the home of the deceased.

Gormley was a man about fifty years of age. He has a family of six, most of whom are grown up.

The deceased, it is said, had been drinking. It is thought that he wandered down the wharf during the night and fell into the dock. There was a slight abrasion of the skin on the forehead.

From the condition of the body it is thought that Gormley had been dead at least twelve hours.

To the Returned Island Soldiers from South Africa.

DEAR SIR:—Allow me to express my heartfelt appreciation of the unreserved fortitude and bravery you have exhibited in your part of "wiping off the slate" the enemies of the Queen, who are our enemies. Canada can never too highly prize the boys who gave one of the best years of their lives to leave home and loved ones, to endure, to suffer, yes, to die, for Queen and country. What you have done for Canada, for Prince Edward Island, can never be valued. I wish to express my sincere sympathy for you in the way you have been recompensed. You came home unable to go immediately to work and the majority without money or clothing. The other Colonials, New Zealanders and Australians received from their governments from $1.50 to $2.50 per day per man, (I am not referring to the small amount given the Imperial Government). The province of Ontario is giving 160 acres of land to each of her soldiers as a small recompense. St. John men received 50c per day while in South Africa, amounting to $1,72.50 each. I believe an invitation was extended to our Government to send P. E. Island's contributions to St. John, and our boys would receive the same as theirs, all being of G Company. I am told that the reply was sent: "No, we will look after our own boys." But there it ends, like all the "Liberal" promises; and but for the kind efforts of Mr. Geo. E. Hughes you would never have seen even $15. This Government is still in power, and judging from its reputation your reward ends with $15.

Permit me, sirs, to make this suggestion—that you appear in khaki in the Opera House and each give a few instances of your experiences. You will have an overflowing house at 50 cents a ticket. The people want to show their appreciation, and it would be a little for Tommy's pocket. Yours truly,
BRITON.

Yellow Fever in Cuba.

HAVANA, Nov. 9.—Hereafter the steamboat companies will meet transatlantic liners outside of Havana harbor and will transfer immigrants destined for other points. Those going to the rural districts of the provinces of Havana and Pinar Del Rio will not be allowed to enter Havana except en route. It is thought that these precautions will result in a rapid decrease of the yellow fever, as ninety per cent. of the cases now under treatment are among the immigrants. The government is encouraging immigration and a large increase is expected. In all cases an effort will be made to send the newcomers to those sections of the island where labor is particularly needed.

Hail in New York.

NYACK, N. Y., Nov. 9.—The first hail storm here in years occurred in Rockland county early yesterday morning accompanied by heavy clashes of thunder and sharp lightning. The hail stones were very large and many panes of glass were broken in some places. There were several small fires in the county started by lightning.

—Some time ago the suggestion was made that the Canadians on service in South Africa, upon their return home, should be permitted to retain, as their personal property, the rifles they carried throughout the campaign. The suggestion met with the instant approval of press and people, and it was taken for granted that the Militia Department would not rise any objections. But it appears that they have done so. Upon arrival at Halifax the men were instructed to hand over their rifles upon being discharged. After some parleying, they were granted permission to carry them to their homes, with the understanding that they would ultimately be handed over to the Department. As the rifles will be useless for further service it does seem that no objection should be offered to the men retaining them as souvenirs of the campaign—valued as they will be far more than any medal that may be bestowed.
