

Barbara Brent's BUYS AND WHYS
A WEEKLY INFORMATION SERVICE

MONTREAL, August 7th—Fashion-Model Virginia Owen was married recently. She was another beautiful Woodbury bride in her hoop-skirted gown of satin. But it was her satin-smooth Woodbury complexion that stole the show. A breathtaking bride—a popular model—Virginia protects her exquisite complexion with WOODBURY FACIAL SOAP. For she knows that Woodbury is more than a cleanser. You see, it contains a precious beauty-cream ingredient—the same softening oil used in finest face creams. It's intended to help replace the natural oils you wash away. Try Woodbury Soap yourself. See how its mild, milder cleans your skin thoroughly, yet gently—soothes and smooths it. And try the big Beauty-Bath Size Woodbury, too, for head-to-toe loveliness.

Your Family Will Call You "Dreamboat" when you treat them to this delicious dessert. Quick-and-easy-to-make, economical and is good! Mmm!—Mmm! . . . Lemon Crunch Ice Cream made with the finest, juiciest lemons grown—SUNKIST LEMONS, of course!

LEMON CRUNCH ICE CREAM
Combine 2 cups milk, 1 cup sugar, 1/2 cup fresh Sunkist lemon juice and 1 teaspoon grated lemon peel. Freeze until firm. Beat 2 egg whites to a meringue with 2 tablespoons sugar. Whip 1 cup whipping cream. Remove frozen mixture to a chilled bowl. Beat until fluffy. Fold in meringue and whipped cream. Add 1/2 cup crushed lemon drops or peanut brittle. Return to tray. Freeze to ice cream consistency. Serves 6.

You'll Want It For Your Salads . . . and for your pickling, too. So what better time to buy HEINZ WHITE VINEGAR than right now—during "Salad Week" and at pickling time! Buy the big gallon jug . . . it's the thriftest "buy" I know. And the best. For Heinz White Vinegar is distilled and aged by the firm who made pickles famous. Full-bodied in flavour, uniform in strength—it preserves the crisp texture and colour of your pickles to perfection. And, by the way, if the gallon jug you buy doesn't have the free recipe booklet, "Pickling Success" attached—write to me for it—Barbara Brent, 1411 Crescent St., Montreal, P.Q.

The Most Popular Girl On The Beach . . . and often she isn't the prettiest. It's the girl with sparkle and vitality. So when you're packing for your summer holidays—be sure to pack a vacation-supply of SAL HEPATICA. A glass of sparkling, pleasant-tasting Sal Hepatica before breakfast will make you feel as sunny as a summer day. Sal Hepatica effervescent salts have been a faithful family laxative for over 60 years. They're pleasant to take—and gentle as can be . . . and you can count on them to keep you feeling wonderful. (The "Belle of the Beach" can be you!)

Bristol and Vicinity

Mr. Merlin MacDonald, the early potato man in this vicinity, reports he has had spuds on the market for a month now.

The Misses Margaret and Gertrude Henneberry have arrived at their old home here after spending the winter and spring months with their sister Annie, in Ottawa. They will be home for the summer.

*Mr. and Mrs. William Roach, Halifax, N.S., are spending their vacation with old friends and relatives here after a long absence. Mr. Roach left here some thirty-five years ago and was back only once in that time. A brother Joe resides here and a sister, Alice, Mrs. Ed. Byrne, lives in the city.

Mr. and Mrs. Peter Walsh, Boston, Mass., are visiting Mr. Walsh's mother here after a long absence. Mr. Walsh informs us it is twenty-seven years since he left here and he was back only once for an overnight stop some years ago. A brother, Gus, still resides on the old farm site.

Archbishop A. A. Sinnott, retired Archbishop of Winnipeg, who has been visiting at his old home here for the first time in twenty years, left recently by air for his home in the West. He was a busy man from the hour he arrived by plane until his farewell on Sunday, Aug. 3rd, visiting old friends and school mates all over the Island.

The Misses Irene and Clara Ryan have arrived from Ottawa to spend their vacation with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Ryan. Civil service employees in the Capital City for many years, they were school teachers before going to the big City years ago.

The work at Red Head shore is going on again this season under the direction of Mr. Herb Hawbolt, and several men are getting employment in shifts. The dredge that was called away has been brought back from Rustico and we understand she will be here for some time to help with the work. Mr. Roy Cairns is the inspector of all the work for the Government.

Mr. Francis Anderson, who is a laundry man and has spent considerable time at the business, left here on July 30th for Ontario where he will be employed. He worked there for some time a few years ago, and later at Falconwood Hospital laundry.

Mr. Joe Walsh, who is considered a No. 1 foundation man, is putting in the foundation for a new barn on the property of Joe Sinnott. The work got underway on Monday, Aug. 4th. The new barn will be seventy feet by forty feet and will be erected by Mr. Clifford Dunn, and should be ready for use this fall.

Mr. Edward Byrne is erecting a new fence around the Bristol school. There was a new fence started here a year ago and never completed, so Mr. Byrne, who is a man of years of experience at this work, is taking the job over. When completed it will be quite an improvement to the school grounds.

Owing to the widening of the Sinnott road to a standard sixty-six feet, taking away more than half of the yard in front of the school, the Sinnott Road school will be moved to a new site across the road where there is plenty of room for a large playground. A dance put on in the school on Friday night, Aug. 1st, was well attended with proceeds going into the school fund.

Mr. R.J. Carter, Monticello, and his daughter Mrs. MacDonald, Boston, who is spending some time with her father, were visitors here on July 28th, guests of their old friend, Mr. John T. O'Brien and his daughter Mabel. Both Mr.

children to raise. We try to treat them as our own. My trouble is with my 15-year-old girl. She thinks my 10-year-old granddaughter should help with the dishes and other work. However, since she is five years older, I think she should do part of the younger girl's chores. After all, what can you expect of a 10-year-old girl? Also, I try to keep my granddaughter better clothed than my own children, because I am afraid people will talk if I don't.

PUZZLED GRANDMA

ANSWER: While you are to be commended for an honest try at being impartial to your children and grandchildren, your methods are rather ill advised.

Naturally, if you continue the present system, your own children will become very resentful of the younger members of the family. And rightfully so! The best way is to treat all the children as nearly alike as possible. No partiality should be shown to the grandchildren, or to your own. A 10-year-old is capable of quite a few household tasks, and she should be expected to perform them. Her clothing, too, should be on a par with that of her aunts. An attempt to make her the best-dressed member of the family will turn her into a vain little pest, resented by everyone else.

DEAR MISS DIX: I married a man from another town several months ago, and recently I found out about a girl he was going with before he met me. Whenever we meet this girl, she speaks to my husband and completely ignores me. Both my husband and I are very annoyed about it.

MRS. W. M.

ANSWER: Your husband should make a marked point of drawing you into the conversation when you meet this female, or of telling her directly that she should address you as well as himself.

Carter and Mr. O'Brien are getting along in life now and they had a wonderful chat of the old days of seventy years ago.

A welcome visitor here on Monday, July 28th, was Vincent Lund, who was home from Ottawa on a two weeks vacation. Mr. Lund, who worked here as a garage man, has been in the Capital City for quite a number of years and is a foreman in a big plant there. Now enjoying prime health and looking the best, he has left to return to his duties on July 30th with a regret that he did not get to see all his old friends in the vicinity.

Mrs. Annabelle Doucette left on Monday, Aug. 4th for the Magdalen Islands to spend some time with her brothers and other old friends in the gulf islands where she resided as a child. Her mother, Mrs. John L. Pierre, will join her there later for a month.

Mr. Phillip Sinnott informs us that he has what he thinks is a record for a young heifer, at least a record for here. This heifer gave birth to a calf at the age of one year and seven months, and on July 15th this year gave birth to twin calves at the age of two years and seven months. In other words this famous young cow won't be three years old until December this year and has already given birth to three lovely calves. This outstanding cattle man sold a young steer to Mr. Frank Kelly for his market last month, at the age of 14 months, and this animal dressed four hundred and twenty-five pounds of beef. Mr. Kelly reports that it was the finest steer he had ever put on his counter.
